UC-NRLF
C 2 525 607

BERKELEY
LIBRARY
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

[John Howes]

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2008 with funding from Microsoft Corporation

http://www.archive.org/details/thisrolwaslaburd00rousrich

Thys rol was labord
& finishid by Maistre
John Rowes of Barrewyk.

London. William Pickering.

1845

~~8545A~~
DA690
W3
R68
1845
MAIN

THE Publication of the following curious Roll, from one in the poſſeſſion of His Grace the Duke of Manchester, was undertaken by the late Mr. William Pickering, in the year 1845, but, from accidental circumſtances, left unfiniſhed at his deceaſe in 1854. Upon the ſale and diſperſion of his property, the impreſſion, as far as completed, came into the hands of Mr. Henry G. Bohn, and to that gentleman's ſpirit of enterpriſe and zeal in the cauſe of Literature, it is owing that this pictorial Chronicle is at length given to the Public.

Mr. Pickering was indebted to the Rev. Lambert Larking for the original tranſcript of the Roll, as alſo for the deſcription of the Shields emblazoned upon the back of it, and the very complete Index to the Hiſtorical Notices.

W. C.

March 30, 1859.

INTRODUCTION.

THE curious pictorial history of the Earls of Warwick given in the following pages is printed from a Roll "labured and "finished by Master John Rows of Warrewyk," and a short account of the history of its author, together with some remarks explanatory of the pictorial illustrations, will be found necessary for a due appreciation of the work itself and the more ready solution of the signification of the numerous devices that accompany each portrait.

John Rows, the author of this and of another Roll upon the same subject, hereafter alluded to, was born, in or about the year 1411, at Warwick, and was one of the two sons of Geoffrey Rows of that town, by Margaret, daughter of Richard Fyncham. Geoffrey Rows was the eighth son of Thomas Rows,* paternally descended from the Rowses of Brinklow,† whilst his wife, Margaret Fyncham, was descended from the family of Babington, and nearly related to that Thomas Babington of Dethick who fought under Henry V. at Agincourt, and whose son John Babington was traitorously slain at Bosworth, through the instrumentality of Sir James Blount, Provost-Marshal to the Earl of Richmond.‡ Rows was also connected, through his mother, with the family whose chronicler he became,—Joan Babington, his wife's cousin, having married Sir Thomas Neville of Rollestone.

His personal career is best gathered from his Life, by Leland, who himself

---

* Pedigree as given by Rows on the back of his Latin Roll. St. George's MSS. Vol. IV. 83. in Coll. Arm.

† In speaking of William Rufus, in his "Historia Regum," Rows refers to the possible descent of his family from that monarch, through an illegitimate channel, but leaves it in doubt. This family tradition may have had its origin in one of his ancestors, about the 12th century, having been Herebertus Rufus, son of William.

‡ Sir James Blount had married Jane, the heir expectant of Sir John Babington of Chervill, co. Notts. Being Captain of Hammes for Richard III, he betrayed his trust to the Earl of Richmond, released the Earl of Oxford, who was his prisoner in that fortress, and joining Henry of Richmond, acted as his Provost-Marshal at Bosworth, where, in seeking to slay his wife's uncle, and thereby accelerate her possession of his estates, he slew instead John Babington of Dethick, the kinsman of his intended victim.

derived it from obſervations dropped now and then by Rows himſelf, in his "Hiſtoria Regum." "Artibus Oxonie donatus honore magiſtri"—one of the lines attached to his portrait upon the Roll in the College of Arms, informs us that he was educated at Oxford, and on leaving the Univerſity he became one of the Chaplains of the Chantry of Guy's Cliff, Warwick, and reſided there the greater portion, if not the whole, of the remainder of his life, for he himſelf ſpeaks of having been there forty-one years when he dedicated his "Hiſtoria Regum," ſhortly after the birth of Prince Arthur, in 1486, to King Henry VII. His death occurred in 1491.

Guy's Cliff, the reſidence of Rows, and the ſite of ſo much legendary lore, is ſituated about a mile and a quarter from the town of Warwick; it was deſcribed by Leland as being in his time "an abode of pleaſure, a place meet for "the Muſes, with its natural cavities, its ſhady woods, its clear and cryſtal "ſtreams, its flowering meadows, and caves overgrown with moſs, whilſt a "gentle river murmurs amongſt the rocks, creating a ſolitude and quiet, moſt "loved by the Muſes."*

Here Rows lived and wrote; but he ſpent, no doubt, much of his time in his native town and in the caſtle of his patron, for he founded a library over the ſouth porch of St. Mary's Church, which he furniſhed with books; and the numerous dates and circumſtances given in his "Roll of the Earls of Warwick" afford concluſive evidence that he was intimately acquainted with the muniments of the family and the circumſtances that occurred in the Caſtle during the period of his long reſidence at Guy's Cliff. He tells us that he had ſearched in vain

---

* Guy's Cliff, or Gibcliff, as it was formerly called, on the weſtern bank of the Avon, was choſen as early as the fifth century by St. Dubricius, Archbiſhop of Caerleon, as a place of devotion, and here he built an Oratory dedicated to St. Mary Magdalen; it was the ſpot where in the tenth century, Guy, Earl of Warwick, ſpent the laſt years of his life. Thomas Beauchamp, 13th Earl of Warwick (No. 48), procured the patronage of it from the Priory of Warwick, and changed its name to Guy Cliff, in honour of Sir Guy, but it continued a hermitage till the reign of King Henry VI, in the firſt year of whoſe reign Richard Beauchamp, 15th Earl of Warwick, obtained a licence to found a Chantry for two prieſts; and by letters patent, 5th Nov. in the ninth year of the ſame reign, he had licence to annex thereto lands to the value of 24 marks per annum, conſiſting of the manor of Aſhorne, and a rent-charge in Whitnaſh and Welleſburn, making (as ſays Rows) "certen "there, a fore was uncerten at Gybclif, a chauntrie of 2 pryſtis that God wold ſend hym Eyre male." (Vide No. 50.) The Earl's further reaſons for this act are given in the Biographical Notice, No. 50; and he further, by will, directed that the chapel and reſidences for the prieſts ſhould be rebuilt, which was done at a coſt of £184 0*s.* 5½*d.* At the ſurvey, 37 Hen. VIII. (1545-6), it conſiſted of the chapel, the reſidences, a garden, and two cloſes of land, and was at its diſſolution valued at £19 10*s.* 6*d.* beyond reprizes, which are eſtimated at 22*s.* 2*d.*

amongſt the muniments for the Conqueror's Charter of creation of the Earldom of Warwick to Henry de Newburgh,—he throws more light than any hiſtorian upon the ſad hiſtory of Anne, Counteſs of Warwick, after her huſband's death at Barnet, and a remarkable inſtance of his knowledge of family events is afforded in his narration of the time and place of the birth and chriſtening of Ann Neville, Princeſs of Wales, and ſubſequently Queen of England, whoſe age till now has been a ſubject of ſpeculation with all hiſtorians who have written concerning this ill-fated lady. United in ſucceſſion to both the rival Houſes of York and Lancaſter, it was her unhappy deſtiny to be made the pivot on which turned more than one ſtate intrigue; and in ſeeking a clue to the myſtery that envelopes thoſe intrigues, and more particularly the cauſes of that laſt great quarrel between King Edward and her powerful father, the exact age of Ann of Warwick is in itſelf no inſignificant contribution to Engliſh hiſtory.

But neither did Rows confine himſelf to the "ſolitudo et quies muſis amiciſſima," or to the "pretty houſe of ſtone," built for the Chantry Prieſts by Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, or even to frequent journeyings between Guy's Cliff and the neighbouring town; he was occaſionally a viſitor to the metropolis, where he had peruſed the records at Guild-hall, and ſaw the elephant brought to London in the reign of Edward IV; on one occaſion he travelled ſo far even as North Wales and the Iſle of Angleſey, being ſent thither for the purpoſe of conſulting the Welſh Records, and at another time he went ſouthward to viſit the monks of Glaſtonbury Abbey;* he was alſo ſo far intereſted in political matters as upon one occaſion to have preſented to the Parliament, held at Coventry in 1459, a Petition upon the State of the Country and Grievances of the People, his ſympathies with whom are manifeſted in his account of Margaret, daughter and heir of Turchil, of Warwick, (No. 30.) His death occurred 24th January, 1491, at the age of 81 years; and he was buried in the body of St. Mary's Church, Warwick, where, in Leland's time, his epitaph was ſtill remaining.

His portrait, in the act of writing his Roll, is to be ſeen on the back of the one in the Library of the College of Arms, and to which the following lines are annexed:—

"John Rows hoc junxit heroum nobile ſtemma
"Warwyk quem genuit, ſenior fuit incola Gyclif,

* On this occaſion he brought away with him tranſcripts of ſome curious genealogies preſerved in the archives of the Abbey, one of which ſhowed that the ſoldier who pierced our Saviour's ſide was a natural ſon of Julius Cæſar, and that upon his converſion he married his only child to Joſeph of Arimathea, who was by her the anceſtor of Ygema, the mother of the famous King Arthur.

" Artibus Oxonie donatus honore magiſtri,
" Qui Britonum varia ſtudioſe cronica luſtrans
" Scriptis ex variis opus hoc conjecit in unum
" Per quod quiſque Comes propriis donabitur Armis
" In Warwyk ſucceſſurus feliciter heres.
" Fecit hic ut ducum redeat premortua vita
" Vivat hic ergo, Deus, per meti neſcia ſecla."

The Portrait is accompanied by his Armorial Bearings, viz. 1 & 4 Vair, on a Feſſe Gules, three Ducal Crowns, Or; for Rows: 2 & 3 Argent, three Bars Sable, on a Bend Ermine, three Croſs crofflets, Sable, for Fincham: there is alſo a Rebus, on his Name, twice repeated, viz. the letter V. in the centre of a Red Roſe;—Rows was then a Lancaſtrian.*

Leland and others give the following Liſt of his Works:—

Hiſtoria Regum Angliæ.
De Comitibus Warwicenſibus.
Chronicon Warwicenſe.
Vetuſtates Clivi Guidonici.
De Epiſcopis Wigorniæ.
De Academijs Britannicis.
Contra Hiſtoriolam Cantabrigienſem.

And many others, left unfiniſhed at his death. Of theſe, the firſt was edited by Hearne, in 1716, and a ſecond edition was printed in 1745; the Life of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, has been printed in Strutt's "Manners and Cuſtoms of the Engliſh," and ſome Hiſtorical Notices from his Engliſh Roll, as given in the Lanſdowne MS. 882, are attached to Hearne's "Life and Reign of King Richard II."

Alluſion has been made to our author's interference with political matters, and upon this ſubject ſomewhat more muſt be added for the more complete illuſtration of the Rolls about to be noticed:—

Walpole, in his "Hiſtoric Doubts," deſignates Rows as a vehement Lancaſtrian; he was ſo only for a brief period towards the cloſe of his life: Walpole knew him but as the author of the "Hiſtoria Regum Angliæ," dedicated with fulſome flattery to King Henry VII; he knew not that the author of that Dedication had only very lately deſcribed his then patron's adverſary, King

* The circumſtances of our Author's Life, and a very correct engraving of his Portrait, together with ſome remarks upon the Rolls, are to be found in a Paper by John Gough Nichols, Eſq. printed in the "Gents. Mag." for May, 1845.

Richard, as ruling his ſubjects "full commendably, puniſhing offenders of his "Laws, and oppreſſors of his Commons, and ſo cheriſhing thoſe that were vir- "tuous that he got great thank of God and love of all his ſubjects, both rich "and poor, and great laud of the people of all other lands about him." But Richard had been vanquiſhed and ſlain; and Rows now prefaces his Dedication to the conqueror by deſcribing his fallen adverſary as a tyrant,—"biennio matris "utero tentus, exiens cum dentibus et capillis ad humeros, cujus in nativitate "Scorpio erat aſcendens," &c. and he heſitates not to faſten upon him not only the murders of Henry VI.—of Edward V.—and of the Duke of York,—but of his own wife, Anne of Warwick: Walpole, ignorant of his former aſſociations, is yet puzzled by his conflicting aſſertions; for after ſtating that the murder of Henry VI. had made him deteſted of all nations, he adds immediately the account of an embaſſy arriving at Warwick Caſtle from the King of Spain, to negotiate a marriage between their children, at the reception of which he was himſelf preſent;—again, after ſtating that the laws of nature even had been ſet aſide to form the monſter he had deſcribed, he proceeds to ſay that, if he may ſpeak truth in Richard's favour,* he muſt own that, though ſmall in ſtature and in ſtrength, Richard was a noble knight. Had Walpole been aware of Rows's former political creed, he would have poſſeſſed a clue to theſe contradictions.†

For more than thirty years had Rows been Chaplain at Guy's Cliff, to pray for the good eſtate of the Earls of Warwick; twenty of theſe years were paſſed under the immediate patronage of that greateſt and laſt of the mighty Barons who formerly overawed the Crown of England:‡ no wonder then that we find him loud in praiſe of the godſon and near kinſman of his illuſtrious patron; no wonder that we find him defending the rights of the people, for Warwick, the ſtout ſupporter of the cauſe of King Edward, was eſſentially the man of the people, and Edward IV. a people's king,—to ſpeak in the forcible language of a modern writer,—"Edward was the man of his age, not one inch behind it or

---

* "Attamen ſi ad ejus honorem veritatem dicam."

† Anthony à Wood tells us that Rows wrote his hiſtory in 1483, having commenced it in the latter part of the reign of Edward IV; and one of the objections urged againſt him as an hiſtorian, by Walpole, is, that though he lived under all the three reigns of Henry VI. Edward IV. and Richard III, the lives of the two firſt occupy but two pages, and the latter, three: if Wood's ſtatement that it was written under the houſe of York be correct, all the latter portion of the work had probably to be cancelled, and (like his Latin Roll) re-written in a ſpirit not at variance with the Dedication.

‡ Hume's "Hiſt of England," edit. 1796, 8°. vol. III. p. 182.

Eliz.), and if additional evidence of its value were needed, it would be found in the fact that this officer, whoſe ſkill and knowledge in his profeſſion have never been excelled, made notes of the drawings, and accurately tranſcribed the whole of its Pedigrees and Hiſtorical Notices: unfortunately he does not ſtate in whoſe poſſeſſion the Roll then was, or give the date of the tranſcript which now forms No. 839 of the Aſhmolean Library; Sir William Dugdale's tranſcript of the Latin Roll is likewiſe in the ſame Library.

A rough-coloured copy of a part of this Roll will be found in the Lanſdowne MS. 882; it has the appearance of having been made about the reign of Queen Elizabeth, and is printed in Hearne's "Additions to the Life of King Richard II:" it is, however, a very imperfect tranſcript; Nos. 13 to 17, and 43 to 46, being altogether omitted; and as neither Richard III, Anne Neville, nor their ſon the Prince of Wales, are included, it is wanting in thoſe curious paſſages which exhibit the varying political views of the writer.

College of Arms,
March 30, 1859.

WILLIAM COURTHOPE,
SOMERSET.

DESCRIPTION OF THE PLATES.

I.

GUITHELIN, King of Britain, who founded the Town of Warwick about the period of the Birth of Alexander the Great, B. C. 356, calling it Caer Guithelin, or Caerleon, the City of Guithelin: in his left hand is a repreſentation of the Town of Warwick, a Bear ſejant in the gateway; upon his right, ſurmounting a Helmet, the Creſt of Wales, viz. upon a ducal Coronet, a cradle of fretwork, therein a Greyhound Argent.*

Arms. Gules, two Lions combatant, crowned, Or.—Theſe Arms, attributed to Hector, Prince of Troy, are given by Hardyng to Brute the firſt King of Britain:—

> "He bare on gules, two lions of gold
> "Counter rampant with gold both crowned
> "Of old Trojans, he was the next heir found
> "And in theſe Arms, he did this Iſle conquer;
> "His Anceſtry after him, the ſame did bear."

2. GUIDERIUS, King of Britain, A.D. 17; ſlain A.D. 44. In his right hand, a Mound and Croſs,—in his left, a repreſentation of the Town of Warwick, of which he was accounted the ſecond Founder.

Arms. As the laſt.

3. ST. CARADOC, the Reſtorer of Warwick. In a complete ſuit of chain armour, coronet and nimbus round his head; he bears in his right hand the Church of St. John the Baptiſt, which he founded, by his ſide the City of Old Sarum, which he built, and at his feet that of Warwick (which he reſtored), with the Bear ſejant at the gate, and eſcutcheon with the Ragged Staff above.

Arms. Azure, a ladder in bend Argent, between ſix lioncels rampant, Or.

4. CONSTANTINE, King of Britain; crowned A.D. 433, murdered 443, a great benefactor to Warwick, the name of which he altered from Caer-leon to Caer-umber; he holds the City in his left hand, and in his right, a Sceptre: on his right ſide ſtand the Towns of Worceſter and Caerwent.

Arms. As Nos. 1 and 2.

5. GWAYR: a Couſin in the third degree to King Arthur, and a great benefactor to Warwick, which he holds in his left hand; he changed its name again from Caer-

---

* Mr. Planché, in his "Regal Records," p. 165, conſiders this Creſt to have reference to the ſtory of Gellert, the faithful dog of Llewellyn, Prince of Wales.

At Warwick Caſtle, ſhe receives from the herdſman the ring ſent to her by her huſband, Sir Guy, juſt before his death in the Cave of Guy's Cliff.

Arms. Chequy, Or and Azure, a cheveron Ermine, impaling Gules, cruſilly botony, Or.

Alſo, Ermine, a Cheveron Gules. The Arms of the "Anceſtry of Sir Guy."

21. GUY, Earl of Warwick. In chain armour; a Battle-axe in his right hand, and on his left arm, a Shield chequy, Or and Azure, a Cheveron Ermine; upon his head a fan-like ornament,* which is found upon helmets of the 13th century, charged with the ſame Arms as upon the ſhield. At his feet lies a group of the monſters of which he rid the world, perhaps meant to repreſent the giant Amarat, Duke O tton, and the Soldan, one of whom carries a ſhield with an enormous boſs; there is likewiſe one of the Dragons of which he ſlew ſeveral, and the grateful Lion reſcued from death by Sir Guy, when travelling with his friend Sir Heraud of Ardern.

Arms. As the laſt.

Arms of Sir Heraud of Ardern. Ermine a feſſe chequy, Or and Azure.

22. GUY, Earl of Warwick, after his aſſumption of the pilgrim's weeds, and beneath which appears the Tabard of his Arms; in his right hand, a Staff,—in his left, a Roſary; his head irradiated, and at his feet, Colbrond the Daniſh Giant whom he ſlew at Wincheſter, after his return as a pilgrim from the Holy Land.

Arms. Chequy, Or and Azure, a human head (that of Colbrond) affronté, and filleted, Argent.—Creſt. Upon a Helmet, a Wreath, thereon a Croſs botony, Or.

Arms of Colbrond. Gules, an owl Argent.

23. RAINBURN, Earl of Warwick, ſon of Sir Guy and the Lady Felice. The legend attached to him is ſilent as to the meaning of the figure at his feet; but we learn from the Latin Roll, that he earned for himſelf in Ruſſia the reputation of a valiant knight, from having ſlain many giants in ſingle combat.

Arms. Quarterly of 4: Firſt, Chequy Or and Azure, a cheveron Ermine,—Sir Guy; 2. Sable, a Staff raguly in bend, Argent,—Gwayr; Argent, a Croſs botony, Or, entwined by a ſerpent, amid flames of fire,—Eneas; 4. Chequy, Or and Azure, the head of Colbrond, affronté and filleted, Argent,—alſo Sir Guy: impaling, Per ſaltire Gules and Azure, a Croſs patonce, Or, for the daughter of Athelſtan, King of England.

24. WEGEAT, or WAYTH,
25. UFA,
26. WOLGEAT, or WOLLET,

Succeſſively Earls of Warwick: all ſimilarly pourtrayed, in chain armour, with Staves or Lances in the right hand ſurmounted by their head-pieces, attached by a chain to the hilts of their ſwords; each holds a Charter in the left, in memorial of benefactions made to the Abbey of Eveſham.

Arms of Wageat and Ufa. Quarterly 1. Sir Guy; 2. Gwayr; 3. Eneas; 4. Chequy, Or and Azure, with Colbrond's head.

Arms of Wolgeat. 1ſt & 4th as the laſt: 2nd. Rohand; 3. Gwayr.

---

* An inſtance of this ornament is found in Planché's "Purſuivant of Arms," 1852; p. 174.

Deſcription of the Plates.

27. WYGOD. His head-piece worn, but attached, as before, to the Sword, which is brandiſhed in the right hand; in his left, a ſmall Shield.

Arms. 1ſt & 4th as the laſt: 2nd. Gules:* 3. Eneas; impaling Sable, an Eagle diſplayed, Or, beaked and membred Gules for Leofric, Earl of Mercia.

28. ALWIN. Armed as the five preceding Knights, but the Shield on his arm ſhews Chequy, Or and Azure, a Cheveron Ermine.

Arms. As Nos. 24 & 25.

29. THURKILL. A great Saxon Warrior, but one of thoſe who adhered to the Norman William; armed as the preceding, but with Battle-axe in his right hand, and in his left, the Town and Caſtle of Warwick: at his feet, a Bow, Arrows, and Club.†

Arms. As No. 26.

30. MARGARET, daughter of Thurkill. Upon her left, the Preceptory for Templars, founded by her at "Llammadoc" in North Wales.

Arms. Lozengy, Or and Azure, a bordure Gules charged with plates, impaling the Arms and Quarterings of her father.

31. HENRY DE NEWBURGH, Earl of Warwick, and huſband of the laſt. In his right hand, a Lance; in his left, the Priory of St. Sepulchre, which he founded: at his feet, a Lion.

Arms. As the laſt, excepting that the Arms of Eneas are given inſtead of Gwayr in the 3rd quartering of the impalement.

32. ROGER DE NEWBURGH, Earl of Warwick. Armed as the laſt, but holding in his right hand his Sword, and in his left, the united Church of All Saints and St. Mary; by his ſide is the Hoſpital of St. Michael, for Lepers, and beneath, a Preceptory for Templars, both of them founded by him: at his feet, a Lion.

Arms. 1. Newburg; 2. Sir Guy; 3. Chequy, Or and Azure, the head of Colbrond as before; 4. Rohand:—impaling, Chequy, Or and Azure.

33. WILLIAM DE NEWBURGH, Earl of Warwick. Armed as his predeceſſors, excepting the head-piece, which, hitherto of Anglo-Saxon, is now of Norman faſhion; he holds in his left hand the Church of St. John, Warwick, which he founded: at his feet, a Lion.

Arms. Dexter, as the laſt: Siniſter, Per Pale, Or, a Lion Rampant, Azure for Percy, and Azure, fretty Or, for D'Eyville.

34. WALERAN DE NEWBURGH, Earl of Warwick. Repreſented with ſurcoat over his armour, and head-piece furniſhed with naſal; in his right hand, a Sword and Charter: he bore the Sword at the Coronation of King John, and the Charter commemorates the confirmation of his father's gift to Gibcliff or Guy-cliff. A Lion at his feet.

Arms. Dexter, as the laſt: Siniſter, Per Pale, Azure, a bend Argent cottiſed, Or, between ſix lions rampant, Or, for Bohun; and Or, two Bars Gules, for Harcourt.

---

* The Croſs Croſslets botony are omitted here by miſtake; they are given in the Latin Roll.

† The eſcutcheon, which marks the building in his left hand to be Warwick Caſtle, is omitted in this Roll, though found on the Latin or Lancaſtrian Roll.

35. HENRY DE NEWBURGH, Earl of Warwick. With ſurcoat, as the laſt Earl, and Shield upon his right arm, charged with the ſame; in his left hand, a Spear, and at his feet, a Lion.

Arms. Dexter, as the laſt: Sinifter, Per Pale, Or, two Bends Azure, for D'Oyly, & Barry nebuly of twelve, Gules and Or, for Baſſet.

36. THOMAS DE NEWBURGH, Earl of Warwick. His helmet placed upon the corner of his ſhield is the firſt repreſented with a viſor, and attached to it is a gorget of chain; he is uncovered excepting a fillet that ſurrounds his head.

Arms. Dexter, quarterly of Six;—1. & 2. as the laſt; 3. D'Oyly; 4. Colbrond's head; 5. Rohand; 6. Gwayr: impaling azure, 6 lioncels rampant, 3, 2, & 1, Or, for Longeſpée.

37. MARGERY, Counteſs of Warwick. With Charter, in her left hand, alluſive to her grant of the Clay-pits to the Commonalty of Warwick.

Arms. The dexter per pale for her two huſbands, viz. Per pale, Or and Vert, a Lion rampant Gules, charged with an annulet for Mareſchal, and Argent, five Annulets, 2, 2 & 1, Gules,* for De Pleſſetis; impaling the Arms of her father, as the laſt.

38. JOHN MARESCHAL, Earl of Warwick. Helmet as No. 55, with ſurcoat and ſhield charged with the Arms of Mareſchal.

Arms. Dexter, Per Pale, Or and Vert, a Lion Rampant Gules, charged with an annulet; impaling thoſe of his wife, as the laſt.

39. JOHN DE PLESSETIS, Earl of Warwick, ſecond huſband of Margery. In an Anglo-Saxon helmet,† with ſurcoat of his Arms, and Shield on his left arm: at his feet, a Lion.

Arms. Argent, ſix Annulets, 3, 2 & 1 Gules; impaling as before.

40. ALICE, daughter of Earl Waleran, wife of William Mauduit, Baron of Hanſlape.

Arms. Argent, two Bars Gules; impaling, Quarterly of 4,—1ſt. Newburgh;—2. Sir Guy;—3. Gwayr;—4. Rohand.

41. WILLIAM MAUDUIT, Baron of Hanſlape, her huſband. In his hand, a Shield, per pale of Mauduit, and Argent, two Bars, and in chief, three fleurs-de-lis, Gules, for St. Liz.‡ At his feet, a Gryphon.

Arms. Same as the laſt; excepting that the Arms of Eneas are put in the place of thoſe of Gwayr.

42. WILLIAM MAUDUIT, Earl of Warwick. In helmet and chain gorget, as in No. 36. A Gryphon at his feet.

Arms. Quarterly of ſix; 1. Mauduit; 2. Newburgh; 3. Sir Guy; 4. Rohand; 5. Argent, two Bars,§ Gules, for St. Liz; 6. Argent, a Lion Rampant, Azure & Chief Gules, Waltheof, earl of Huntingdon: impaling Sable, a Lion Rampant Argent, crowned Or, for Segrave.

---

* In the ſubſequent ſhield, the arms given for De Pleſſetis are 6 Annulets.

† In the Latin or Lancaſtrian Roll, he is repreſented in a helmet ſimilar to No. 36, and with no lion at his feet.

‡ In the laſt-quoted Roll, he bears in his hand a ſhield with the Arms of Mauduit only; the coat of St. Liz, given as above, and the quartering of Waltheof, in the ſhield No. 42, imply a match between Mauduit and St. Liz, Earls of Northampton and Huntingdon, not given in the Pedigrees of thoſe Families.

§ The three fleurs-de-lis in Chief are probably omitted by miſtake.

43. ISABEL MAUDUIT, wife of William Beauchamp (in her right), Earl of Warwick. In a mantle of the Arms of Mauduit, over a ſurcoat powdered with croſs croſſlets; a Roſary in her right hand, and at her feet, a Gryphon.

Arms. Quarterly of 4:—1. & 4. Gules a feſſe, Or,—Beauchamp; 2. Per pale, Or and Gules, 3 roundles counterchanged,—Abitot; 3. Argent, on a feſſe Azure, three fleurs de lis, Or,—Ufflete;* impaling quarterly of 6: 1. Sir Guy; 2. Newburgh; 3. Mauduit; 4. Eneas; 5. Colbrond's Head; 6. Rohand.

44. WILLIAM BEAUCHAMP, Earl of Warwick, huſband of the laſt. With ſword and lance, and helmet as in No. 22; at his feet, a Lion.

Arms. As the laſt.

45. WILLIAM BEAUCHAMP, Earl of Warwick. A Lion fawns at his right knee; in his right hand, a Lance, with Banner of the Arms of Beauchamp, and in his left, the Priory of Shouldham in Norfolk, which had been founded by his wife's family, and to which he was a great benefactor.

Arms. Quarterly of 5:—1. Beauchamp, as No. 43; 2. Sir Guy; 3. Newburgh; 4. Mauduit; 5. Abitot: impaling, Quarterly of 4:—1. Gules, 2 bends, the upper, Or, the lower, Argent,—Fitz-Piers; 2. Vair, an eſcutcheon quarterly, Or and Gules,—Fitz John; 3. Vair,—Piers of Ludgarſhall; 4. Quarterly, Or & Gules, Mandeville.

46. GUY BEAUCHAMP, Earl of Warwick. In his right hand he holds the Priory of Weſtacre, co. Norfolk, to which he was a benefactor, and where he built the Gate-houſe; in his left, a Banner of the Arms of Baliol, having received a gift from the King of the Honor and Caſtle of Barnard, forfeited by John Baliol, King of Scotland. At his feet lies Piers Gaveſton, upon whoſe ſhield of Vert, 6 eagles diſplayed, Or, he tramples; the Earl had ſeized him out of the cuſtody of the Earl of Pembroke, carried him to Warwick Caſtle, and cauſed his head to be ſtruck off, on Blacklow Hill.

Arms. Quarterly of 7:—1. Gules, a feſſe between 6 croſs croſſlets, Or, Beauchamp; 2. Sir Guy;—3. Fitz-Piers;—4. Newburgh; 5. Abitot;—6. Mauduit;—7. Fitz-John: impaling, Quarterly 1ſt & 4th Argent, a Maunch Gules,—Tony; 2 & 3 Argent, a Lion Rampant, Azure, & Chief Gules,—Waltheof.

47. THOMAS BEAUCHAMP, Earl of Warwick, one of the Founders of the Order of the Garter, and Marſhal of England. In his left hand he carries his Baton, as Marſhal,—in his right, a Caſtle, preſumed to be that of Warwick, which he walled and gated, alſo a Charter, in memorial of his making the Town toll-free. At his feet is a muzzled Bear, and a Font, with a crowned figure, alluding to the Baptiſm of a ſon of the Monarch of the Lithuanians, whom he took in war, and brought to London and chriſtened after himſelf, Thomas.

Arms. Quarterly of 8:—1. Beauchamp;—2. Sir Guy;—3. Fitz-Piers;—4. Newburgh;—5. Fitz-John;—6. Mauduit;—7. Abitot;—8. Tony: impaling, Quarterly, 1ſt & 4th, Barry of 12, Argent and Azure,—Brun; 2. Azure, 3 barnacles in pale, Argent; a chief ermine, thereon a lion iſſuant, Gules,—Gene-vile;—3. Barry of 4, Or and Azure, an ineſcutcheon Argent, on a chief of the 1ſt. two pallets between as many gyrons of the ſecond,—Mortimer.

* The fleurs-de-lis are omitted upon the front, though found upon the back of the Roll.

48. THOMAS BEAUCHAMP, Earl of Warwick, K.G. He built a ſtrong and ſtately Tower at the north-eaſt corner of Warwick Caſtle, and the whole body of the Collegiate Church of Our Lady, both of which deeds are figured forth; upon his left knee is the Garter,* and at his feet lies a Bear unmuzzled.

Arms. Quarterly of 8:—1. Beauchamp;—2. Sir Guy;—3. Newburgh;—4. Fitz-Piers;—5. Mauduit;—6. Fitz-John;—7. Tony;—8. Abitot: Impaling, Quarterly of 16,—1. Gules, ſeven maſcles, conjoined, 3, 3 & 1. Or, Ferrers;—2. Lozengy, Or & Azure, Torf, the Dane;—3. Azure, a Wolf's head eraſed Argent, Lupus;—4. Gules, a Cinquefoil Ermine, Bellomont;—5. Lozengy, Or and Azure, a bordure compony Argent and Gules, Mellent;—6. Vair, Or and Gules, a bordure Azure, charged with horſeſhoes Argent, Ferrers;—7. Gules, cruſilly Or, a Wolf's head eraſed Argent, Richard, Earl of Cheſter;—8. Azure, three Garbs Or, Randolph, Earl of Cheſter;—9. Or a Feſſe Gules, Lacy;—10. Per pale, Or and Vert, a Lion Rampant Gules, Marſhal;—11. Sable a Croſs engrailed Argent, Ufford;—12. Or, ſix lioncels Sable, 2, 2 & 2. Strongbow;—13. Per pale, indented Or and Gules; Grantmeſnil;—14. Or, fretty Gules, Verdun;—15. Sable, a Lion Rampant, Gules, McMoro', King of Leinſter.

49. THOMAS HOLLAND, Duke of Surrey, K.G. Marſhal of England,—the Baton of which office he bears in his right hand; he is delineated with the ducal circlet on his head,† and the Cap of Eſtate, then peculiar to the ducal dignity; at his feet, a Hart lodged, gorged with a ducal coronet, being the device of his half brother, King Richard II. derived from that of their mother, the fair Counteſs of Kent, which was a White Hind.

Arms. England, with a bordure, Argent.

50. RICHARD BEAUCHAMP, Earl of Warwick, K.G. This powerful noble, the Protector of the young King Henry VI. during his nonage, bears upon his left arm the infant crowned and ſceptred Monarch, and in his hand a Mace for that monarch's defence, and the Collar of the Livery of the Houſe of Lancaſter;—in his right hand, the Memorial of his erection of the Lady Chapel, adjoining to the Collegiate Church of Warwick, where he lies buried, and beneath is a ſmaller Memorial of his beneficence to the Chantry of Guy's Cliff; on his left leg, the Garter, and at his feet, the muzzled Bear.

Arms. Dexter, as No. 47; impaling, Quarterly of 11,—1. Gules, a Cheveron between 10 Croſſes pattée, Argent, Berkeley;—2. Gules, a Croſs engrailed, Or;‡ 3. Azure, a Lion rampant, Or, Fitz-Hamon, earl of Glouceſter;—4. Or, a Feſſe between two Cheverons, Sable, Liſle;—5. Or, three Cheveronells,

---

* In the Latin or Lancaſtrian Roll garters have been inſerted on the knees of the figure before No. 48 and the two figures following.

† The arches ſurmounting the circlet are probably a miſtake, and are not found in the Latin or Lancaſtrian Roll.

‡ Probably Eldol, Earl of Glouceſter, circa 461, called on the back of the Roll Oddo and Doddo, Earls of Glouceſter; in this ſhield the Croſs is Argent,—in No. 54, it is Or.

gules, Clare;—6. Gules, three Clarions Or, Conſul, earl of Glouceſter;—7. Gules, a Lion paſſant, Argent, crowned Or, Liſle;—8. Gules, a Lion rampant queue fourché, Or, Burgherſh;—9. Azure, a Lion rampant argent, debruiſed by a Bendlet, Gules, Weland;—10. Argent, a Cheveron Gules, Tyes;—11. Quarterly Argent and Gules, in the 2nd & 3rd quarters a fret Or, over all a Bendlet Sable, De Spencer.

51. MARGARET, eldeſt daughter and coheir of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, wife of John Talbot, Earl of Shrewſbury; in the head attire that began to be worn about the middle of the 15th century.

Arms. Quarterly of 4:—1ſt. Gules, 3 Garbs within a double treſſure flory counter flory, Or, Comyn;—2. Azure, a Lion Rampant within a border, Or, Talbot;—3. Gules, a Lion Rampant, within a border engrailed, Or, Talbot;—4. Argent, two Lions paſſant Gules, Strange:—impaling, as on the dexter of the laſt.

52. ELEANOR, ſecond daughter and coheir of the ſaid Richard; and wife of Edmund Beaufort, Duke of Somerſet; habited as the laſt.

Arms. France and England, within a bordure compony Argent and Azure, impaling the ſame, as in the laſt.

53. ELIZABETH, third daughter and coheir of the ſaid Richard, and wife of George Neville, Lord Latimer.

Arms. Quarterly 1ſt & 4th. Gules a Saltire Argent, charged with a roſe gules, Neville;—2 & 3. Gules a Croſs patonce Or, Latimer,—impaling the ſame, as in the laſt.

54. HENRY BEAUCHAMP, Earl of Warwick: in his right hand he holds the Verge or Rod, delivered to a Duke, upon Inveſtiture, and the Collar of SS, the Livery Collar of the Houſe of Lancaſter, hangs over his arm; in his left hand he holds a Lance, and at his feet, is the Bear collared and chained, but unmuzzled.

Arms. Quarterly of 19:—1. Sir Guy;—2. Rohand;—3. Gwayr;—4. Newburgh;—5. Fitz-Piers;—6. Tony;—7. Beauchamp;—8. Colbrond's head;—9. Fitz-John;—10. Mauduit;—11. Abitot;—12. Waltheof;—13. Eldol:—14. Fitz-Hamon;—15. Clare;—16. Conſul;—17. Burgherſh;—18. De Spencer;—19. Weland: impaling, Quarterly 1ſt & 4th. Argent, three fuſils in feſſe Gules, Montacute;—2. Or, an eagle diſplayed, Vert beaked & membred Gules, Monthermer;—3. Gules, a Saltire Argent, a label compony, Argent and Azure, Neville.

55. ANNE, daughter and heir of the laſt named: died an infant of 5 years old; a Bear at her feet unmuzzled.

Arms. 1. Sir Guy;—2. Rohand;—3. Newburgh;—4. Beauchamp (ancient);—5. Gwayr;—6. Tony;—7. Beauchamp;—8. Colbrond's head;—9. Fitz John;—10. Fitz Piers;—11. Abitot;—12. Waltheof;—13. Mauduit;—14. Baliol;—15 to 19 as 13 to 17 in the laſt;—20. Widville;—21. De Spencer;—22. Weland.

56. ANNE BEAUCHAMP, ſiſter of the whole blood of Henry, Duke of Warwick, and aunt of the laſt; habited as her half ſiſters, 51, 52, and 53; a Bear unmuzzled at her feet.

Arms. 1 & 4. Montacute; 2. Monthermer; & 3. Neville; impaling Arms and Quarterings, as in No. 55.

57. RICHARD NEVILLE, Earl of Warwick, the King-maker, her huſband. On his left arm, a Shield with the Enſigns of Montacute and Monthermer; at his feet the Pied Bull of Neville and the Green Eagle of Monthermer,—on either ſide the Creſts of Montacute and Néville.*

Arms. 1. Montacute; 2. Monthermer; 3. Neville; 4. Per bend ſiniſter, Sable and Or, a Lion rampant counterchanged, Francis;—impaling as before.

58. ISABEL, daughter and coheir of the laſt named,—habited in the faſhion of the preceding Ladies, with the Bear unmuzzled at her feet.†

Arms. France and England, with a Label of 3 points Argent, each charged with a canton, Gules;—impaling Quarterly of 26,—1 to 12. as the laſt impalement; 13. Montacute;—14. Monthermer;—15. Neville;—16. Beauchamp (ancient);—17. Eneas;—18. Baliol;—19. Eldol;—20. Fitz-Hamon;—21. Conſul;—22. Clare;—23. Burgherſh;—24. Widville:—25. De Spenſer;—26. Weland.

59. GEORGE, Duke of Clarence, huſband of the laſt:—Great Chamberlain of England, and Lieutenant of Ireland; he holds in his left hand a Caſtle (in alluſion probably to his Lordſhip of Richmond) and the Livery Collar of his brother, King Edward IV. (Suns and Roſes) with the pendant Lion of March; on his head he wears the ducal circlet and Cap of Eſtate, and at his feet lies the Dun Cow of Warwick.‡ His Creſt and Badge are upon his right hand; the latter a camail, or guard for the throat of chain-mail, ſo called from its reſemblance to the tippet of camel's hair in faſhion in the 14th century.§

---

* The Hiſtorical Notices beneath the Portraitures in the Latin or Lancaſtrian Roll are as follows:—
"Ricardus Nevill, filius & hæres Ricardi de Novovilla Comitis Sar: et poſt ejus obitum ejuſdem comes,
"jure uxoris venerabilis Anne. Erat iſte Comes tante nobilitatis quod ad ejus natum tota Anglia attendebat
"et per totum Chriſtianiſſimum predicatus eſt. Capitaneus Caliſie, Gardianus marchiarum Scotie, magnus
"Camerarius Anglie, Seneſchallus ducatus Lancaſtrie, et ſub rege Edwardo, in cujus adoleſcentia Locum
"tenens, et preterea ſub rege Henrico (corona ſua readepta) Locum tenens Anglie in eorum abſentia.
"Suiſque diebus Anglia habuit magnam effuſionem ſanguinis, finaliter tum fortuna ſiniſtrante apud Barnet
"in bello die Paſche xiiij die Apr. 1470 diem clauſit extremum: relictis duobus filiabus ſuis heredibus Iſa-
"bella duciſſa Clarencie, Anna tunc uxore Principis Edwardi apud Teukſbury interfecti, que ſecundo
"nupſit Rico duci Gloceſtrie, fratri Regis Edwardi et ducis Clarencie Georgij.

"Nobiliſſima Anna virtutum indificiens exemplar, prefati ducis Henrici ex utraque parente ſoror, poſt
"mortem neptis ſue, ſpecioſiſſime infantole Anne, predicti Ducis Henrici unice filie et heredis totius Dominii
"Warwici cum pertinencijs immediate heres et comitiſſa. Hec domina nata apud Caverſham juxta Radin-
"gum in com. Oxon. tertio idus Julij a°. 1429 cujus vita erat devota ſed tribulationibus plena: poſt mortem
"vero comitis viri ſui diu apud Bewle juxta Southampton ſub franchefida dicta Lea, pauperime latuit, ab
"hinc in plagam borealem cauteloſe evadens ad maiorem ſtrictitudinem evoluit, omnibus ſuis hereditarie poſ-
"ſeſſionibus authoritate Parliamenti exuta q. ex electione Anne filie ſue duciſſe Gloceſtrie dum vixit, que
"duciſſa prius nupſerat principi Edwardo apud Teukſburie in bello interfecto."

† The Latin legend given in the Lancaſtrian Roll is,—"Iſabella Duciſſa Clarencie uxor Ducis Georgij
"et prima filia Ricardi Nevill comitis Warr: nata fuit hec domina in caſtro Warr: mens: Septemb: die
"quinto anno 1451, et in eodem Caſtro obijt xxij die Decemb. 1476 et Teukeſburie eſt ſepulta. Iſta dña
"habuit duos filios Edwardum et Ricardum et unicam filiam apud Farley juxta Bathe natam noie Marga-
"retam et pdcs Ricus erat Tewkeſbury natus ſed Warr. ſepultus pro quorum (viz.) matris et filij multa
"mala continue ſequibantur. Fama erat quod intoxicati erant et quia ſuſpecti fuerunt, erant apud Warr.
"tracti et ſuſpenſi et finaliter ſequibatur, interfectio et damnatio predicti ducis Georgij apud Teukſburye
"poſtea ſepulti."

‡ So deſcribed in Glover's tranſcript of the Roll.

§ In the Latin Roll, the Duke of Clarence is repreſented in a Tabard of his Arms and the Garter upon

Deſcription of the Plates.

Arms. Quarterly of Six: 2, 2, & 2; 1. France;—2. England, with label of 3 points each charged with a canton Gules;—3. Brun;—4. Genevile;—5. Mortimer;—6. Brun: impaling the ſame quarterings as in the laſt.

60. EDWARD, Earl of Warwick, ſon of George, Duke of Clarence, and Iſabel: at his feet, the Dun Cow of Warwick, and the Bear unmuzzled.*

Arms. Quarterly of 4:—1. France;—2. England;—3. Beauchamp;—4. Sir Guy; with label of 3 points each charged with a canton Gules: an Ineſcocheon quarterly, 1.—Fitz-John;—2. Newburgh;—3. Neville;—4. Tony.†

61. MARGARET, daughter of George, Duke of Clarence, repreſented as a child with flowing hair,—the Dun Cow, and the Bear of Warwick, collared and chained, but unmuzzled, at her feet.‡

Arms. The dexter ſide blank,—impaling quarterly of 12—4, 4, & 4; the firſt 4, France and England quarterly,§ with the label of her father: the ſecond 4,—Sir Guy, Beauchamp, Neville, and Newburgh: the third 4,—Montacute, Monthermer, Francis, and Tony.

62. ANNE NEVILLE, Queen of Richard III. Habited in Royal Robes, with long flowing hair, and Crown upon her head,—in her right hand the Sceptre, and in her left, the Mound and Croſs: on either ſide, are hands iſſuant from clouds, proffering to her the rival diadems of Lancaſter and York, in alluſion to her two marriages: at her feet, the muzzled Bear of Warwick.‖

Arms. France and England quarterly, impaling Quarterly of 7; viz. 1. Sir Guy; 2. Beauchamp; 3. Montagu; 4. Monthermer; 5. Neville; 6. Clare; 7. De Spencer.

---

his left leg; he wears the ducal cap, without the Arches (which are no doubt a miſtake): a drawing of the Livery Collar which he holds in his left hand may be found in Planché's "Purſuivant of Arms," p. 108.

The Latin legend is,—"Illuſtris et ex nobiliſſima Anglorum ſanguine procreatus, Georgius Dux Cla-"rentiæ frater ex utroque parente Regis Edwardi 4. Dublinie caſtro natus die menſis Octobr. media hora "inter xi & xij vel parum plus Anno dñi 1440 jure uxoris ſue Iſabelle ſenioris filiarum Rici Nevil comitis "Warr: et Anne comitiſſe Warr. com. et Sarum. Iſte dux erat Dux Clarencie comes Warr: et Sar: "magnus camerarius Anglie & dñs de Richmund, ac locum tenens Hibernie. Obijt iſte Dux 25 die Febr. "Anno dñi 1477."

* Like his father, he is upon the Latin Roll repreſented in a Tabard, and with the following legend:—"Edwardus filius et heres Georgij Ducis Clarentie et jure matris comes Warwici cum cunctis "appendicijs. Iſte dominus natus eſt in caſtro Warr: xxi die menſis Febr. circa horam xj diei a°. dni 1474."

† The quarterings on the Ineſcocheon in the Latin Roll are, 1. Gwayr;—2. Newburg (Torf);—3. Neville;—4. Mauduit.

‡ Her legend on the Latin Roll is as follows:—"Domina Margareta filia Georgij Ducis Clarentie uxo-"riſque ſue Iſabelle filie et unius heredum illuſtris comitis Warr: Rici de Novavilla jure uxoris ſue venera-"bilis dne Anne filie Rici de Bellocampo comitis Warr. pcellentis Warr comitis. Hec nata eſt . . . die "menſis Auguſti a° dni 1473 apud Caſtell Farley in Com. Wilton, juxta civitatem Bathonienſem."

§ Upon the Lancaſtrian or Latin Roll, France and England impaled occupy the upper half of the impalement, with the ſame label.

‖ Anne Neville is repreſented altogether differently in the Latin Roll; ſhe is deſpoiled of her regal attire, and habited like her ſiſter Iſabel; the hands proffering the rival diadems are the ſame, and as her death is ſtated in the Hiſtorical Notice below her portraiture, the removal of the Royal Inſignia muſt have been the deliberate act of Rows; the notice is as follows: "Precellens domina Anna ſecunda filia et una heredum "illuſtris Ricardi Nevill et conſortis ſue venerabilis Anne comitiſſe Warr: nata eſt in Caſtro Warr: anno "Domini . . . . . et obijt apud . . . . . ſepultaque eſt Weſtmonaſterij ante "majus altare Abbathie coram preſbiterio ibidem." The date of her birth is ſupplied by the Yorkiſt Roll —Vide No. 62.

63. RICHARD III. King of England: in a full ſuit of armour, excepting his head, which wears the Royal Crown; in his right hand, a Sword,—in his left, the Mound and Croſs: at his feet, his own Cognizance, the White Boar. On his right ſide, the Creſts of St. Edward, France, Gaſcony and Guienne; and on his left, thoſe of England, Ireland, and Wales.*

Arms. As the laſt.

64. EDWARD, PRINCE OF WALES, ſon of King Richard III: he holds a Sceptre in his left hand, and wears on his head the regal crown;†—ſtanding upon his father's Cognizance of the White Boar.

Arms. France and England, quarterly; with Label of three points, Argent.

---

* In the Latin Roll, Richard III. is repreſented in a Tabard, with Sceptre in his right hand, ſurrounded by the ſix Creſts above deſcribed, whilſt beneath runs the following legend:—"Ricardus tertius "Rex Anglie Anne Regine filie ſecunde Ricardi Nevill, Comitis Warwici et Anne Comitiſſe, uxoris ſue, "infelix Maritus."

Between this portraiture and the preceding, the Roll has been mutilated for the purpoſe of inſerting Edward, Prince of Wales, ſon of King Henry VI, and the firſt huſband of Anne Neville; he is repreſented in a full ſuit of Armour, ſtanding on a Lion, with Sceptre in his right hand and Royal Crown upon his head, ſurrounded by the Creſts of Jeruſalem, Arragon, and Anjou, on his right, and Sicily, Naples, and Lorraine, on his left; beneath runs the legend noticed in the Introduction.

† The author, in thus repreſenting the Prince of Wales, appears to ſhadow forth the Royal Dignity, to which he was then the apparent Heir; in the Lancaſter Roll, he transfers the compliment, as before ſtated, to Edward, Prince of Wales, ſon of King Henry VI. (then dead), and depicts King Richard's ſon in a Tabard, with a ducal Cap and Circlet only upon his head, and neither Rod or Sceptre in his hand, whilſt beneath are the following lines:—

"Edwardus illuſtris Princeps Wallie Regis Ricardi tercij et venerabilis conſortis ſue Anne Regine "Anglie unica Proles & Heres, immo heres Celi, quem in ſancta anima nunquam infecit macula culpe "ſed ante parentes infans obijt et apud Midleham honorifice ſepulture traditur."

The first 18 Portraits consist of the early Lords of Warwick and Royal Benefactors. The direct descent commences with Rohand, No. 19.

1
2

The Rows Rol.

1.

Guthelinus—kyng guthelyne, or kenelyn hole kyng of grete Brytayn that comprehendyth Englond Walys and Scotlond he was a vertuus man and a grete bylder and a monge many othere as ys ſchewed in the abbey of Evyſham in dan Thomas Wynchombys warkys he made thys borow abowte the byrthe of kyng Alyſaunder the grete conquerowr on of the ix worthy and named hyt Caerleon. Brwte the ferſte kyng of thys realme devyded thys londe in thre for hys thre Sonnys. The cheff parte was from Trent to the ſowthe ſe and that of hys eldyſt ſone locryne was called loygre. The ſecunde from Sewerne to the Weſt Se was of hys ſecunde ſone Camber callyd cambria now Walys. The thyrd from Trente to the Scotys Se of hys thyrd ſone Albanact was called Albany. In Walys and Albany were ij Cyteys called Carleon as wrytys mayſter Gerad Barre in hys cronycle. Of thes Cyteys hit that is in Sowthe Walys yete holdys the name to thys day. The ſecund ys in the Egge of Northe Walys and Albany wyche now ys called Cheſtur and the water of dee that hyt ſtondythe on partes hyt from Northe Walis. The thyrde as wrytys mayſter Gyldas is thys borow wycche aftyr was called Cairumbre, and aftyr Cayr Gwayr and now Warwyk and ſtondythe in logyr that ys . . . . the Cheffe parte of Englond better than Walys . . . . . .

2.

Gwiderius—kyng Gwidard—a noble warreur he be gan to reyne the iiij yer from the byrthe of owre lord ihſu cryſt and reygnyd xliij yere and dyed abowt the ſwame yer that owr lady dyed. He was a gret bylder and among oder he was a ſpeciall good lord and coſtius repayrer of thys borowgh, and as then hyt was a nobyll Cyte. Thys I had of ſir danyll treſerer of landef, a excellant croniclar. Thys noble Kyng for denayeng tribut to the Romayns was fawt with in hys own Ream and by treſon was ful cowardly ſlayn by a romayn that com with Claudius ther capteyn and Emperowr in hys days as writys byſſop Gefrey in the comun brute. But yet the Kyng hys brodur to hym Eyre and ymmediate ſucceſſor in proces of tyme buryed hym ryally at Glowcetter.

3

4

4.

Conſtantinus—brodyr to the kyng of lytyl brytayn by eleccion was made kyng of thys lond he was grandfader to kyng Arthur the mithi warreur on of ix worthi. Thys kyng was a noble man and a grete bylder he made cayrwent by Chepſtow and cayrvrongen that is nowe callyd Worcettur and grete expens did in byldyng of thys borow and changyd the name of hit from Caerleon callyng hit cairumbre. Thys mater is playn as I ſey both in Northwalys and in Angliſhey in the Walſhe cronycles.

5.

Gwayr—a noble prince of the blode Ryal of the brutayns ny coſyn to Kyng arthur on of the ix worthy he dyd grete coſt of thys town and namyd hit aftyr hym Carewayr. Thys lord or on of his ſucceſſurs of the brytonis on a tyme met with a geant that ran on hym wyth a tre ſhred and the barke of but the lord had grace wyth hym and was a delyuer man and overcame the Geant and in tokyn ther of then forward bere in hys armys a ragged ſtaf of ſiluer on a felde of ſable and ſoo hys heyrys bere countinuali aftyr hym. Of thys lorde ys made mencon bothe Northewalys and

5

6

Sowthwalys in theyr Welſh Cronicles and convey hys aunceſtri from hym to our formaſt fader Adam.

6.

Sanctus Dubricius—in the Walſh tong callyd Seynt deueroik a kyngs ſon and Quenys he for goddyſſake lefte the world and be came a man of the Church and was a grete letturde man and aftre a Preſte and then byſhop of thys borowh then a noble Cyte callyd Cayrgwayre in theo dayes after Warwik hys ſee pontyfical was then at alhalowchurche in the Caſtel and ſoo hyt contynud a colage tyl aftur the conqueſt thre ſcore yere and then was hyt ioyned to the collage of owr lady wyth in the town and of theo ij colagis were made on thys holy fader here conſecrate to all hys ordres Seynt Sampſon that was aftyr archebyſſhop of Yorke and for warre laft thys lond and went in to lytyll Brytan and there was byſſhop of Dole. lyke wyſe Seynt Deuoroyk and the people of thys coſtys, for fere of the Saxons flod in to Walys and ther was then Seynt Deueroyk the furſt byſhop of landafe and from thens was tranſlate un to the archebyſhopryk of Caerleon levyng at landaf Seynt Theleaws hys next ther Succeſſour he after that crownyd kyng Arthur and reſyned hys Archeſhopryke to Seynt Dauyd who tranſlate the ſee un to Menew that ys now callyd Seynt davies and Seynt Deveroyk aftyr dwellyd ſolytaryly in the yle of Stepholm in Sevarn and ys ſhrynyd in landaf and there hys day is kept hygh and holy the xiiij day of November. Thys I had in Engliſey and powis lond.

7.

Arthgallus—Arthal eorl of cite of carvayre now callyd Warwyk a knyght of the rond table in Arthur dayes, a lord of ryall blode and witty in al hys dedys. The furſt ſinnable of hys naavm that ys to ſeey Arth or Narthe is aſmuch to ſey in Walſh as a bere. Wherfore oldmen hold an oppynyen that the lordis of Warwyk there grownd hem to take the Bere to here beſte. Of thys lord maketh mencion maiſter Gefray Monmoth ſumtyme byſop of Seynt Aſaph in the comen Brute / and ſoo dothe John Hardyng in hys cronicle reherſing the namys of the knyghts of the rownd tabul in kyng Arthurs dayes.

8.

Auridius—Eorl of the cite of caerware now callyd Warwyke of thys borowoh ſpeketh peter in reductorio morali as I ſye in the uniuerſite library in Oxenforde and he leithe for hym a clerke callyd Gervays in a boke that he made of the marvelys of the word to the iiij Othus Emperor of Rome / ſeyng that in Vervik in Worcetter dioceſe in England ar Wellis that be half the yer as from Xpiſtemmes to Midſomer ſalt and then they ren ouer and the oder half of the yer they ren freſhe and then is ther but lytyll water in hem. Wher thys wells ar now I con not ſey but ther is a ſtrete callyd Saltysford and wyth in lytyll more then a mylle from Warwik is a ſalt well and many ſperringys abowt hyt where myght be made many wells and have ſalt watyr rennyng therowt the yere and the Reuer of Lemyn that rynys by of tyme flows ouer hem.

7 8 9

9.

Marthrudus Eorl of Warwyk in the brytons or Walſmenis days was a nobyll knyte and many moe Welſh Errls ther were, nor that I can fynd wrytyng of God have ther ſowls but on of hem what he was I can not ſey was tombyd and maruelſly buryed in the botom of Auen as kyng leyor maker furſt of leicetter was purpoſly buryed in the water of Sowre by Lecettur. Thys ys hade in the Walſhe croniclis.

10.

Marremundus—of the moſt ryal blode of the Saxons a nobul knyght. In hys dayes the brytons were dryue in to Wales and the lond dyuyded in to many kyndamys and the kyndamys partyd in to ſherys that were namyd after the hede townis ſaue there naamys were changyd by the new lordys. As thys kyng Warremond did chaung the name of this town then a Cyte naamyd Caier gwayr and callyd hit Warwyke and inhabit hit new wyth ſaxons that now ar callyd Engliſſhe peple and preuylegid ther townys at here pleſur and at Glowcetter thys kyng was buryed. Of this lord ſpekythe the boke of the actus of the abbots of Seint alboons.

II.

Elfleda—this was a noble lady dowghter to kyng Alfred fownder of the uniuerſite of Oxonford Thys lady was feruent a geyn the danys that ny hand had deſtroid this land and ſhe of her grete goodnes ful coſtiuſly repayryd many Citeis and caſtels and among oder ſhe did grete coſt of thys caſtel and in eſpeſiall of the dongeon for the ſpecial favour that ſhe had to the holder at Tamworthe ſhe dyed and at Gloucetter is ſhe beried at Seynt oſwaldes by her lord ſir Ethelrede. Thys proces had I owt of marians Cronicle, and here ye ſhall underſtond that when thys land was deuyded in to many kyngdoms then by mariage was of tym made peſe and loue be twen hem and ſeſyng of grete warre, and ſoo the kynges were coſyns eche to oder and who euer com lyneally of on com of all bothe of Kynges Quenys and grete lordys and ladies and coſyns of

10

11

12

13

blode to many holy and Glorius Seyntys To whom all was cofyn and Eyr kyng Alfrede Goddys knyght a noble warreur and a mighti prynce in his dayes to thys goode lady dam Elflede fadur.

12.

Sanctus Edwardus—kyng of England a glorius confeſſur was borne at Iſlepe be fyd Oxenford wiche gracius lorde whan the power of the danys was utterly excludyd from thys hys Relm then by the advyſe of his ſage lordys at a grete parlement made new lawys & of them and of the old lawis that were profetable he mad a whole warke and graunt new and confermyd old priuilagis of citeis and hed townys of hys realm and in ſpecially of tho that longyd to the crown of the wyche Warrewik was at that tyme on of hem as wel ſheweth in the kyngys boke in hys treſory callid domus day for the Eorlys at that tyme were not lordys of the towne but had there their worſupful manſions caſtells felows and the rewll of the contre under the kyng.

13.

Wyllmus conqueſtor by enheritans duk of Normandy and by conqueſt kyng of England as witnes hit William Malmeſbury cronicler in hys boke of kyngs. He rewardid his lordis and Gentylmen with mariage and lyvlod in England accordyng to here degre and a mong oder for the loue that he had to ſir Roger bemont he made hym of a vicount Erl bemont and hys ij ſonys he mad Erls the elder ſir Robert he mad Erl of Leycetter in England and the yonger ſir herre Newburgh he mad Erl of Newburgh in Normandi and Erl of Warwik in Englond and gave hym the bourgh of Warwike frely and inſeparablie as hert and hede of the Erldam owt of the crowne by his ſervis of his erldam with the old priuilegs wheche as by the conquerors fre geft the burgeys and inhabitans of the ſayd burgh claym as for there fre ryght un to this day thow they have no wrytyng to ſhow for them for they may not cum to the treſory in the caſtel to ſeke hyt and in hapis nevor by ofte dyſpoilyng of the ſeyd caſtel and treſery. ſum where myght be found ſum copy of record of the ſeyd Eorl herrys creacone with all poſſeſſions and fredoms rehercyd. the ſam Kyng William enlargyd the caſtel and dykid the town and yatid hyt and for the enlargyng of the caſtel were pollyd down among oder xxvi howſys that were tenantyes to the hows of monkys of Couentrye as is wryte playnle in domusday the boke a fore ſeyd.

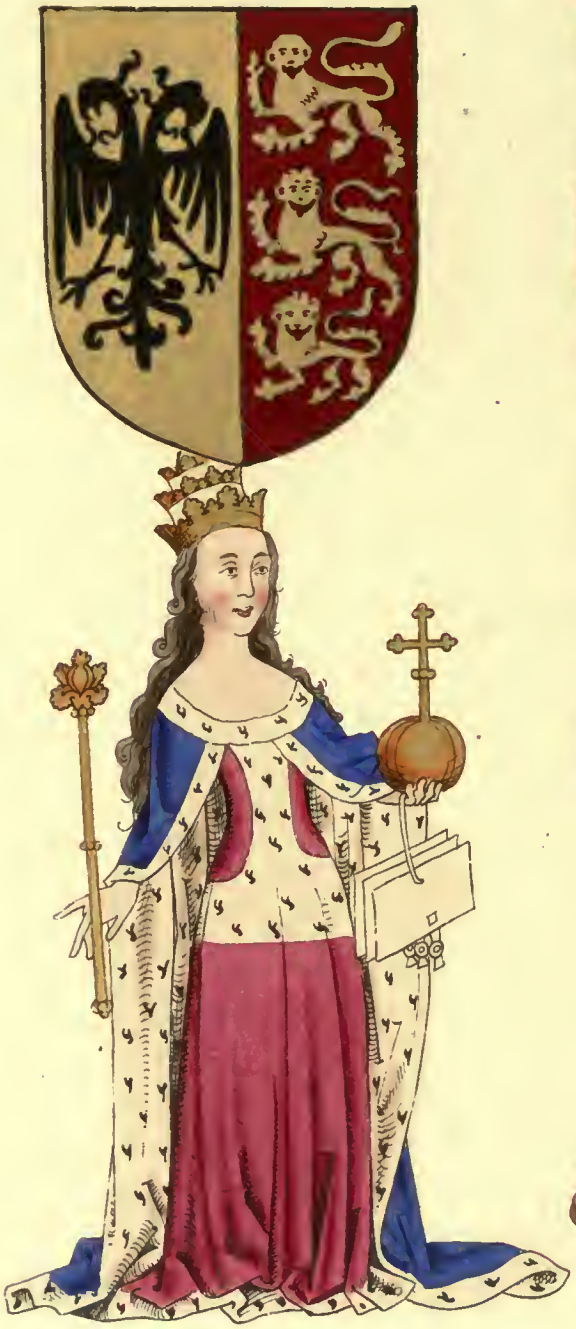
14



15

14.

Awde the Empras of Rome and cowntas of Aungey dowerghter and Eyr to kyng herre the furſt kyng of England when ſhe knew that kyng Stewyn that had ſworne and don to hur homage dyd uſurp up on hyr the crown of Englandde She entyrd in to England with grete power and a mong oder to her reſortyd her brodir baſterd Robert Eorle of Gloucetter and William bechamp the baron of Elmſey William Maudut baron of Hamſlape and oder and to them ſhe gaue landis and rentys priuilages and liberties and fredams new and confermyd theyr old grauntes by Kyngys a for weche landis & priuilegis ar now by mariage in corporate in to the Eorldom of Warwike.

15.

Rex Johannes graunted to the Lord Tony and hys Eyerys and that ar now the Eorlys of Warrwyk many priuilagys alſo Kyng Herre the thryd and Kyng Edward (the furſte) and Kyng Herre the fyfte graunted to ſir John pleſſy and aftyr to ſir Willm beauchamp and to ſir Richard beauchamp Erl of Warwike feyre to the burgh of Warewik of wiche ſum were chaunchyd from on tyme of the yere to a noder as hyt was thowt moſt expedient by ye kyngys lycens Thys kyng was born in the cite of Aungey the hed cite of the counte of Aungey and ys buryd at Worcettur.

16.

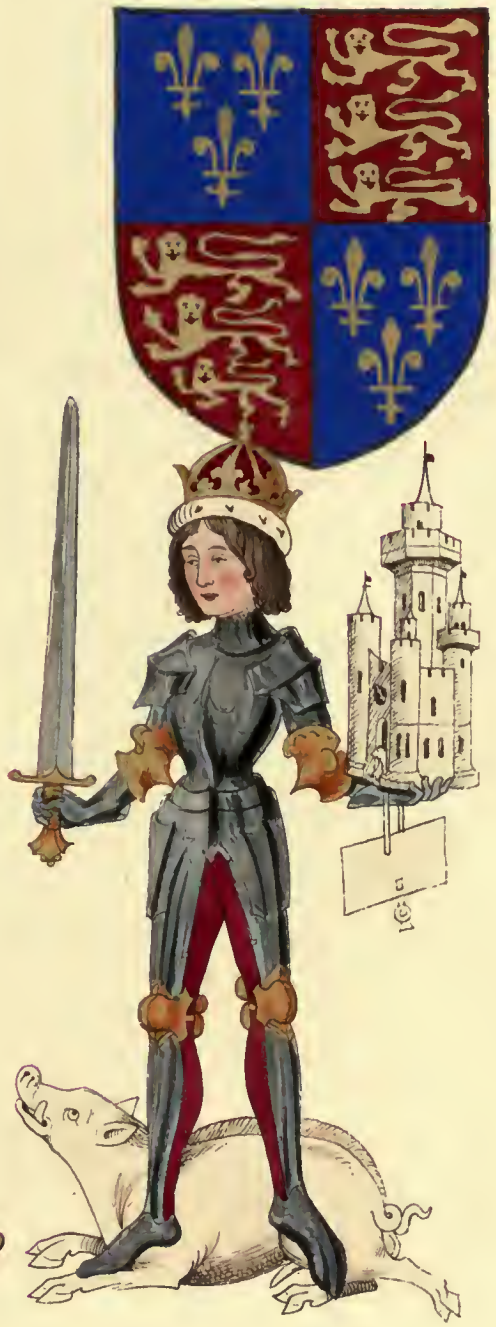
Rex Edwardus the fowrth born in Roan the chef cite of Narmande a vittorius knyght ful fortunat and a gret bylder graunt to the burgh of Warwik ij feyrys and alſo he graunt with owt fe or fyn to the burgh at the inſtans of hys noble brodyr Georg duk of clarance many feyre and grete preuilages as the copy wol playnly ſhew whech under hys ſignet wes ſend to the pryve ſeal and he admyttid the Kyngis wrytyng and ſoo was hyt had to the Chaunſlare and he to the grete hurt of the ſayd Lordeſhip with ſtode hyt the more pyte was.

17.

Rex Richardus tercius—born in the Caſtle of Foderyngay a myghti prince in his dayes ſpeciall gode lord to the town & lordſhyp of Warrewyk wher yn the caſtel he did gret coſt off byldyng In the which his moſt noble lady & wyf was born and at gret inſtance of her he of his bounteus grace with owt fee or fyn graunt to the ſeyd borowh frely by chartur as kyng William Conquerour his noble progenitur a fore tym gret previlagis.

16

17



were weddyd and byd but a lytyl ſeſon to gedur he departyd from her to her grete hevynes and never was conuerſant with her after to her underſtandyng and al the whyl ſhe kep her clen and true lady and wyf to hym deuout to Godward and by wey of almys gretly helpyng them that were in pore aſtate.

21.

Sir Gy of Warrwyk flour and honour of knyghthode ſon to ſir Seyward baron of Walyngford and hys lady and wyfe dame Sabyn a florentyn in Itale of the nobleſt blode of the cuntre tranſlate from Itayle un to this lond as dam Genches ſeynt martens ſiſter born in grekeland was maryed here and had in thys lond noble Seynt patrik that conuertyd Irlande to the chriſtein faythe Thys wurſupfull knyght ſir Gy in his actis of Warre euyr conſydrid what part was wrongyd and ther to wold he draw. by wyche doyng hys loos ſpred ſo far that he was callyd the verthieſt knyght lyuyng in hys dayes. Then his moſt ſpecial and cheffe lady that he had ſet hys hert moſt on dam felys applied to hys wyl and was weddyd to hym.

22.

THYS noble warreur ſir Gy aftyr hys mariage conſideryng what he hade don for a woman ſake thowt to be ſet the oder parte of hys lyfe for goddis ſake departyd from hys lady in pilgrime wede as here ſhowis wyche rayment he kept to hys lyves ende and did many gret batels of the wyche the laſt was the victory of Colbrond at Wincheſtre by the warnyng of an Angell and from thens unknown ſaue to the kyng only com to Warwike receyvyd as a pylgrym of hys own lady and by her leave had hys abydyng at Gybclif and hys lyuerey by hys page dayle fet at the caſtel and ij dayes a fore hys deethe an angell enformyd hym of hys paſſage owt of thys warld and of his ladys the day four tenyth aftur hym and at Gibclif were they both biried for ther cowd no man from thens remefe hym tyl hys ſworn broder come ſir Tyrry with home he was tranſlate with owt let and un to thys day God for hys ſake to tho that deuoutly ſeke hym for her ſekens with other greuis ar by myracle ſoen remedyed and in remenbrans of hys habit hyt were ful conuenient, youe that hit pleſyd, ſum good lord or lady to fynd in the ſame place ij pore men that cowd help a preſt to ſyng on of them to be there continually preſent weryng hys pilgrime habit and to ſhow folk the place and theyr habitacion myght be ful wel ſet over hys caue in the roke.

22

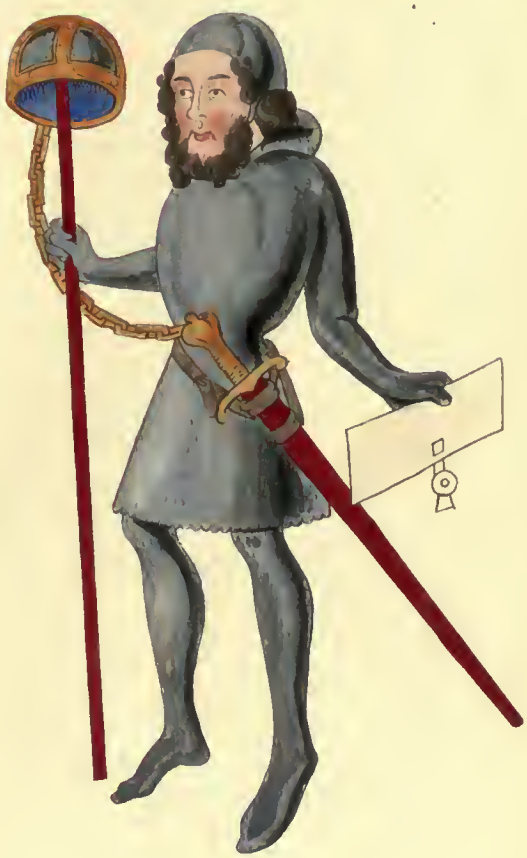
23

23.

Raiburnus Sir Raynbrowne erl of Warrwik In the engliſh tong callyd the flour of knyghthode ſon & eyr to the moſt victorius knight Sir Gy of Warrewyk & his noble lady dam felyz le bele this vallant chiualer in his childhode was ſtolyn from hys mayſtir & gydar ſir herowd of ardern by maryners of Ruſſy & ſold to a hethyn kyng wher he prevyd to a noble knyght. whom ſir herawd ſowt wyde in far landis & aftur by fyztyng be twen ſir. Reynbroun & ſir herawds ſon that ſowt her fadr in a reſtyng whyle as is playn in the romans of the ſaid ſir Raynbrouns lyfe the ſayd ſir herawd cam to knowlege of hem bothe & by proces browt ſir Raynbroun her lord home to England & was ful cherfully receyuid of kyng Athelſtan and receyvid his landeis with tho kyngis dowghter to his wyfe but ſhe did not inherit the crown for hit went tho dayes by Eyr male or by eleccion oft tyme for the dayle warres that wer in tho dayes with the crwel danys and by ſum mennys opyneon this lord is buried in a Illand be ſyde Venice In happis in Jorneyeng to the holy land he deceſid by the way God have mercy on his ſowl & all cryſtenes Amen.

24

25



26

27

houe of the lordſhips of Wiklisforth and Grafton and at his deceſe they to receyf hem wyt hys ſtuf at that tyme found in hem In this lordis dayes the crwel danys in ther venia bul warr brennyd Warrewyk & ij abbeys on of monkys that ſtode abowt Wodlow hil & an oder of blak Nonnes that ſtod in the town at ſeynt Nicholas & ther Quer is un to this day Quer of the Pariſh church of Seynt Nicholas this crwel dede was doon In kyng Etheldredes tyme the yer of owr lord m^{l} & xvi a fore that was Warrwyk a ryal town & neuer ſyn hit myght recouer the hurt that was thon done and un to this day in vilags a bowt in the cuntrey groweth gret plente of Walwort in feldes & a bowt the Cowrtys & maner placys ther as the people wer ſlayn & murdurd, and in ſich placis ar many murdur ſtonys congeilid of ſond grauel & mannys blode. This blodſhed was betwen newyeris day & the Twelfday kyng Ethelred few yers afore by reaſon of his evil courſes diſſeynyd ſlew Wolgeat in England.

27.

Vygodus a lord ryall ſuccedyng to ſir Wollet long tyme wrangfully retanyng the lordſhyppys of Wykilsford and Grafton at the grete inſtance of Abbot Ailwyn the ſeculariſ put owt made Abbot of Euiſham reſtorid hym the ſame lordſhips in the dayes of Seynt Edward kyng and confeſſour and in the dede of releſe among his witnes he put his Eiris boeth the fadyr and the ſon, Ailwyn and hys ſon Turkyl of Warrwik. he had to his lady and wyfe the Suſtur of Duke and Eorl Leuerych foundre of the priori of Coventre.

28.

Ailwinus—a noble lord ſuccedid to Lord Wygode to whom in hys tyme was reteyned all the counte of Warrewik In hys daies by autorite of William Malmyſbyry Englis men dwellyd in ſmale placis with grete plente and normands in roial bildyngs and grete ſcarſte.

29.

Thurkildus of warrwik ſon to lord Ailwyn a man of grete wurſhup at the conqueſt tyme and aftyr as for bodily ſtrength he was tho dayes in his flowrys. And then by the comaundment of kyng William conquerour was the caſtel of warrwik enlargid the town yatyd and for the wall dykid but not the wallis performyd he had to hys lady and wife by the conquerour ordinans the countas of perche.

28

27

30

31

30.

Margareta dowghter and Eyr to lord thurkyl ſuſter to ſir Rotrode Eorl of perch that was a vailent Knyght at the wynnynge of Jheruſalem and of all the holy land Thys ladi made a place of Templeris at lanmadok in Gowerland in Walys wiche cuntre was conquerid by her lord herre Newburgh Eorl of Warrwyk and a bowt the yong dayes of thys lady Kyng William Conqueror made the new foreſt and deſtroyd many townis and churchys for which dede by wrytyng of William Malmiſbiry croniclar ſewed thes wengavns fyrſt ther miſchevid Rychard the conquerours ſon and aftyr a nodyr lord Richard ſon to Robart duk of Normandi eldyſt ſon of the conquerour and aftyr kyng William ſon to the conquerour wold god that in our dayes deſtryars of townys and pariſh churchis wold take enſample of thes lords puniſhments and as wytnes ſcripture thobie xiij chapter God bleſſyd the makers of Jheruſalem and oder townys and curſith ther deſtroyers and yſaye ve qui conjungitis domum domui et agrum agro &c. and they are miniſtres of goddis vengians ſeyeng faciam terram veſtram deſolatam They deſtroy the realm and cauſe derth of corne for were is gret tilthe is plente of corn and els muſt need be ſcarſte The hurt that ſech encloſers of townys doo to the Realm may be ſhewyd by this mean Wher a perſonage is worth xx^{li} by yer whyl the tyth is but the tenth parte of the encreſe then muſt the yerly encreſe of the hole town draw to ij hundrid pownd and a town ſo encloſyd onely cumyth a hundrid marks by yer. then in ij hundrid pownd yerly to loſe ij hundrid mark hit is a ſoor los & much. the ſae that ther be now ſo many ſeche encloſures of townys of good & fruteful lands and much the rather for by hem are cawſed grete derthis deſtroyeng of pariſh churches waſtyng of Citeis & greet townys for lak of corn & cummon to by ther cattle Almygty God enſpyrre the kyng the Queen & the lordis to ſe a remedy ageynſt this miſcheffe.

31.

Henricus—a Normande born ner coſyn bothe to ſeynt Edward Kyng of England and alſo to King William the conqueror and yn his hoſold browe up of a chyld with the ſeyd Kyng William yongiſt ſon callyd Herry beauclerk and after by the grete menys and beſy labers of the ſeyd Eorl herry to whom he was playferer the for ſayd herri beauclerk was exaltyd to the crown of England a juſt Kyng and by caus hym ſelf was englyſh born he was ful fauoureble to the englyſh peple that long had be ſore oppreſſid by his predeceſſers kyngs fadre and brodre by tytill of his lady and wyfe dame margarite and the grete beneuolens of the conqueror maid Eorl of Warrewik and lord of the ſeyd burgh geuen owt of the croun with grete preuilages and lybertyis that long of ryght contynually to the ſame lordſhip weche were auncean demayn ſhuld aftyr be fre hold as of the kynges fre gyft and graunt Thys noble Eorl was a holy man and hardy knyght and conqueryd in ſowthe Walys Swanſey and all Gowerre land and the ſwerd held hyt to hym and Eyris un to the tyme that Kyng John in the noon age of herry Eorl Wallerans ſon alyend hyt wronfully from there blode Thys Eol was founder of the priory of Warwik Sepulcris that was hed hows thorowt England of that ordre and ſpeciall benefactre he was to the colagis of halows in the caſtel and of owr lady with owt the caſtel in Warrwik and bothe he encreſyd with prebends and prepoſyd to haue made on colage of hem bothe and he had lyued he died the xx day of Jun and is buried at preavs by pont Odimere in Normandi the yere of our lord m^{l} c xxiij by his noble ancetre he foundid at Warmyngton in Warrewikſhere a ſel of french monkys to the hows of preaws.

32.

Rogerus—erl of Warewik and of Newburgh a holy man that diuers tymes in his owen perſon viſyte the holy land. he fulfyllyd the virtuus purpos of his fader makyng on Colage of that of all halow in the caſtel and of Seynt Mary in the town of Warrewik he made al ſo the ſpityl howſe of lepres of Seynt Michels in the northe ſubbarbis and 1 plas of Templers by yond the byrge on ſowth ſyde havyng the prevylegis given of ſeynt John of Clerkenwell and a noder priori in Walis callyd langenithe and mad hyt a ſel to ſeynt Tauryns in Normande he was alſo ſpecial good doer to the hows of Kenelworth, he alſo gave the heremytage of Gybclyf un to the priory of Sepulcres of Warrewyk and his ſon Eorl Wallerane confermyd his gyftes and then was hit a ſel to hem and oder wyle there were chanons and after ſecular preſtys lyueng by ſalaryes where they myght gete hem and with hem lyues armytys and lyued un party by lyuerey fro the priori for then hyt was a worſhupfull place and by almys from the caſtel and of burges of the town and of devout peple of the cuntrey and ſo hit contynued to the later dayes of Kyng Edward the thyrd un to Eorl Thomas tok it to hym and found the preſtys fowd delyuered hem yerely owte of his cofurs and aftre his ſon Eorl Richard endowd hit withe lyuelode and made hyt a chantre of ij preſtys he died the xij day of June the yer of owr lord m c l iij.

33.

Wilelmus Eorl of Warrwik a myghty lord he was founder of Seynt Jonhis of Warrewik he weddid furſt dam mawd eldiſt dowghter and eyr (of the ij . .) of the lord percy by whom he was fownder of whytby and odre placis but they had no children and then hys ladyes enheritans went to hur ſuſtur dam annes wyf to ſir Goſcelyn brodyr of dam Alyce Quene of England ſecund wyfe to Kyng herry the furſt dowter to the moſt famous knyght ſir Godfrey of boleyn kyng of Jheruſalem the laſt of ix worthy Thys Eorl William aftyr weddyd dam margaret d'evyle a god lady and a feyre and dyed withowt Eſſw the xv day of Nouembre the yere of our lord m^{l} c lxxxiiij aftyr ſum menis opinen but ſum held that he lyvyd lengr and had been in ſtrang cuntre as the holy land and come hom and chalangyd is lyvelod and then rys a grete trauers be twen hym and his brodyr and Eyr Eorl Walleran thorwo the wyche eidur of hem geuyng lordſhups ſum for the tyme and ſum euer owt of the Eorldom to theyre mayn-teners made of a ryche and notable Eorldam but a pore thyng to the grete hurt of there ſucceſſurs Thys lord was a whyle heuy lord to the howis of Sepulcris of Warrwik but the patriark of Jheruſalem wrote to hym a ful ſtiryng letter weche I have rod and aftur he was a good lord to hem.

32

33

34.

Wallaranus—Eorl of Warwik a noble man brodyr to Eorl William myche trowbul he had for hys lyuelode in the daies of kuyng Richard the furſt that was born at Oxnford floer of knyghtode callyd for his manhode and hardynes Rychard cor de leon. Thys lord Walleran for mayntenens gaue to biſhop hubert arbiſhop of Canterbury chaunſler of England for mayntenans the collacon of al the probends in his the Colege of Warrewik duryng his dayes and aftre to return to his Eyrys Eorls of Warrwik Thys lord weddid furſt margerite the dowghter of the Eorl of herford and had no iſſw by her and aftyr a noder lady dam Maud and aftyr dam alice harcowt by wiche lady he had grete iſſw herry his Eyr Eorl aftyr ſir Willerad and dam Alyce wyfe un to ſir William maudut baron of hampſlape with whos mariage was geue the manor of Walton maudut beſyde Warwik and at kyng Johnis corronacion as for his homage of the Eorldam of Warrewik he bere a ſwerd on the ryght hond of the kyng and he confermyd the gift of hys foder of Gybelyf (to the) to the priory of ſepulchres and he died the xxiiij day of decembyr the yere of our lord m[l] cc iij the iiij yer of the reign of kyng John and then his lady and wyfe dame Alce of the hartcowt blode a greyd with kyng John for her ſelfe to be maryed at her will and the warde of her children m[l] li & x white ſtedys or palfreys.

35.

Henricus—Eorle of Warrewik ſone and Eyr to Eorl Walleraun in hys nonage loſt the lordſhupr of Gowere by kyng Johnis gyft and the ſeyd kyng John alyend the caſtell of briſtow from the Eyrys of the Erlis of Gloucetter wiche lordſhip ſhulde have longid to the Earldam of Warrewyk by ſum mennis wrytyng This lord whan kyng John helde Warre with his lordis he held ſtyfly of the kyngys parte for all the wrongs that he had. he had ij ladies and wyues. the furſt was dam margery ſuſtre and Eyr to Sir herry Oyly whos ancetre undre the conquerour made the caſtel of Oxneford and in the ſame caſtel foundyd a church of ſeynt George and the abbey of Oſney and annexyid hem to gedre In the wiche now is a chapell of ſeynt George and ther ar found by the place of Oſney a certen of Scolars that of tym grow to gret worſhup. and he had by that lady a ſon and a dowhter and bothe ſuccedid to hym and aftre he weddyd dam philip baſſet dowhter to ſir thomas baſſet baron of hedingdon in the counte of Oxneford and by hur was he foundr of Biſſettur and aftre his diſces ſho was wedid to ſir William percy of york ſher and ſho had no yſſw In this lordis dayes ther dwelled a holy anchores on the north ſyd of the Qwer of ſeynt Nicholas of Warrewyk & hur name was Wlwythe This lorde deed was x day of Octobr.

34

35

36.

Thomas of Warrewik Eorl of Warrewik ſon and Eyre to ſir herre Eorl of Warrwik a man of grete comendacion he weddyd to his lady and wyfe dame Ele dowghter to ſir William Lonſpe Eorl of Saliſbury ſon to kyng Herre the ſecond and brodre to kyng John Thys noble lorde is bured at Warrwik. hys worſupful lady is buryed a fore the hygh aulterre of Oſney of Oxneforde Sho gaue to the help of pore ſcolars of Oxneford to borow by pleggys in ther nede frely vij ſcore marke put in a cofer to ther be houe aftre there behauer to borow which is callyd unto thys day Warrewik voucher and ſhe has for that and odre benefectes ij maſſis ſolemp by the uniuerſite doon in the yere. Sho was a deuout lady and large in Geftys to collagis of her dayes in Oxneford an religious placis as the ſepulcris of Warrwik Oſney and Godſtow by Oxnford Redyng lacok and many odre hur lord Eorl Thomas had no iſſw bi hur and ſo the enheritans fel to hyis ſuſtre lady margery he dyed the xxvij day of Jun and was buried at Warrwick as for as can be perceyuyd.

37.

Wageria ſuſter to Eorl Thomas and after his deth countas of Warrwik by enritans Thys noble lady in her widewod and full power gaue to the poor comynte of the burgh of Warrewik the comin ground that in to thys daye is callyd the cleyputtis She alſo was ſpecial good lady to the hoſpital of Seynt mihels of Warrwik among odre geuyng hem fredame there courtis to holde aftre the forme of the comun law. Sho had ij lordys to her huſbandes but noo iſſw remanyng and ſhe died the vij day of June.

36

37

38

39

38.

Iohnes Mareſcallus a vurthi lord and of grete hanour in the dayes of kyng John and kyng Herry the thyrd brodyr to the greſteſt lord of England in his dayes ſir William Marſhal of England Eorl of Penbroke and of Strogoyle maiſter to kyng herre the thyrd in his noon age by the ordinans of his trew lordis confyrmyd by ſir Gwale the popis legate This lord paſſid not many yerys in his Eorldam and had non iſſew remanyng by his lady dam margery by whom he had the Eorldam he dyed the yere of yowre lord m^{l} cc xlv.

39.

Iohnes de pleſſetis—ſecund huſband to dame Margery and by hurre tytyll Eorle of Warrwyk a curteys and a gentyl lord born in the cuntre of peyto where in the chefe Cyte callyd peytres cummyng from Gyan he and ſir Gylbert Segraue and mony mo were traiterle and to wrongfulle take and priſond and put to raneſome thys lord by thys lady dame margery had no iſſw remanyng he died the xxvj day of feuerell anno mcclxv and is buryed ful worſhupfully in the hows of Chanons of Miſſendem in bukyngham ſhyr by for the hye altere.

40.

Alicia—dowghter to Eorl Wallerand lady and wyfe to ſir William Maudut baron of hampſlape had to hur mariage Walton maudut be ſyde warrewik of her fadre Gyft Eorl Wallerand.

41.

Willelmus Maudut baron of hamſlape weddyd dame Alice dowghter to ſir Wallerand and ſuſtre to Eorl herry Eorlis of Warrwyk by hom he had ij chyldre ſir William Maudut Eorl of Warrwyk and dam Iſabel wyfe to ſir William beauchamp baron of Elmley he died the furſt yere of kyng herre the thyrd the yer of owr lord m^{l} cc xviij.

42.

Willmus Maudut by titill of hys modre Eorl of Warrewik and by his fadre baron of hanſlape and by enherytans of the fadre ſyd Chamberleyn of the chekkur In his dayes was grete wares in the land. he held euer of the kyngys parte wherefore ſir Andre Giffart by treſon toke the caſtel of Warrewik and for that hit ſhold be no ſtrength to the king. he bete with his felſhip down the wall from tour to tour wiche un to Eorl

40

41

42

43

Thomas dayes aftyr was heggid. he toke alſo with hym the Eorl and the countas to kyllyngworth caſtel and his peple of valour eres and raneſomd the Eorl at xix^{c} hundrid mark that was juſtli payd at wiche tyme dame Alice the countes pleyng at the Ches in killingworth caſtel with ſir Richard moundvile knyght toke 1 pown of his & at the ſame ſeſon he was chalangid by his armys apoyntid at the caſtel yate then ris he & toke that knyght & browt hym to the lady & with hym redemyd or ranſumd his pawn afftur by poyntment the Caſtel was yeld up to the kyng that tym beyng with his grete counſel at Warrewyk. The kyng at that tyme helde ther a grete counſel of his lordis to ſet the land in reſt aftur the barons warris & the grete batels that had been & keeping of Caſtels as that tym was the Caſtell of killingworth & mo oder & for a final peſe to be made were choſin at Warrwyk by the gret counſel of the lond certen lordis ſpiritual & tempral xij in numbr to whom was geun full power to mak a poyntmens that ſhould be ſtond by ſtedfaſtly with owt varians that is to ſey W. of Excetter. W. of Bath & Well N. of Worcetter & R. of ſeynt Dauyes biſhops ſir Gilbert Clar erl of Gloucetter humfre Erl of Herford John baſſet John baliol Robert Walleran Alan Souch Robert Sumeri & Waryn of Waſſingburn Thes xij departed to Couitre un to they wer agred then the ſtreyt met and ſo they com to Warrwyk where ſir Octobonus the legat aftur pope callid adrian the v. openle proclamyd the apoyntment in the purlieu of owr lady church of Warrwyk, before the Kyng and all his noble counſſel.

43.

Iſabella ſiſtur to ſir William Maudut Eorl of Warrwyk was weddyd to ſir William beaucham baroner of Elmley a gode and a deuout lady ſhe liethe buried in the priory of the wyte nunnys of coleſhull of her lordys and hys auncetre fundacone mydell wey by twen Warwik and worcetter Sho dyed a fore her lorde and huſband the xij daye of Juinnere and he was aftre hurre elft ſoon weddyd to a lady callyd angaret and had by hur 44.

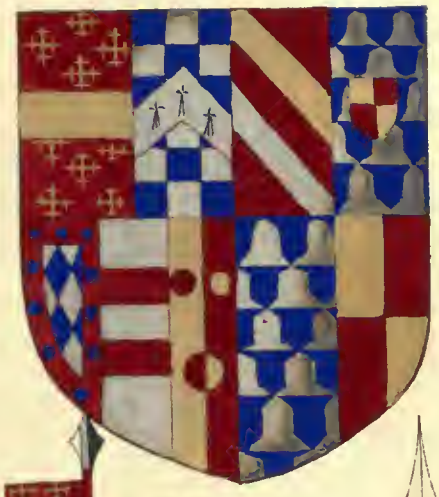
Willmus de beauchamp baron of Elmley by hys lady and wyfe dame Iſabel ſuſtre to ſir William maudut Eorl of Warrwik had iſſw thre ſonnis and all were lordys the oldyſt ſon ſir William beauchamp was eyr to hem bothe by his fadyr barone of Elmley and by hys modre Eorl of Warrwik and of there armys made on. bothe ther feldys were gowlis & by her were put in the croſcroſley and by hym j bend of gold The ſecund ſon was lord of powys by worcetter and to hys felde of gawlis & a bar of gold of his parte were put to by his wyf and lady vj mullottes of gold and the thyrd and yongyſt ſone to hys part was pout for his lady vi byletts of gold. They had a nodre brodre of the fadre ſyde only by his lady dame angarete.

44

45



45.

Willmus Beauchamp by hys fadyr baron Elmley ond ſheryf of Worcetter Shyre by enheritans and by his fadre or modre pantere at the kynges corronacion and by hys moder Eorl of Warrewik and of Neuburgh baron, baron of hampſlape and Chamberleyn of the kyngys Checcr and by his lady and wyfe lord of Kyrtlyng and of the furſt and chefe parte of the Eorldam of Eſſex and fowndre of Suldham in Norfolk he was a lord of grete wiſdom and very manful as was well prouid by his acts in the warres of Walis and of Scotland he dyed the ix day of June the yere of owr lord m[l] cc lxxxx viij and his buryed by his fadr and his lady by hym at the grey frerys of worcetter a place of there fundacion In this lodys dayes were all the Jues exilid for euer owt of England.

46.

Gwydo beauchamp the wittyſt lord callid of England ſon and eyr to ſir william beauchamp and Eyr alſo to his moder dam Maud or mold of of Kyrtlyng with the purtynance and by his lady and wyfe dame Alice lord Tony and foundr of Weſtacre in Norfolk and of the priory of Nunnys of markyate and of Seynt Gylis a ij myle weſt from hyt and he dyd found hym ſelfe the colage of Elmley Thys lordys gydyng was ſuch that they that talkyd of hym or wryt of hym naamyn euer the good Eorl. And for his manhode kyng Edward the furſt gaue to hym and to his Eyres barnerd caſtel in the biſhopryke of durhame. A bowt his dayes or ſone aftre hym and euyre eny ſuch were ſuld reygne the famous outlawe Robyn hode and lytyl John and there felawis. hit is maruel that no croniclar writis of hem. Alſo this lord toke ſir pers of of Gaueſton a Gaſcoyn born pleyffer to kyng Edward the ſecund and banyſhyt out of this lond for euer by kyng Edward the furſt but the kyng his ſun thow he were ſworn the contrary had hym to the lond a geyn and made hym Eorl of Cornwayl and his leuetenant of England wille he was abſent to feyt dame Iſabell the Kynges dowhter of fraunce and gave hym the Eyre of the iij parte of the Eorldam of Glowcetter wiche parte is the dukys of bukkynham. This ſir pers then deſpiſid the lordis of England and ſet all there hartes a geyn hym he ſolde alſo owt of the land the rownd table of ſiluer that was kyng arthurs with the treſtyls the quantite is yot in the caſtel of Wyncheſtre. he was therefore by hedyd by ſyr Warrewik beyng there that tyme Seynt Thomas of Lancaſter and odre Eorlis Warrwick Suffolk harford and penbroke with odr lordes This Eorl died at Warrewik the xii day of Auguſt the yer of yowr lord m ccc xv and is buried at bordyſley.

46

47

·47·

Thomas Beauchamp—Eorl of Warrwik ſon and Eyrre to ſir Gy and dame Alyce a manly knyght of all the warld as is ſhoeyd well at creſcy and at peytres where John kyng of fraunce was take and at the ſege of cales he warryd alſo in hethenes iij yer and browt with hym the kyngis ſon of lettow and Xpend hym in london and namyd hym Thomas aftyr hym and the archbiſhoppe of Sens was hys priſoner he was aftyr lettenand of fraunce in the warre tyme undre kyng Edward the iij and lyke wyſe of Scotland undre kyng Edward baliol in hys warrys he alſo by ple gate Gowarland but hys ſon loſt hyt a gayn he al ſo by the kyngys geſte was marſhal of England term of hys lyfe and Sheryf of Warrwik ſhyre and leicetter ſhyre all is dayes he wallyd the caſtel of warrewik to ward hit & yatyd hyt and made the grete bothe alle in the market ſtid and made the town tol fre. he was born in the caſtel of Warrewik and aftyr his Godfadre ſeynt Thomas of Lancaſtre namyd Thomas & ſir Thomas Warmynton prior then of killyngworth for whom God ſhowis oft grete myracles Xpend hym and aftyr he dyed at calis the yer of owr lord m^{l} ccc lxix the xiiij day of Nouembre and is buried worſhupfully at Warrwik in the feyr quere wiche he be gon but his ſon fyniſhid hit.

48.

Thomas Beauchamp, after the dethe of hys eldir brodre ſir gy beauchamp ſon an Eyr to ther fadre noble ſir Thomas beauchamp was a good knyght and of the ordre of ye gartre and gretly laburd in dyuers londys both Xpen and hethyn with his fadre & aftyr hym ſelf beyng at Jeruſalem he had euer a fauour to the comun wele and auentyrd hym ſo far for the comunte that at the laſt he was iuggid to perpetual priſon and his landys gen a way from his blode for euer to ſir Thomas holand Eorl of Kent and aftur made duke of Surre but at the ij ere end God reſtoryd hym a geyn to hys landys and dyed Eorl the viij day of apryl the yer of owr lord m^{l} ccccj he was a grete almyſmon and wol viſite bedredfolk his own perſon and dele largly with hem he fynniſhid the Quére of our lady church that his fadre be gan and is buryed in hyt In hys tyme alſo he be gan the gold of the trinite and Seynt Georg of Warrwik he alſo be gan the now towres next the downgen Thys lord wher his ancetre had geuyn Gyclif un to the priori of Warrwik he gate hit by change of lyuolode to hym and his Eyris fore euer more and new bylt hit the manſion undre the chapell and namyd hit Gyclif in remembrans of ſir Gy.

48

49

49.

Thomas holand Eorl of Kent & Surrey and of warren duke of Surre knyght of the garter he had by kyng Ricard the ſecund ij yere the Erldam of Warrewik alſo when the Eorl marchal was dampnyd unto perpetual exyle this lord was made marſhall of England. he was on the modre ſyde to Kyng Ricard brodre. his odre brothre ſir John holand was Eorl of huntingdon fadre to John duke of Excetter. This duke Thomas was ſpeciall goode lord to the collage of Warrewik whos actis ther to Eorl Thomas Beauchamp at is cummyng confermyd this duke was hedyd by the comens at Siſſetter and his landis were deputyd by twen his ſuſturs for lac of Eyr male—

50.

Richardus Beauchamp Eorl of warrewik a noble knyght as was wel prouid in his Juſtyng at mantua in lumbardy and at the general conſel at the Cite of conſtaunce wher he was for the kyng and the tempralte of England the rialte of all Xpedom yer beyng preſent bothe ſpiritual and tempral and aftre at Gynes when he was capten of cales and in many odre landys and in the warrys of fraunce The emporor callid hym fadre of curtſy ffor and all curtſy were loſt he ſeyd hyt myght haue be found in hys perſon and the kyng made hym Eorl of Avmarl Thys lord purcheſt Seynt bertylmew feyr to Warwick he had purpoſid alſo to haue wallyd the town and aſſigned rentis to do hyt with and to haue gutterd the water of auen where the Rok of ſton made hyt ſhalowe and to have largid the archis of birgis and compownyd with the owners of the myllis betwen Warwik and Teukyſbury to have let the myllis or ſet ſuche ordynance that ſmale veſſels as the water wold bere myght haue be conveyed fro Teukiſbury to Warrewik. This dede don had ben a pleſont ſyght of the veſſels comyng & a makyng to warrewik and all the cuntrey and a grete profit to the lordis in cariage of there wynys and odre ſtuf from Briſtow by watre and cauſid marchandis the better willyd to dwell in the town Thys lord was maiſter to kyng herre the ſyxt in hys tender age and with the helpe of the land crownyd hym twies at Weſtmyſtre as for kyng of England and at paris for kyng of fraunce he made certen there a fore was uncerten at Gybclif a chauntre of ij pryſtis that God wold ſend hym Eyre male. he did hyt by the ſtyrryng of a holy anchoras namyd dam Em Rawghtone dwellyng at all halows in the northeſtrete of york and for hyt to her apperyd our lady vii tymes in on yer and ſeyd that in tyme to cum hyt ſhuld be a regal collage of the Trinyte of a kynges fundacone and hyt ſhuld be a gracious place to ſeke to for eny diſes or gref and on of Seynt Gyes

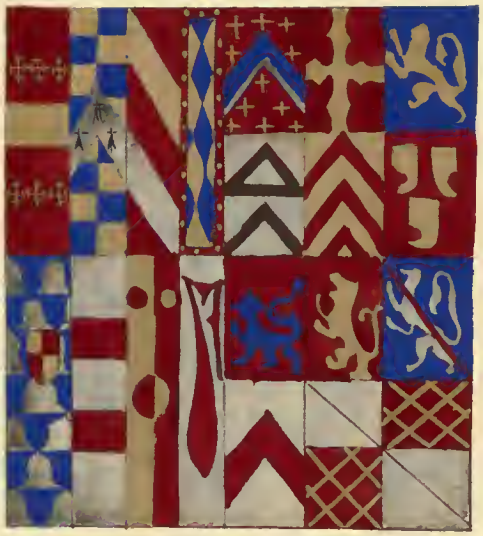
50



51

Eyris ſhuld bryng hys Reliks a geyn to the ſame place. Thys Eorl Richard died at Roaon in Normandi. he then beyng there Regent and the kynges leftenant and is buried at Warrewik in on of the faryſt chapels of England of his fundacone to the whiche he ordeynid poſſeſſions for iiij preſtys and ii clerkys and aftyr hyt was mouyd to the duke of clarans that tho iiij preſtys or vicars to be perpetual and pariſh preſt & they to were calabii amys and for hope of the perpetuyte the church ſhuld euer have able men to there quere he died the laſt day of april the yere of yowr lord m^{l} iiij^{c} xxxij he a for his dethe chargid his ſon to what dygnyte euer he ſhuld be put to neuer to change the name of Warrewik for eny odre This lord was a knyght of the garter and did gret worſup to the ordre.

51.

A noble lady dam Margarite eldyſt dowghter to ſir Richard beauchamp eorl of Warewik by his furſt lady and wyfe dam Elizabethe of barkeley dowghter to the lord barkley and by titil of her modre lady lyle. Thys werſhupfull lady was born in the maner of Godreſt by Warrewik and in the caſtell of Warrewik ſho was maried to the grete and myghti warreour ſir John Talbot that was made Eorl of Srewiſbure ſlayn in Gyan and had plenteous iſſw by hym Sho dyed at london and is buried at pawlis undre the quere. hur

Reſon was til deth departe This lady to the honour of God made a decre in her hows not her own childre owt ſet. that what euer perſon blaſphamyd owr lord by unlawfull ſweryng he ſhuld lak that day ale wyn and chochyn and only haue but bred and watre.

52.

mygħty princes dame Alianore ſecund dowhtre by his furſt wyfe to ſir Richard beauchamp Eorl of Warrewik duches of Somerſet. born at Walkunſtow. lady and wyfe to ſir Edmund duke of Somerſet that was ſlayn at Seynt Albons. they had to gedre noble and plentuous yſſwe. hur Reſon was neuer new. This noble princes died at london in her place at Baynard Caſtel on a Saturday the vij day of march the yer of owr lord m^{l} cccc lxvij.

53.

worſhupful lady dam Elizabethe thyrd dowhter by his furſt lady and wyfe to ſir Richard Beauchamp Eorl of Warrewik born in the caſtel of Warrewik and there buryed. wyfe to the lord latymere by whom ſhe had ſir herry latymere a noble knyght ſlayn at Egcote felde and buried at Warrewik and a dowghtre callyd dame Kateryner weddyd furſt to ſir Olyuer dudley a noble man ſon to the baron of dudley ſlayn

52

53

54

55

he alſo wold ſofur no officer of his to oppres eny man for & hit myzt cum to his knowleg he wold ſore punyſh hem & yet they wold not mend therby they ſhuld not ſerue hym.

55.

Lady An dowhter and eyer to ſir herre beuchap duke of Warrewik ward to a noble and myghty lord ſir willm polle duke marchas and Eorl of Suffok. Sho was borne at Cardeffe in ſowtwalys a feyr yong lady and dyed a Infaunt of v yer olde and is buryed by her grete grauntmodre dam conſtance dowhter to ſir Edmunde of Langley duk of york and ſon to kyng Edward the thyrd a fore the hye awter in the abbey of Redyng.

56.

Dam Anne Beauchamp a noble lady of the blode Royal dowhter to Eorl Rychard and hole Suſtre and Eyr to ſir herre Beauchamp duke of Warrwik and aftre the deſſece of his only begoten dowhtre lady An. by trew enheritans countas of Warrewik which goode lady had in her dayes grete tribulacon for her lordis ſake Syre Rychard Neeuel ſon and Eyr to ſir Rychard Eorl of Saliſbury and by her tityll Eorl of Warrwik a famus knyght and excellent gretly ſpoke of thorow the moſte parte of all chriſtendam. This gode lady was born in the manor of Cawerſham by redyng in the counte of oxenford and was euer a full deuout lady in Goddis ſeruys fre of her ſpeche to euery perſon familiere accordyng to her and thore degre Glad to be at and with women that traueld of chyld. full comfortable and plenteus then of all thyng that ſhuld be helpyng to hem. and in hyr tribulacons ſho was euer to the gret pleſure of God full pacient. to the grete meryte of her own ſowl and enſample of all odre that were vexid with eny aduerſyte. Sho was alſo gladly euer companable and liberal and in her own perſone ſemly and bewteus and to all that drew to her ladiſhup as the dede ſhewid ful gode and gracious. her reſon was and euer ſhall.

56

57

57.

Syr Richard Neuell knyght by hys fadre and modre enheritans Eorl of Salyſbrury and lord of midlam and mony odre grete maners in the Northe and by his ladi and wyfe dam An Beauchamp Eorl of Warrewik and lord of many odre grete lordſhips in euery coſt of the land and by the kynges geft gret Chamberleyn of England hye Stuard of the duchre of Lancaſtre warden of the Northe marches toward Scotland and of the v portis ammirel of the ſee and capten of Calis and where the Kyng had ground lyef tenant in hys abſens. Thys noble lord was purpſid to have endowid his place of Gybclyf with more lyuolede for mo preſtys and poer Gentilmen and to haue woltyd and butracyd ſir Guys caue for fallyng downe of the hangyng rok by the avys of oder lordys ſturryng hym ſo to doo and to let peynt Sir Gyes Image and inremembrance of ſeynt Gy he wold haue had a certen of pore gentylmen found ther as were at ſeynt Cros of Wyncheſtre by the fundacon of maiſter herre beauford cardynal and biſhop of Wyncheſtre brodur to kyng herre the foruth wich place was endowid with forfet lyuelode of the Eorl of Saliſbury ſlayn at Ciſſetter with the duke of Surrey. and thys lord had by auctorite of parlement recouerd hit a geyn. he had alſo by his lady and wyfe ij dowghtrs Iſabell duches of clarence the eldre lady and the yongre was the moſt noble princes Quen An wyfe to the mighti ſouerayn prince Rychard the thyrd kyng of England. Thys noble Eorl was a knyght of the garter and he had all England at his ledyng and was dred and dowhtyd thorow many landis. And thow froward fortne hym deceuyd at his ende yot his knyghtly acts had be ſo excellent that his noble and famous name cowd neuer be put owt of laudable memory. he in his teſtament bequathe his bodye to be buryed at Warrewik but for all that he is buryed at Byrſham up on temmys. he was born on the monday on ſeynt Cecili day the yere of our lord m^{l} cccc xxviij & died ye xiiij day of april the yere of our lord m^{l} cccclxxi.

58.

Dame Iſabell duches of clarance wyfe to the noble and myghty prince Georg duke of Clarance eldyſt dowhter to the moſt famus and dred and louyd lord ſir Rychard Neouel Eorl of Warwike and his noble lady dam An. Sho had chidren the eldyſt borne on the ſee and buryed by calis the ſecund dam margaryte born at caſtel farley by bathe The thyrd ſir Edward her Eyre borne in the caſtel of Warrewik and the fourth lord Rychard born at Towkyſbury and lyuyd not a quarter of a yere and dyed anon aftyr hys lady modre at Warrewik and there buryed. and thys lady her ſelf was borne and dyed in the caſtel of Warrewik and is buryed at Towkyſboury Sho was borne the v day of ſeptembre the yere of our lord m^{l} cccc lj & died the xxij day of decembr.

58

59

59.

George duke of Clarence after the dethe with owt yſſw of ſir Edmund Eorl of Richmond next brodre to kyng Edwad the fowrth. he was knyght of the garter and Eorl of Warrewik by hys lady and grete Chamberlayn of England and the kynges lief tenant in Irland born in the caſtel of dyuelyn. a myghty prince ſemly of perſon and ryght witty and wel viſagid. a gret almys geuer and a grete bylder as ſhowis at tutbure warrewik and odre placis and there inſpeciall was he purpoſid to have doone many grete thinges as wallyng the town and haue made a owt ward to the caſtell cloſyng in the barn and the Stabull as the good noble Eorl ſir Richard Beauchamp had purpoſyd the ſame and the low wey callyd the holow wey in to the town ſhuld have be uſid as was of old tyme. Alſo this noble duke would have made a fet parke of the temple feldis a for geyn the caſtel for a pleſans to be in the caſtel and ſe the dere and the ſporte of hem and a greyd with the oweners of the grownd and at Gypclyf to have performyd the wil and purpos of hys fadre in law and to have gete priuilages to his burges of Warrewik but froward forteon maligned ſoor a geyn hym and leyd al a parte. he died in the towr of London and is buryed at two-kyſbury the xxv day of feuerel the yere of yowr lord m^{l} cccc lxxvii alſo hyt was put hym in mynd to let halow the new chapell and that he dyd.

60.

Syr Edward a noble lord and of the Royal blode ſon to the noble prince George duke of clarance and to dam Iſabel his lady and wyfe and by hur tytul Eorl of Warrewik he was born the xxj day of feueral the yere of owr lord m^{l} cccc lxxiiij and was made knyght at york by kyng Richard the iij with prince Edward his ſon and eyr the furſt yere of his Reigne.

61.

Lady Margarete borne at the caſtell of farley yn the counte of Wyltſhyre beſyde the cyte of Bathe the yere of owre lord m cccc lxxiij the day of the monythe of auguſt dowhter to the gret prynce George duke of Clarance & hys lady dam Iſabell and ſo ſuſter to Edward Eorle of Warwyck.

60

61

62

63

62.

The mooſt nobyll lady & prynces borne of the ryall blode of dyuers realmes lenyally deſcendyng from pryncys kyngys emperowris & mony gloryous ſeyntys dam Anne by the gret pervyſyonn of god quene of ynglond & of fraunce & lady of Irelond. wyfe furſt to prynce Edward Son and Eyre to kynge Harre the ſyxt. and after hys deceſe marvelowſly conveyed by all the corners and partyes of the whele of fortune & eft ſone exaltyd a geyne herre then evyr ſhe was to the mooſt hye trone & honour ouer all other ladys of thys nobyll realme anoyntyd and crownyd Quene of ynglond wyfe unto the mooſt victoryus prince kynge Rychard the thryd. In preſenc ſche was ſemely ameabyll & bewteus & yn condycyons full commendabyll & ryght vertues and accordynge to the interpretacion of hur name anne full gracyows Sho was ſecond douhter & on of the eyrys of ye mooſt myghtty & nobyll lord Syr Rychard nevyll Erle of Warrewyk & of ſaluſbury and hys worſchypphull lady and wyfe dam Anne. Thys mooſt nobyll prynces was borne yn the caſtell of Warrewyk The xj day of the monythe of June the yere of owre lord m cccc lvj and yn owre lady churche there wythe gret ſolempnyte was ſche cryſtond.

63.

The mooſt myghty prynce Rychard by the grace of god kynge of ynglond and of fraunce and lord of Irelond by verrey matrimony with owt dyſcontynewans or any defylynge yn the lawe by eyre male lineally dyſcendyng from kynge harre the ſecond all avarice ſet a ſyde Rewled hys ſubiettys In hys Realme ful commendabylly poneſchynge offenders of hys lawes ſpecyally Extorcioners and oppreſſors of hys comyns and chereſchynge tho that were vertues by the whyche dyscrete guydynge he gat gret thank of god and love of all hys ſubiettys Ryche and pore and gret lavd of the people of all othyr landys a bowt hym.

64.

The noble and myghty prynce Edward prynce of Walys duke alſo of cornewale and Eorle of Cheſtyr Son & eyre to the moſt hye & excelent prynce kynge Rychard the thryd and hys mooſt noble lady and wyfe Quene Anne enherytour to bothe Royall poſſeſions he was borne yn the caſtell of mydlam in the north cuntre.

End of the Rol.

Seynt Edward

England

ffrance

Ireland

Gascoyn & Gyan

Walys

Quarterings of Arms endorſed on the Rows Rol.

THE different quarterings are repeated in detail on the back of the Roll, and ſeparately appropriated, thus—

1. Argent, the five bleeding wounds, and in chief the monogram, Jhc̃, Gules.
   "The armys of Jhū for owr Redemcion."
2. Gules, two lions rampant, combattant, crowned, or.
   "The armes of Ector of Troy, the ſe-
   "cunde of the ix worthy, & after his heir
   "by ſucceſſion Brute, begynner of this "land, by hym called Britan, nowe Eng-
   "land."
3. Azure, a ſcaling ladder in bend, argent, between ſix lioncels, or.
   "Seynt Craddok."
4. Sable, a bend ragulé, argent.
   "The Erles Warrewyk in the Britons
   "dayes."
5. Azure, a paſtoral ſtaff in pale, headed with a croſs paté, ſurmounted by two croſiers in ſaltire, and enfiled by a mitre, all or.
   "The armes of Seint Deueroyk, Biſſhopp
   "of the Cite of Cayrwaire, nowe called
   "Warrewyk."
6. Gules, three ducal coronets, two and one, or.
   "Kyng Warrmond that firſt dyd name
   "this Cite Warrewyk."
7. Azure, three ducal coronets in pale, or.
   "The armes of the kyngs of Weſtſex while "they were hethyn."
8. Azure, a croſs patoncée, argent.
   "The armes of the Kyngs of Weſtſex after "that they were Criſtenned."
9. Vert, nine birds, three, three, and three, or.
   "The armes of Duke Ethelred by ſom
   "ſpeciall lordſhipp."
10. Vert, a lion rampant, gules, crowned or, within a bordure ſable, charged with plates.
    "The propre armes of the forſeid Duke
    "Ethelrede."
11. Azure, a croſs fleury between five martlets, argent.
    "The armes of Seint Edward Kyng &
    "Confeſſour."
12. Or, a double headed eagle diſplayed, wings depreſſed, ſable.
    "The armes of the Emperor of Rome."
13. Argent, a croſs bottonée, or, radiated gules, entwined by a ſerpent, proper.
    "The armes of Sir Eneas Chyualer, a
    "Cyng whos bredern & a ſyſter by Ro-
    "mans were enchaunted to Swannes."
14. Gules, crucilly, or.
    "Rohaud Erle of Warrewyk, lyneally
    "deſcendyng from the ſeid Syr Eneas."
15. Ermine, a chevron, gules.
    "The armes of the old auncetry of Sr
    "Guy of Warrewyk."
16. Checquy, or and azure, a chevron, ermine.
    "The armes of Syr Guy of Warrewyk."
17. Ermine, a feſs checquy, or and azure.
    "The armes of Syr Heraud of Ardern."
18. Checquy, or and azure, a human head affrontée (the head of Colbrond), the forehead fillcted, argent.
    "The armes of Syr Guy, at the batell of "Wyncheſter, whereat a Knyght un-
    "knowen ſlewe Colbrand."
19. Gules, an owl argent.
    "The armes of Syr Colbrand."
20. Per ſaltire, gules and azure, a croſs patonce, or.
    "The armes of Kyng Athelſtan."
21. Sable, an eagle diſplayed, wings depreſſed, or, beaked and membered, gules.
    "The armes of Erle Leueryche. i. e. Leo-
    "fric."
22. Gules, crucilly, two bars between ſix leopards' faces, three, two, and one, or.
    "The armes of Kyng Harald."
23. Lozengy, or and azure.
    "Syr Humfrey of Vyels."
24. Lozengy, or and azure, within a bordure, gules, charged with plates.

"Syr Herry Newburgh, Erle of War-
"rewyk & of Newburgh."

25. Checquy, or and azure.
"The Erle of Waren."

26. Or, a lion rampant azure, armed and langued, gules.
"Percy."

27. Azure, fretty, or.
"Devyle."

28. Azure, a bend, argent, cottiſed between ſix lioncels, or.
"Harford." (i. e. Hereford.)

29. Or, two bars, gules.
"Harecourt."

30. Azure, two bends, or.
"Oyly."

31. Barry nebuly, gules and or.
"Baſſett nowe Lovell."

32. Azure, ſix lioncels, three, two, and one, or.
"Longſpe Erle of Saleſbury."

33. Per pale, or and vert, a lion rampant, gules.
"Erle Marſhall & a ſecond broder of the
"Erle of Warrewyk."

34. Argent, ſix annulets, three, two, and one, gules.
"Pleſey, Erle of Warrewyk."

35. Argent, two bars, gules.
"Maudut of Hanſlape."

36. Sable, a lion rampant, crowned, argent.
"Segrave."

37. Argent, two bars, and in chief three fleurs de lys, gules.
"Syer Erle of Northampton."

38. Gules, a feſs, or.
"Beauchamp of Elmeley."

39. Quarterly, one and four, gules, a feſs, or; two and three, argent, a feſs, azure, charged with three fleurs de lys, or.
"Bechamp and Urflete."

40. Per pale, or and gules, three roundlets counterchanged.
"Abtot."

41. Gules, crucilly and a feſs, or.
"Syr William Beauchamp Erle of War-
"rewyk."

42. Quarterly, or and gules.
"Maundvyle & Say, Erles of Eſſex."

43. Gules, two bends, the upper, or, the lower, argent.
"The old armes of Eſſex."

44. Vairy.
"Piers Ludgarſhale."

45. Vairy, an ineſcutcheon quarterly, or, and gules.
"Ffitz John."

46. Argent, a manche, gules.
"Tony."

47. Argent, a lion rampant, azure, a chief, gules.
"Seint Walden of Croyland, Erle of Hun-
"tyngdon."

48. Gules, an orle, argent.
"Balyol of Barnecaſtell." (i. e. Barnard Caſtle.)

49. Gules, a feſs between ſix croſs croſſlets, or.
"Syr Thomas Beauchamp Erle of War-
"rewyk."

50. Barry of twelve, argent and azure.
"Hugh Brun Erle of the Marche be-"twene Peyto and Ffraunce."

51. Azure, three barnacles in pale argent, a chief ermine, a lion iſſuant, gules.
"Genevyle."

52. Barry of ſix, or and azure, an ineſcutcheon, argent; on a chief of the firſt, two pallets between two gyronies of the ſecond.
"Mortimer."

53. Argent, two bars, gules, within a bordure, azure, charged with horſe ſhoes of the field.
"Ferrers of Okam the chief town of Rut-
"land."

54. Gules, ſeven maſcles, three, three, and one, or.
"Quincy, after Groby."

55. Vairy, gules and or, within a bordure, azure, charged with horſe ſhoes, argent.
"Ferrers of Groby."

56. Lozengy, or and azure, within a bordure gobony, argent and gules.
"Robert Erle of Melenk & of Leycettur,
"elder broder to Syr Henry Newburgh
"Erle of Warrewyk."

57. Gules, a cinquefoil pierced, argent.
"Leycettur."

58. Azure, a wolf's head eraſed, argent.
"Hugh Low Erle of Cheſtur."

59. Gules, crucilly, or, a wolf's head eraſed, argent.
"Richard Erle of Cheſtur."

60. Azure, three garbs banded, argent.
"Randolf, Erle of Cheſtur."

61. Or, a feſs, gules.
"Lacy."

62. Sable, a croſs engrailed, argent.
"Ufford."

63. Or, ſix lioncels, two, two, and two, ſable.
"Richard Strongbowe Erle of Pembroke
"& Strogoyll."

64. Per pale indented, or and gules.
"Grauntmaynell."

endorſed on the Rows Rol.

65. Or, fretty gules.
"Verdun."
66. Sable, a lion rampant, gules.
"Leinſtre of Makmur."
67. Gules, three lions paſſant guardant, or, in a bordure, argent.
"Holand Erle of Kent."
68. Gules, ſemée de croſſes paté, ſable, a chevron, argent.
"Barkeley."
69. Or, a feſs between two chevronels, ſable.
"Lyle."
70. Gules, a lion paſſant guardant, ſable, crowned, or.
"Ryz Gerard."
71. Argent, a chevron, gules.
"Tyes."
72. Gules, a croſs engrailed, or.
"Oddo and Doddo, Erles of Glowcetter."
73. Azure, a lion rampant, or.
"Ffitz Hamon, Erle of Glowceſtr."
74. Gules, three clarions, two and one, the two in chief addoſſé, or.
"Robert Ffitz Roy Erle of Glowcetter."
75. Or, three chevronels, gules.
"Hartford, nowe Glowcettur."
76. Azure, a lion rampant, ſable, debruiſed of a bendlet, gules.
"Weland."
77. Gules, a lion rampant, or.
"Burwaſſhe."
78. Quarterly, one and four, argent, two and three, gules, fretty, or, over all a bendlet, ſable.
"Audeley—Spenſer."
79. Gules, three garbs banded, argent, within a double treſſure, fleury counter fleury, or.
"Comyn."
80. Azure, a lion rampant within a bordure, or.
81. Gules, a lion rampant, within a bordure engrailed, or.
"Talbott."
82. Argent, two lions paſſant, gules.
"Strange de Blakmere."
83. Quarterly, France (three fleurs de lys) and England, within a bordure, gobonny, argent and azure.
"Somerſett."
84. Gules, a ſaltire argent, charged with a roſe proper.
"Nevell, Lord Latymer."
85. Gules, a croſs patoncée, or.
"Latymer."
86. Argent, three fuſils conjoined in feſs, gules.
"Mountagu."
87. Or, an eagle diſplayed, wings depreſſed, vert, beaked and membered, gules.
"Monethermer."
88. Per bend ſiniſter, ſable and or, a lion rampant, counterchanged.
"Adam Ffraunſes, Maire of London." (1351-2.)
89. Gules, a ſaltire argent, in chief, a label of three points, argent, the points gobonny, argent and azure.
"Syr Richard Nevyle, Erle of Saleſ"bury."
90. Gules, a ſaltire argent, in chief, a label of three points, or.
"Syr Richard Nevell, Erle of Warewyk."
91. Quarterly, France (three fleurs de lys) and England. In chief a label of three points, argent, each point charged with a canton, gules.
"The Duke of Clarence."
92. Quarterly, 1. France (three fleurs de lys). 2. England. 3. Gules, a feſs between ſix croſs croſſlets, or. 4. Checquy, or and azure, a chevron ermine. On the 1ſt and 2d in chief, a label of three points, argent, each point charged with a canton, gules.
An eſcutcheon of pretence—Quarterly,—1. Vairy, an ineſcutcheon, quarterly, or and gules. 2. Lozengy, or and azure, in a bordure gules, charged with plates. 3. Gules, a ſaltire argent, a label of three points, or. 4. Argent, a manche gules.
"The Erle of Warrewyk."
93. Quarterly, France (three fleurs de lys) and England.
"The Kyng of England."
94. Quarterly, France (three fleurs de lys) and England. In chief a label of three points, argent.
"The Prynce of Walys."

Index.

ADAM, genealogy of Gwayr traced to, in Welſh Chronicles, No. 5.
Admiral of the Sea, Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 57.
Adrian, 5th Pope, formerly Octobonus the Legate, 42.
Ailwin, v. Alwinus.
Ailwyn, Abbot of Eveſham, inſtigates Wygodus to reſtore to the Abbey the lordſhips of Willysford and Grafton, temp. Edward Confeſſor, 27.
Albanact, 3d ſon of King Brute, who gives him the part of England between Trent and the Scotch Sea, called Albany, 1.
Albany, the part of England between Trent and the Scotch Sea, given by King Brute to his 3d ſon, Albanact, 1.
Albemarle, Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, made Earl of, 50.
Alfred, founder of Oxford Univerſity, 11.
Alianore, 2d daughter by his firſt wife to Sir Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and wife to the Duke of Somerſet, born at Walthamſtow, dies in her palace at Baynard Caſtle, London 7 March, 1467, 52.
Alice, Queen of England, 2d wife of Henry I. and daughter of Godfrey of Boulogne, 33.
Alice (Harcourt), widow of Walleran, Earl of Warwick, agrees with King John to have her own marriage and the ward of her children, for 1000*l.* and 10 white ſteeds, 34.
Alice, daughter of Walleran, Earl of Warwick, and wife to Sir William Maudut, Baron of "Hampſlape," 34; had to her marriage Walton Maudut by Warwick, by her father's gift, 40, 41.
Alice, Counteſs of Warwick, taken priſoner with her huſband to Kenilworth Caſtle, by Sir Andrew Giffart, and ranſomed to their "men of valour for 1900 marks, 42; ſtory of her playing cheſs in Kenilworth Caſtle with Sir Richard Moundvile, Kt. 42.
Allhallows Church, in Caſtle of Warwick, from the time of Biſhop Dubricius, alias St. Deuroik, continued a College till 60 years after the Conqueſt, and then was united to the College of our Lady in the Town, 6.
Allhallows College, in Warwick Caſtle, Henry (Newburgh) a great benefactor to it, 31; united to that of St. Mary's in the town of Warwick, 32.
Allhallows, York, in North Street, Dame Rawghtone, an anchoreſs dwelling at, 50.
Alwinus, or Ailwin, ſucceſſor to Wygodus, who has him as a witneſs to the releaſe of Willyſford and Grafton, to the monks of Eveſham, 27; retains all the County of Warwick, 28.
Alyce v. Alice.
Angers, capital of Anjou, King John born at, 15.
Angleſea or Angliſhey, 4.
Anjou, Maude, Counteſs of, daughter and heir to H. I. v. Mawde, 14.
Anne, daughter and heir to Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, ob. infans, v. "Beauchamp," 55.
Anne (Nevill) Queen of England, wife to R. III. younger daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick, 57.
Anne, Queen of England, wife, firſt to Prince Edward, ſon and heir of H. VI. next to R. III. She was 2d daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick and Saliſbury, born in Warwick Caſtle 11 June, 1456, and chriſtened in St. Mary's Church, 62.
Annes, younger ſiſter and heir of Maud, Counteſs of Warwick, they were daughters of Lord Percy. She was wife to Sir Goſcelyn (brother of Alice, Henry I.'s ſecond wife, and daughter of Godfrey of Boulogne), 33.
Ardern, Sir Herod of, v. "Sir Herod."
Arms, the compoſition of the Arms of Warwick, when Wm. de Beauchamp ſucceeds his father as Baron Elmley, and by his mother was Earl of Warwick. She puts in the croſſcroſſly, and he a bend or, 44.
Arms, Lord Powys (2d ſon of Wm. de Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley) to "his field of gules and a bar of gold on his part, puts, for his wife, 6 mullets of gold," 44.

Index.

"Arth" or "Narthe" in Welſh means "a bear," 7.

Arthal, ſame as Arthgallus, q. v.

Arthgallus, Arthal, Earl of Carvayre (now called Warwick), of royal blood, a knight of the round table, 7; "Arth" or "Narthe" the firſt ſyllable of his name, in Welſh means "bear," whence the Lords of Warwick take "the Bere to hur beſte," 7.

Arthur, King, "the mighty warriour" one of 9 worthies, grandſon to Conſtantinus, 4; crowned by St. Deuroik, alias Dubricius, Archbiſhop of Caerleon, 6; his round table of ſilver, with the treſtyls, ſold out of England by Piers Gaveſton, "the quantity is yet in the Caſtle of Wincheſter," 46.

Athelſtan, King, gladly receives Sir Raynbrown, Earl of Warwick, on his return to England, and gives him his daughter in marriage, 23.

Auen, i. e. Avon, q. v.

Aumarl, v. Albemarle.

Aungey, i. e. Angers, capital of Anjou, King John born at, 15.

Avon, one of the Welſh Earls of Warwick, marvelloufly entombed at the bottom of, 9; the plans of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, for rendering it navigable, and opening water communication with Briſtol, to bring the Lord's wines, &c. and merchandize to the Town, 50.

Baliol, Edward, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, made Lieutenant of Scotland under him, 47.

Baliol, John, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.

Balſale, the hoſpitallers of the temple of, hold the lordſhips of Willysford and Little Grafton, of the Caſtle of Warwick, 24.

Barkley, v. Berkeley.

Barnard Caſtle, in the Biſhoprick of Durham, given by Edward I. to Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 46.

Barre, Gerard, (Geraldus Cambrenſis) his Chronicle cited, 1.

Baſſet, John, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.

Baſſet, Philippa, daughter of Sir Thomas, Baron of Hedingdon, 2d wife of Henry, Earl of Warwick, who, by her, founds Biceſter. She married 2dly Sir William Percy of Yorkſhire, 35.

Baſſet, Sir Thomas, Baron of Hedingdon, father of Philippa, Counteſs of Warwick, 35.

Bath and Wells, W. Biſhop of, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.

Baynard Caſtle, London, the palace of Alianore, Ducheſs of Somerſet, wife of Edmund, Duke of Somerſet, and 2d daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, who dies there 7 March, 1467, 52.

Bear, the origin of the Earls of Warwick taking it "to their beſte," 7.

Beauchamp, Alianore, 2d daughter by his 1ſt wife, to Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and wife to Edmund, Duke of Somerſet, born at Walthamſtow, dies in her palace at Baynard Caſtle, London, 7 March, 1467, 52.

Beauchamp, Angaret, 2d wife of Sir William Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, 43.

Beauchamp, Anne, daughter and heir to Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, ward of Sir William Pole, Duke, Marquis, and Earl of Suffolk. She was born at Cardiffe, died at 5 years old, and buried by her great grandmother Conſtance, daughter to Sir Edmund Langley, Duke of York, ſon to E. III. at Reading, 55.

Beauchamp, Anne, daughter to Earl Richard, ſiſter and heir to Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick (after the death of his infant, Anne), Counteſs of Warwick in her own right, was born at Caverſham, by Reading, very pious and charitable, her "Reſon" was "and ever ſhall," married Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury, in her right Earl of Warwick, 56. 57.

Beauchamp, Eleanor, 2d daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and wife to Edmund, Duke of Somerſet, her "reſon" was "never new," 52.

Beauchamp, Elizabeth, 3d daughter by his 1ſt wife to Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, wife of Lord Latimer, ſhe was born in the Caſtle of Warwick, and buried there, her "reſon" was "tyl my lyues ende," 53.

Beauchamp, Guido, "the wittieſt Lord of England," ſon and heir to Sir Wm. Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, by his mother, Lord of Kyrtlyng, and by his wife Alice, Lord Tony, always called "The good Earl," takes Sir Piers Gaveſton, and beheads him, dies 12 Auguſt, 1315, and is buried at Bordeſley, 46.

Beauchamp, Sir Guy, eldeſt ſon of Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, ob. v. p. ſ. p. 48.

Beauchamp, Sir Henry, K. G. ſon and heir to Earl Richard, K. G. made by H. VI. 1ſt Earl of England, Duke of Warwick, High Steward of the Duchy of Lancaſter, Lord of the Iſles of Guernſey, &c. Pope Nickolas invites him to be Captain of his wars, marries Cecil, daughter of the Earl of Saliſbury, and leaves by her a daughter and heir, Anne; his plans, viz. to increaſe the common for Warwick, to ordain new maces for the bailiffs, but he died ere he had been a quarter of a year out of his wardſhip, 9 June, 1446, at Hanley by Worceſter, where he was born, and he is buried at Tewkſbury; was ſhrived daily, and daily ſaid the whole of David's Pſalter, which he knew by heart, he ſuffered no officer of his to oppreſs any: his "Reſon" was "Deſervyng cauſyt," 54.

Beauchamp, Iſabel, wife of Sir William, and daughter of William Maudut, Baron of Hamſlape, q. v.

Beauchamp, Iſabella, wife of Sir William, Baron of Elmley, and ſiſter to Sir William Maudut, Earl of Warwick, buried in the Priory of Coleſhill, between Warwick and Worceſter, 43.

Beauchamp de Iſabel, ſiſter of Sir William Maudut, Earl of Warwick, and wife to William de Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, 44.

Beauchamp, Margaret, eldeſt daughter of Sir Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, by his 1ſt wife Elizabeth, daughter to Lord Berkeley (which Elizabeth in right of her mother was Lady Liſle), born in the manor of Goodreſt, near Warwick, 51. v. Shrewſbury.

Beauchamp, Margaret, eldeſt daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and wife of John Talbot, Earl of Shrewſbury, her "reaſon" was "till death depart," buried at St. Paul's, 51.

Beauchamp, Maud, or Mold, wife of William Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and mother of Guido, Earl of Warwick, who, through her, was Lord of Kyrtlyng, 46.

Beauchamp, Sir Richard, Earl of Warwick, Henry V. granted privileges to, 15.

Beauchamp, Richard, Earl of Warwick, made Earl of Albemarle, diſtinguiſhed in juſting at Mantua, at the Council of Conſtance, where he was for the King and temporalty of England, and at Guines, when he was Captain of Calais and elſewhere; called by the Emperor "the father of courteſy," who ſaid, that "if all courteſy were loſt, it might be found in his perſon;" his plans for improving Warwick, viz. to wall the town, to gather the waters of Avon where the rock made it ſhallow, to enlarge the arches of the bridge, to compound with the millers between Warwick and Tewkſbury, ſo that ſmall veſſels might come from Tewkſbury to Warwick, opening a water communication to Briſtol; purchaſes St. Bartholomew fair for Warwick; made a chantry of 2 prieſts at Guycliffe, that God might ſend him an heir male, at the inſtigation of Dame Em Rawghtone, an anchoreſs dwelling at Allhallows, North Street, York; before his death charges his ſon never to change the name of Warwick for any other; Regent of France and King's Lieutenant, dies at Rouen 30 April, 1439, and is buried at Warwick in the beautiful chapel of his foundation, 1439; guardian to H. VI. in his minority, whom he crowns twice at Weſtminſter as King of England, and once at Paris as King of France, 50; has for 1ſt wife Elizabeth, daughter of Lord Berkeley, in right of her mother, Lady Liſle, 51.

Beauchamp, Thomas, Earl of Warwick, born in Warwick Caſtle, named after his godfathers Sir Thomas of Lancaſter, and Sir Thomas Warmynton, Prior of Kenilworth, made, by the King's gift, Marſhal of England for life, and Sheriff of Warwickſhire and Leiceſterſhire, heir to Sir Guy and Alice, diſtinguiſhed at Creſſy and Poictiers, and at ſiege of Calais, and in heathen land, &c. ob. 1369; takes the Archbiſhop of Sens priſoner, made Lieutenant of Scotland under Edward Baliol; Lieutenant of France under King E. III. in the war time; makes the great booth in the market, and makes the town toll-free, gets Gowerland by plea, but his ſon loſes it again, dies at Calais 14 November, 1369, and is buried at Warwick, in the faire quire which he began and his ſon finiſhed, 47.

Beauchamp, Thomas, Earl of Warwick, K. G. after the death of his elder brother, Sir Guy Beauchamp, heir to his father Sir Thomas, ob. 1401, 8 April; ſentenced to perpetual impriſonment, for taking part with the Commons, and his lands given to Sir Thomas Holland, Earl of Kent, and Duke of Surry, but he was reſtored 2 years after, very charitable in alms and viſiting the ſick, finiſhes the quire of St. Mary's Church which his father began, and is buried in it, began the guild of the Trinity and St. George of Warwick, began the new tower next the dungeon: his anceſtors having given Gycliff unto the Priory of Warwick, he got it by change of livelihood to him and his heirs, and new built the manſion under the chapel, and named it Gycliff in remembrance of Sir Guy, 48.

Beauchamp, William, Baron of Elmley, joins the Empreſs Maud againſt Stephen, has grants of her, 14.

Beauchamp, Sir William, Earl of Warwick, Edward I. granted privileges to, 15.

Beauchamp, Sir William, Baron of Elmley, marries Iſabel, daughter of William Maudut, Baron of Hanſlape, 41.

Beauchamp, Sir William, Baron of Elmley, marries for 2d wife a lady called Angaret, 43.

Beauchamp, William de, Baron of Elmley, married Dame Iſabel, ſiſter to Sir William Maudut, Earl of Warwick; by his wife Iſabel Maudut had 3 ſons, all lords, the 1ſt was Sir Wm. Beauchamp, his ſucceſſor as Baron Elmley, and by his mother Earl of Warwick, the 2d was Lord Powys, the 3d — (the title not given), he had another ſon by his 2d wife Angaret, 44.

Beauchamp, William de, (who ſucceeded his father as Baron of Elmley, and by his mother Iſabel Maudut, ſiſter of William Maudut, Earl of Warwick, was Earl of Warwick) made their arms one, "both their fields were gules, ſhe put in the croſſcroſſly, he, the bend-or." 44.

Beauchamp, the youngeſt ſon of William de, puts to his arms 6 billets or for his wife, 44.

Beauchamp, William, Earl of Warwick, founder of Suldham in Norfolk, by his father Baron of Elmley and Sheriff of Worceſterſhire, by his mother, Earl of Warwick, Baron of Neuburgh, Baron of Hanſlape, and Chamberlain of the Exchequer, by his wife, Lord of Kyrtlyng and of the firſt and chief part of the Earldom of Eſſex, and, by his father or mother, Panterer at the King's coronation, ob. 1298, and buried by his father and wife at the Grey Friars, Worceſter, which they founded, 45.

Beauclerk, v. Henry.

Beaufort, Henry, Cardinal Biſhop of Wincheſter, brother of Henry IV. founds St. Croſs, near Wincheſter, 57.

Beaumont, Sir Robert, elder ſon of Sir Roger, made Earl of Leiceſter by William the Conqueror, 13.

Beaumont, Sir Roger, raiſed from a Viſcount to an Earl by William the Conqueror; his elder ſon Sir Robert, made Earl of Leiceſter, and his 2d ſon made Earl of Newburgh in Normandy and of Warwick in England, by William the Conqueror, 13.

Bechamp, v. Beauchamp.

Bemont, v. Beaumont.

Berkeley, Elizabeth, daughter of Lord Berkeley, in right of her mother, Lady Liſle, and wife of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 51.

Berkeley, Lord, father of Elizabeth, Counteſs of Warwick, 51.

Biceſter, Henry, Earl of Warwick, founder of, by his wife Philippa, daughter of Sir Thomas Baſſet, Baron of Hedingdon, 35.

Biſham upon Thames, Richard Nevill, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, buried at, 57.

Biſſetur, v. Biceſter.

Blaſphemy, puniſhed in the houſehold of Margaret, Counteſs of Shrewſbury, by limiting the offender to bread and water for the day, 51.

Boleyn, Sir Godfrey of, v. Bologne.

Bordeſley, Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, buried at, 1315, 46.

Bordyſley, i. e. Bordeſley (in Worceſterſhire), q. v. 46.

Boulogne, Godfrey of, v. Godfrey.

Briſtol, the Caſtle of, aliened by King John, from the heirs of the Earls of Glouceſter, which lordſhip, they ſay, ought to have belonged to the Earldom of Warwick, 35; plans of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, for opening water communication between it and Warwick, 50.

Britain, Little, v. Little Britain.

Britons, the, driven into Wales in the time of King Warremond, 10.

Brute, King, his 3 ſons, Locrine, Camber, and Albanact, 1.

Brute, King, v. Brwte.

Brwte, King, divided England into 3 parts for his three ſons, 1.

Buckingham, Duke of, has the 3d part of the Earldom of Glouceſter, which was given by Edward II. to Piers Gaveſton, 46.

Byrſham upon Thames, v. Biſham upon Thames.

Caerleon, the old name for 3 places, viz. Caerleon in South Wales, Cheſter, Warwick; original name of Warwick, given it by the founder King Gutheline, 1.

Caerleon, the old name of Warwick, changed to Cairumbre by the Britiſh King Conſtantinus, 4; St. Deuroik, alias Dubricius, made Archbiſhop of, who afterwards reſigns it to St. David, 6.

Caerware, ſame as Carewayr, and Cayrgware, 8.

Cæſar, Julius, built a tower and town, and called it Ceſarſbury, now Saliſbury, 3.

Caier Gwayr, the name changed to Warwick, 10.

Cairumbre, the 2d name by which Warwick was called, 1; the name given by the Britiſh king, Conſtantinus, to the borough of Warwick, inſtead of its former name, Caerleon, 4.

Calais, the ſiege of, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, diſtinguiſhed at, dies at, 14 Nov. 1369, 47; Captain and King's Lieutenant of, Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 57.
Cales, v. Calais.
Camber, ſecond ſon of King Brute, v. Cambria.
Cambria, old name for Wales, from Camber, 2d ſon of King Brute, who gave it him as his portion of the kingdom, 1.
Canterbury, Archbiſhop of, Hubert. q. v.
Caradocus, Sanctus, (St. Craddok) "a mighty prince, ſpecially in Herefordſhire," a repairer of Warwick, builds the Church of St. John Baptiſt in the market at Warwick, 3.
Cardiffe, Anne, daughter and heir of Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, born at, 55.
Carewayr, ſame as Cayrgwayre, q. v.
Carleon, the old name for 3 places, viz. Carleon in South Wales, Cheſter, and Warwick, 1.
Carvayre, ſame as Cayrgwayre, Carewayr, now Warwick, 7.
Caſtle Farley, near Bath, Margaret, daughter of George, Duke of Clarence, by Iſabell (Nevill) his wife, born at, 58.
Caverſham, Anne Beauchamp, in her own right Counteſs of Warwick, wife to Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury, born at, 56.
Cayrcraddock, the old name (the 2d name) of Saliſbury, 3.
Cayr Gwayr, the 3d name by which Warwick was called, 1.
Cayrgwayre, ſame as Cayr Gwayr, q. v.
Cayrvrongan, the old name of Worceſter, built by Conſtantinus, the Britiſh King, 4.
Cayrwent, by Chepſtow, built by Conſtantinus, the Britiſh King, 4.
Ceſarſbury, the old name for Saliſbury, where Julius Cæſar built a tower and town, 3.
Chamberlain of the Exchequer, v. "Exchequer."
Chamberlain, Great, of England, Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 57.
Checcr, the King's, v. Exchequer.
Chepſtow, Cayrwent by, q. v.
Cheſs, Game of, played at Kenilworth Caſtle, between Alice, Counteſs of Warwick, and Sir R. Moundvile, ſtory about t. King H. III. 42.
Cheſter, its old name Caerleon, 1.
Cheſter, Earl of, Edward, ſon and heir to R. III. v. "Edward," 64.
Cheſtur, i. e. Cheſter, q. v.
Cinq Ports, Warden of, Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 57.
Cirenceſter, Thomas Holland, Earl of Kent and Duke of Surrey, beheaded at, by the Commons, 49; the Earl of Saliſbury and the Duke of Surrey ſlain at, 57.
Clarance, v. Clarence.
Clare de, Sir Gilbert, Earl of Glouceſter, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.
Clarence, the Duke of makes permanent the 4 Prieſts and 2 Clerks founded in St. Mary's Warwick, by Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 50.
Clarence, George, Duke of, inſtigates his brother, E. IV. to grant 2 fairs and other privileges to Warwick, but the Chancellor withſtood it, 16.
Clarence, George, Duke of, marries Iſabell, eldeſt daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick, by his wife Anne; had children, the eldeſt born at ſea and buried at Calais, the 2d, Margaret, born at Caſtle Farley, by Bath, the 3d, Sir Edward, their heir, born in Warwick Caſtle, the 4th, Lord Richard born at Tewkſbury, died in a quarter of a year and buried at Warwick, 58.
Clarence, George, Duke of, brother to E. IV. born at Dyvelyn (Dublin) Caſtle, a great alms giver, he built much at Tutbury, Warwick, &c. after the death of Edmund, Earl of Richmond, next brother to E. IV. K.G.; by his lady, Earl of Warwick and Great Chamberlain of England, King's Lieutenant in Ireland, intended to have walled the town of Warwick, to have made an outer ward to the Caſtle, encloſing the barn and ſtables, to have reſtored the hollow way into the town, to have made a deer park, to have performed the intentions of his father in law as to Guycliffe, to have got privileges for the burgeſſes; hallows the new chapel, dies in the Tower of London, 25 Feb. 1477, and is buried at Tewkſbury, 59.
Clarence, Iſabell, Ducheſs of, eldeſt daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 57; wife to George, Duke of Clarence, born in the Caſtle of Warwick 5 Sept. 1451, and died there 22 December, is buried at Tewkſbury, 58.
Claypitts, the, the common ground ſo called, given by Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, to the poor community of Warwick, 37.
Clerkenwell, St. John's, v. St. John's.
Colbrond, the victory over, at Wincheſter, by Sir Guy, Earl of Warwick, 22.

Index.

Colehull, i. e. Coleſhill, q. v.
Coleſhill, the Priory of White Nuns at, founded by Sir Wm. Beauchamp and his anceſtors. Iſabella wife of Sir William Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, buried at, 43.
College of Allhallows Church, in the Caſtle of Warwick, united to that of Our Lady in the town, 60 years after the Conqueſt, by Roger, Earl of Warwick, according to the intention of his father, Henry Newburgh, 6, 32.
College of Our Lady, in the Town of Warwick, that of Allhallows Church in the Caſtle united to it, 6.
Conſtance, the Council of, the royalty of all Chriſtendom aſſembled at, among them Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, for the King and Temporality of England, who diſtinguiſhes himſelf in juſts, 50.
Conſtance, daughter to Edmund Langley, Duke of York, the ſon of E. III. great grandmother to Anne, the daughter and heir of Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, 55.
Conſtantinus, grandfather to King Arthur, and brother to the King of "lytyl brytayn," elected King of Britain, "a great builder," &c. 4.
Cornwal, Piers Gaveſton made Earl of by Edward II. 46.
Cornwall, Duke of, Edward, ſon and heir to R. III. v. "Edward," 64.
Coronation Service of the Earls of Warwick, 34.
Couitre, i. e. Coventry, q. v.
Counties, named after the head towns, 10.
Coventry, the monks of, owned houſes in Warwick, 13; the Priory of, founded by the Duke and Earl of Leuerych, 27; the Commiſſioners appointed by H. III. and Council to ſettle a peace at Warwick, retire to Coventry to prepare the terms, 42.
Craddok, St. i. q. Sanctus Caradocus, q. v. 3.
Creſcy, v. Creſſy.
Creſſy, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick diſtinguiſhed at, 47.
Croſs croſſlets in the arms of Warwick, origin of, from the legend of Eneas, q. v. firſt aſſumed by Rohaudus, 19.
Crown, the, deſcended in Athelſtan's days to heirs male, or by election, 23.

Danes, the, burn Warwick and 2 Abbeys, viz. one of monks about Wodlow Hill, and another of black nuns in the town at St. Nicholas, in time of Ethelred, A. D. 1016, inter 1 and 6 of January. v. "murder ſtones," and "Walwort," 26.
Daniel, Sir, treaſurer of Landaff, 2.
Deueroik, St. i. e. Dubricius, q. v.
D'Evyle, Margaret, "a good lady and a fair," 2d wife of William, Earl of Warwick, who died 1184, 33.
D'Oilli, v. Oyly.
Dole, in Little Britain, St. Sampſon made Biſhop of, 6.
Domus Day, v. Doomſday.
Doomſday Book, cited; the Earls at this time were not lords of the town, but had their manſions, &c. and the rule under the King, 12; cited, 13.
D'Oyly, v. Oyly.
Dublin Caſtle, George, Duke of Clarence, born at, 59.
Dubricius, Sanctus, called in Welſh "St. Deveroik," ſon of a King and Queen, Biſhop of Warwyk, then called Cayrgwayre, &c. for fear of the Saxons fled into Wales, and there made the 1ſt Biſhop of Landaff, thence tranſlated to the Archbiſhoprick of Caerleon, after that crowns King Arthur, reſigns his Archbiſhoprick to St. David, retires as hermit to iſle of Stepholm, in Severn, and enſhrined at Landaff, 6.
Dudley, the Baron of, father of Sir Oliver, who married Catherine, daughter of Lord Latimer, and was ſlain at Edgecote Field, 53.
Dudley, Catherine, wife of Sir Oliver, and daughter to Lord Latimer, by his wife Elizabeth (Beauchamp), q. v. 53.
Dudley, Sir Oliver, ſon of Baron Dudley, ſlain at Edgecote Field, he married Catherine, daughter of Lord Latimer, 53.
Dyvelyn Caſtle, i. e. Dublin, q. v.

Earl, "the good Earl," Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, always called ſo, 46.
Edgecot Field, Sir Henry Latimer ſlain at, 53.
Edmund, Earl of Richmond, next brother to Edward IV. ob. ſ. p. 59.
Edward the Confeſſor, after ſubjugation of Danes makes new laws, v. Sanctus Edwardus.
Edwardus, Sanctus, King of England, born at Iſlep, grants privileges to Warwick, 12.
Edward I. granted privileges to Sir Wm. Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 15; gives Barnard Caſtle in the Biſhoprick of Durham, to Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 46.
Edward II. recalls Piers Gaveſton, and makes him numerous grants, v. "Gaveſton," 46.
Edward IV. born at Rouen, granted 2 fairs and other privileges to Warwick at the inſtigation of the Duke of Clarence, but the Chancellor withſtood it, 16.

Edward, Prince, ſon and heir of H. VI. marries Anne, ſecond daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick and Saliſbury, ſhe was afterwards wife of R. III. 62.

Edward, ſon and heir of George, Duke of Clarence, by Iſabel (Nevill) his wife, born in Warwick Caſtle, 21 February, 1474, Earl of Warwick in right of his mother, 58, 60.

Edward, Prince, ſon and heir to Richard III. knighted at York by his father, in the 1ſt year of his reign, with Edward, Earl of Warwick, 60.

Edward, Prince of Wales, Duke of Cornwall, Earl of Cheſter, ſon and heir to R. III. by his wife Anne (Nevill), born in Midlam Caſtle, 64.

Egcote, v. Edgecot.

Ele, daughter to Sir Wm. Longſpe, Earl of Saliſbury, and wife of Thomas, Earl of Warwick, ſhe is buried before the high altar of Oſney, gave 140 marks for the poor ſcholars of Oxford to borrow, on need, and called to this day "Warwick Voucher," for this the Univerſity every year ſolemnizes 2 maſſes for her, a great benefactreſs to the Colleges of Oxford, the Sepulchres of Warwick, Oſney, Godſtow, Reading, Laycock, &c. 36.

Eleanor, v. Alianore.

Elfleda, daughter of Alfred, dies at Tamworth, repaired Warwick Caſtle, and is buried at Glouceſter, at "St. Oſwald's by her lord Sir Ethelred," 11.

Eliſabeth, 3d daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, by his 1ſt wife, v. "Beauchamp," 53.

Elmley, Sir William Beauchamp, Baron of, q. v.

Elmley, William Beauchamp, Baron of, in right of his father, William de Beauchamp, and Earl of Warwick in right of his mother Iſabel, ſiſter of Sir. Wm. Maudut, Earl Warwick, 45.

Elmley, the College of, founded by Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 46.

Elmſey, William Beauchamp, Baron of, joins the Empreſs Maud againſt Stephen, and has grants from her, 14.

Eneas, ſon of a King and Queen, eldeſt of 7 born at a birth, an anceſtor of the Earls of Warwick, legend of him and his mother and her ſtepdame Mattabryn, and his arms, argent, a croſs croſſlet or, his brothers and ſiſters changed into ſwans, with collars and chains of gold, 18.

Eſſex, "the firſt and chief part of the Earldom of" belongs to William Beauchamp, (Earl of Warwick,) in right of his wife, 45.

Ethelrede, Sir, lord of Elfleda, the daughter of Alfred, 11.

Eton College, exchange of lands with, 54.

Eveſham, Abbey of, (King Gutheline,) 1; endowed by Wegeatus or Wayth the huued, with 2 lordſhips, viz. Willysford and Little Grafton, 24; Uſa the huued, or Huue the huued, confirms the gifts of his father Sir Wayth to, and bequeaths his body to be buried there, 25.

Eveſham, the Monks of, in St. Edward's and Ethelred's days were put out, and ſeculars put in, Dean and Canons, when Wolgeatus, ſon and heir of Huue the huued gets back from them for the term of his life the manors of Willysford and Grafton, 26.

Eveſham, Abbey of, Wygodus ſucceſſor to Wolgeatus, long withholds from them the lordſhips of Willysford and Grafton, but reſtores them at the inſtance of Abbot Ailwyn, temp. Edward the Confeſſor, 27.

Exchecquer, the Chamberlain of, by inheritance, William Maudut, Earl of Warwick and Baron of Hanſlape, v. "Maudut," 42.

Exeter, W. Biſhop of, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.

Exchecquer, the King's, William Beauchamp Chamberlain of, and Earl of Warwick in right of his mother Iſabel, ſiſter of William Maudert, Earl of Warwick, 45.

Exeter, Sir John Holland father to John, Duke of, 49.

Fair, granted to Warwick, 15.

Fairs, two granted to Warwick by Edward IV. at inſtigation of his brother, George, Duke of Clarence, but the Chancellor withſtood it, 16.

Fair, St. Bartholomew, v. "St. Bartholomew."

Farley Caſtle, near Bath, Margaret, daughter to George, Duke of Clarence, by Iſabel (Nevill), born at, 1473, 61.

Felys, Dame, daughter and heir to Earl Rohaud, for her beauty called "Fely la belle," Counteſs of Warwick by inheritance, and wife to Sir Guy; when he wooed her, made him endure many perils for her ſake; and ſoon after marriage he left her, ſhe remained true to him, and devoted her life to works of godlineſs, 20; does not recogniſe him when he comes as a pilgrim to Warwick, and maintains him as ſuch at Guycliffe, dies 14 days after him, and buried with him at Guycliffe; no one can move the bodies of her and her huſband Sir Guy from Guycliff, till his ſworn brother Sir Tyrry tranſlates them, 22.

Foderyngay, v. Fotheringay.
Fotheringay, Richard III. born at, 17.
France, Henry VI. crowned King of at Paris, by Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 50; John, King of, taken priſoner at Poictiers, 47; Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, Regent and King's Lieutenant of, 50; Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, made Lieutenant of under Ed. III. in the war time, 47.

Garnſey, v. Guernſey.
Gaveſton, Piers, Sir, a Gaſcoign playfellow to Edward II. baniſhed by E. I. recalled and made Earl of Cornwall by E. II. and made Lieutenant of England, while he was gone to fetch Iſabel, &c. taken and beheaded by Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick: he ſold out of England King Arthur's round table of ſilver, with the treſtyls: beheaded in the preſence of the Earls of Lancaſter, Warwick, Hereford, and Pembroke, 46.
Geffrey, Biſhop, (i. e. Geffry of Monmouth) cited, 2.
Geffrey, Monmouth, Biſhop of St. Aſaph, cited, 7.
Genches, Dame, ſiſter of St. Martin, born in Greece, married in England, and mother of St. Patrick, 21.
George, Duke of Clarence, v. "Clarence," 59.
Geraldus Cambrenſis, his Chronicle cited under name of Gerard Barre, 1.
Gervays, a Clerk, his book of the marvels of the world, made for the 4th Otho, Emperor of Rome, 8.
Giffard, v. Giffart.
Giffart, Sir Andrew, takes Warwick Caſtle by treaſon, to prevent its ſtrengthening the part of H. III. the Earl being on his ſide. He beat down the walls, and the Caſtle was afterwards only hedged till the days of Earl Thomas; takes William Maudut, Earl of Warwick, and his Counteſs Alice, priſoners to Kenilworth Caſtle, and ranſoms him for 1900 marks to "his people of valour," 42.
Gifford, v. Giffart.
Glouceſter, King Gwiderius buried at, 2; King Warremond buried at, 10; the heirs of the Earls of, the Caſtle of Briſtol aliened from by King John, they ſay that this lordſhip ſhould have belonged to the Earldom of Warwick, 35.
Glouceſter, Earl of, Gilbert de Clare, v. Clare.
Glouceſter, Robert, Earl of, baſtard brother of the Empreſs Maud, daughter of H. I. joins her againſt Stephen, and has grants of her, 14.
Glouceſter, Earldom of, Piers Gaveſton "made heir of the 3d part of, which part is the Duke of Buckingham's," by Edward II. 46.
Godfrey, Sir, of Boulogne, King of Jeruſalem, "the laſt of 9 worthies," father of Alice, the 2d wife of Henry I. 33.
Godreſt, the manor of, near Warwick, Margaret, eldeſt daughter to Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, born in, 51.
Godſtow, Ele, Counteſs of Warwick, a great benefactreſs to, 36.
Goodreſt, manor of, v. Godreſt, 51.
Goſcelyn, Sir, brother to Alice, the 2d wife of Henry I. who was daughter to Godfrey of Boulogne. He married Annes, younger daughter of Lord Percy, and heireſs to her ſiſter Maud, Counteſs of Warwick, 33.
Gowarland, v. Gowerland.
Gowere, lordſhip of, taken from Henry, Earl of Warwick, during his minority, by King John, 35.
Gowerland, in Wales, conquered by Henry Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, 30; kept "by the ſword" to him and his heirs till King John ſeized it, during the minority of Henry, Earl Walleran's ſon, 31; got by plea by Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, but his ſon loſt it again, 47.
Grafton, Little, and Willysford, held of the Caſtle of Warwick, and now belonging to the Hoſpitallers of the Temple of Balſale, Wegeatus or Wayth the huued endows the Abbey of Eveſham with them, 24; the lordſhips of, got back from the Monks of Eveſham by Wolgeatus for the term of his life, in the days of St. Edward and Ethelred, 26.
Grafton and Willysford, the manors of, long unjuſtly retained by Wygodus ſucceſſor to Wolgeatus, but reſtored to Eveſham by him at the inſtance of Abbot Ailwin, temp. Edward Confeſſor, 27.
Grey Friars of Worceſter, v. Worceſter.
Guernſey, &c. Sir Henry Beauchamp, K. G. Duke of Warwick, made by H. VI. Lord of the Iſles of, by exchange of land with Eton College, 54.
Guienne, John Talbot, Earl of Shrewſbury, ſlain in, 51.
Guines, Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, Captain of Calais, diſtinguiſhed in a tournament at, 50.
Guthelinus, (King Guthelyne) a "great builder" at Eveſham Abbey, and founder of Warwick borough, King of Great Britain, (England, Wales, and Scotland) temp. Alexander the Great, 1.

Index.

Guy, Sir, Earl of Warwick, flower of knighthood; ſon of Sir Seyward, Baron of Wallingford, and his lady Dame Sabyn, a Florentine; marries Dame Felys (Felys la belle) Counteſs of Warwick by inheritance, after much peril and long wooing impoſed on him by her, and leaves her ſoon after marriage, 20; always fought for the injured, and was therefore praiſed far and wide as the worthieſt knight living, 21; turned pilgrim; fought many battles; received by his wife as a pilgrim, unknown to her, and maintained as ſuch at Guycliff, by daily alms from the Caſtle; warned of his death by an angel, and his lady's death 14 days after him; both buried at Guycliff; no one able to remove their bodies from Guycliff, till his "ſworn brother" Sir Tyrry tranſlates them, 22; one of his heirs, it was foretold, would bring his relics to Guycliffe, 50.

Guycliff, the burial place of Sir Guy, Earl of Warwick and his wife, where "to this day" miraculous cures are effected, 22; maintained by "livery" from the Priory of St. Sepulchre's and alms from the Caſtle, and burgeſſes and devout people, till the time of Earl Thomas, at end of E. III.'s reign; maintained by yearly grants of proviſion from Earl Thomas, temp. E. III. and endowed by his ſon Richard; the hermitage of given to the Priory of Sepulchres, Warwick, as a cell, by Roger, Earl of Warwick, 32; Walleran, Earl of Warwick, confirms his father's gift of it to the Priory of St. Sepulchre's, Warwick, 34; the Earls of Warwick had given it to the Priory of Warwick, but Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, gets it, by change of livelihood to him and his heirs, and new built the manſion under the chapel, and named it Gycliff in remembrance of Sir Guy, 48; made a chantry of 2 prieſts by Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, that God might ſend him an heir male, at the inſtigation of Dame Em Rawghtone, an anchoreſs living at Allhallows, North Street, York; Our Lady foretells that it ſhould one day be a College of the Trinity, of Royal foundation, a reſort for cure of ſickneſs and grief, 50; Richard Nevill, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, purpoſed to endow it with more prieſts, to vault and buttreſs Sir Guy's Cave, to paint Sir Guy's Image, and, in remembrance of Sir Guy, to found there an eſtabliſhment for poor gentlemen, like that of St. Croſs, Winchester, 57; called Gibcliffe or "Gybcliffe" in moſt of the early notes, q. v.

Gwale, Sir, the Pope's Legate, 38.

Gwayr, a prince of the blood royal, and couſin to King Arthur, ſpent much on Warwick, and named it Carewayr; legend of a giant attacking him, or one of his ſucceſſors, with the rough branch of a tree, whence he and his heirs bore in their arms a ragged ſtaff argent in a field ſable, 5.

Gwidard, King, i. e. Gwiderius, q. v.

Gwiderius, King Gwidard, began to reign 4 years after birth of Chriſt, and reigned 43 years; "a great builder and repairer of Warwick; ſlain by a Roman ſoldier of the Emperor Claudius; buried at Glouceſter, 2.

Gyan, v. Guienne.

Gybclif, i. e. Guycliff, q. v.

Gybclyf, v. Guycliff.

Gycliff, v. Guycliff.

Gyldas, Maſter, cited, 1.

Gynes, i. e. Guines, q. v.

Hampſlape, v. Hanſlape.

Hamſlape, v. Hanſlape.

Haniſlape, v. Hanſlape.

Hanley, by Worceſter, Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, dies at, 9 June, 1446, 54.

Hanſlape, William Maudut, Baron of, joins the Empreſs Maud againſt Stephen, and has grants from her, 14.

Hanſlape, Sir William Maudut, Baron of, marries Alice, daughter of Walleran, Earl of Warwick, 34. 40.

Hanſlape, William Maudut, Baron of, and Chamberlain of the Exchequer in his father's right, and in his mother's, Earl of Warwick, temp. H. III. he always held to the King's ſide, 42.

Hanſlape, William Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, Baron of, and Earl of Warwick in right of his mother Iſabel, ſiſter of William Maudut, Earl of Warwick, 45.

Harcourt, Dame Alice, 3d wife to Walleran, Earl of Warwick, v. etiam Alice, 34.

Harcowt, v. Harcourt.

Hardyng, John, his Chronicle cited in his rehearſal of the names of the Knights of the Round Table, 7.

Harford, i. e. Hereford, q. v.

Headington, v. Hedingdon.

Heathen land, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, fights in, 3 years, and is diſtinguiſhed there, and brings home priſoner the King's ſon of Lettow, i. e. Lithuania, 47.

Index.

Hedingdon, Sir Thomas Baſſet Baron of, q. v.
Hedington, v. Hedingdon.
Henricus, a Norman, couſin to St. Edward and the Conqueror, in whoſe houſehold he was brought up with Henry Beauclerk, the King's youngeſt ſon, whom he aids in getting the Crown; by right of his wife Margaret, made Earl of Warwick by the Conqueror, 31.
Henry Beauclerk, his exaltation to the Crown aided by Henry, Earl of Warwick, his playfellow, a juſt King, and reliever of long oppreſſions, 31.
Henry I. his 2d wife was Alice, daughter of Godfrey of Boulogne, 33.
Henry II. father of Sir William Longſpe, Earl of Saliſbury, 36.
Henry III. granted privileges to Sir John Pleſſy, Earl of Warwick, 15; being with his great Council at Warwick, has Kenilworth Caſtle delivered up to him, held a Council at Warwick to ſettle a peace, this Council choſe Lords Spiritual and Temporal, who retired to Coventry to prepare the terms, and then returned to Warwick, where Octobonus the Legate proclaimed the terms in St. Mary's Church, 42.
Henry V. granted privileges to Sir Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 15.
Henry VI. Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, guardian to, 50.
Henry (Newburgh), Earl of Warwick, conquers Swanſey and all Gower Land and held it "by the ſword," to him and his heirs, till King John ſeized it, in the minority of Henry, Earl Walleran's ſon; founds the Priory of Sepulchres at Warwick, and benefactor to the college of All-Hallows in the Caſtle, and that of our Lady in the Town; founds at Warmyngton in Warwickſhire, a cell of French Monks to the houſe of Preaus in Normandy; dies 20 June, 1123, and is buried at Preaus by Pont Odimere, in Normandy, 31.
Henry, ſon of Walleran, Earl of Warwick; in his minority King John ſeizes from the Earls Gowerland, which had been conquered by Henry Newburgh, 31.
Henry, ſon and heir of Walleran, Earl of Warwick, 34; in his minority, King John took the Lordſhip of Gowere from him, and aliened the Caſtle of Briſtol from the heirs of the Earls of Glouceſter, which Lordſhip ſome ſay ſhould have belonged to the Earls of Warwick; ſides with King John in his wars with the Barons, notwithſtanding his ill treatment; marries 1ſt, Dame Margery, ſiſter and heir of Sir Henry Oyly; 2d, Dame Philippa Baſſet, daughter to Sir Thomas Baſſet, Baron of Hedingdon, 35.
Hereford, Humphrey, Earl of, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.
Hereford, Margaret, daughter of the Earl of, 1ſt wife to Walleran, Earl of Warwick, 34.
Hereford, the Earl of, preſent at the beheading of Piers Gaveſton, 46.
Herefordſhire, St. Craddok a mighty Prince in, 3.
Herford, v. Hereford.
Herod, Sir, of Ardern, (tutor and guardian) "mayſter and gydar" to Sir Raynbrowne, Earl of Warwick, in his youth, who is ſtolen from him by Ruſſian ſailors, and he travels far to find him, 23.
Herowd, Sir, of Arden, v. "Sir Herod."
Holand, v. Holland.
Holland, Sir John, Earl of Huntingdon, and father to John, Duke of Exeter, 49.
Holland, Thomas, Earl of Kent, Surry, and Warren, and Duke of Surrey, K. G.; the forfeited eſtates of Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, given to him, but the Earl of Warwick is reſtored in 2 years, 48; alſo Earl of Warwick, and Marſhal of England for 2 years, by gift of Richard II. while this Thomas Beauchamp Earl of Warwick was baniſhed; by his mother, half-brother to R. II. had a brother, Sir John Holland, who was Earl of Huntingdon, and father to John, Duke of Exeter; a benefactor to Warwick College; and Earl Thomas Beauchamp, on his reſtoration, confirms his acts thereto; beheaded at Cirenceſter by the Commons, and for want of heir male his lands were divided among his ſiſters, 49.
Hubert, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Chancellor of England; Walleran, Earl of Warwick, for the term of his own life, grants to him the collation of all the prebends of the College of Warwick, 34.
Huntingdon, Sir John Holland Earl of, 49.
Huue the huued, or Uſa the huued, q. v.

Ireland, converted by St. Patrick, the ſon of Dame Genches, a Greek, ſiſter of St. Martin, and married in England, 21; King's Lieutenant of, George, Duke of Clarence, brother to E. IV. 59.
Iſabella, ſiſter to Sir Wm. Maudut, Earl of Warwick, wife to Sir Wm. Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, buried in the Priory of White Nuns of Coleſhill, between Warwick and Worceſter, 43.

Index.

Iſabell, daughter of the King of France, wife of Edward II. 46.

Iſlep, near Oxford, Edward the Confeſſor born at, 12.

Jeruſalem, Godfrey of Boulogne King of, v. Godfrey.

Jeruſalem, the Patriarch of, writes a "full ſtirring letter" to William, Earl of Warwick, and perſuades him to be "a good lord" to the houſe of Sepulchres, Warwick, to which he had been a "heavy lord," 33.

Jews, the, baniſhed out of England in the time of William Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, who died 1298, 45.

Jocelyn, v. Goſcelyn.

Johannes, Rex, v. John.

Johannes, Mareſcallus, in right of his wife Earl of Warwick, brother to Sir William, Marſhal of England, Earl of Pembroke, 1ſt huſband of Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, he died ſ. p. 1245, 38.

Johannes de Pleſſetis, 2d huſband to Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, in her right Earl of Warwick, born in Poitou, treacherouſly impriſoned at Poicters, ob. 26 Feb. 1265, and buried at Miſſenden, "in the houſe of Chanons," 39.

John, King, grants privileges to Lord Tony and his heirs the Earls of Warwick; buried at Worceſter, 15; ſeizes Gowerland from the Earls of Warwick, in the minority of Henry ſon of Earl Walleran, 31; at his Coronation, Walleran, Earl of Warwick, bears a ſword at his right hand, as for homage for the Earldom of Warwick, 34; takes the lordſhip of Gowere from Henry, Earl of Warwick, in his minority, and aliens the Caſtle of Briſtol from the heirs of the Earls of Glouceſter, which Lordſhip, they ſay, ought to have belonged to the Earldom of Warwick, 35.

John, King of France, taken priſoner at Poitiers, 47.

Kateryner, v. Catherine, q. v.

Kenelworth, v. Kenilworth.

Kenelyn, i. e. Guthelin, King, 1.

Kenilworth Caſtle, the Earl and Counteſs of Warwick taken priſoners to, by Sir Andrew Giffart, and ranſomed for 1900 marks to his "people of valour;" ſtory of a game of Cheſs played at, between Alice, Counteſs of Warwick, and Sir Richard Moundvile, Kt. t. H. III.; yielded up to H. III. then with his great Council at Warwick, 42.

Kenilworth, the houſe of, Roger, Earl of Warwick, a benefactor to, 32; Sir Thomas Warmynton Prior of, t. E. III. 47.

Kent, Earl of, Thomas Holland, q. v.

Killyngworth, v. Kenilworth.

Kings, the, of different diviſions of England, couſins to one another, 11.

Kyllyngworth Caſtle, i. e. Kenilworth, q. v.

Kyrtlyng, William Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, Lord of, in right of his wife, 45; Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, Lord of through his mother Maud or Mold, 46.

Lacok, v. Laycock.

Lady, Our, the College of, in Warwick, Henry (Newburgh), Earl of Warwick, a great benefactor to. He intended, had he lived, to have united it with that of All-hallows in the Caſtle, 31.

Lancaſter, Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, made High Steward of, by H. VI. 54; High Steward of the Duchy of, Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 57; St. Thomas of, preſent at the beheading of Piers Gaveſton, 46; godfather to Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 47.

Landaff, St. Daniell, Treaſurer of, 2; St. Deuroik, alias Dubricius, 1ſt Biſhop of, 6; Dubricius, alias St. Deuroik, enſhrined in, 6; St. Theleaws, 2d Biſhop of, ſucceſſor to Dubricius, alias Deuroik, who is tranſlated to Archbiſhoprick of Caerleon, 6.

Landef, i. e. Landaff, q. v.

Langenithe, in Wales, Roger, Earl of Warwick, founds a Priory at, and makes it a cell to St. Tauryns in Normandy, 32.

Langley, Edmund, Duke of York, ſon of E. III. father of Conſtance, the grandmother of Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, 55.

Lanmadok, in Gowerland in Wales, a Hoſpital of Templars founded at, by Margaret, daughter and heir of Thurkildus of Warwick, and wife of Henry Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, 30.

Latimer, Catherina, daughter to Lord Latimer, by his wife Eliſabeth, (daughter of Rd. Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick,) her 1ſt huſband was Sir Oliver Dudley, ſon to the Baron of Dudley, her 2d huſband was Sir James of Rudclyf, 53.

Latimer, Eliſabeth, Lady, wife of Lord Latimer, and 3d daughter to Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, her "reſon" was "tyl my lyves ende," 53.

Latimer, Sir Harry, ſon of Lord Latimer, by his wife Eliſabeth, daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, he was ſlain at Egcote-field, and buried at Warwick, 53.
Latymere, Lord, and Sir Henry, v. Latimer, 53.
Laycock, Ele, Counteſs of Warwick, a great benefactreſs to, 36.
Leamington, an apparent alluſion to the medicinal waters of, in ancient times, 8.
Lear, King, the builder of Leiceſter, buried in the water of Sowre, by Leiceſter, 9.
Lecettur, i. e. Leiceſter, q. v.
Legend, concerning Eneas and his mother, and her ſtep-dame Dame Mattabryn, 18.
Legends, concerning Guy, Earl of Warwick, and his wife, 20. 22; concerning Raiburnus, i. e. Sir Raynbrowne, Earl of Warwick, 23.
Leiceſter, King Lear built it, and is buried in the water of "Sowre," near it, 9.
Leiceſter, Earl of, Sir Robert, elder ſon of Sir Roger Beaumont, made Earl of Leiceſter, 13.
Leiceſterſhire, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, made Sheriff of for life by the King, 47.
Lemyn, River of, ſometimes overflows the ſalt ſprings near Warwick, 8.
Lettow, (i. e. Lithuania,) the ſon of the King of, brought priſoner to England by Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and chriſtened by him, and named Thomas, in London, 47.
Leuerych, the Duke and Earl of, founded the Priory of Coventry, his ſiſter was wife of Wygodus, Lord of Warwick, 27.
Leycetter, v. Leiceſter.
Leyor, King, i. e. Lear, q. v.
Lieutenant of England, Piers Gaveſton made by Edward II. 46.
Liſle, Lady, Eliſabeth Berkeley, daughter of Lord Berkeley, Lady Liſle in right of her mother, which Eliſabeth was 1ſt wife of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 51.
Lithuania, the King of, v. Lettow.
Little Britain, Conſtantinus brother to King of, 4.
Little Grafton, v. Grafton.
Little John, v. Robin Hood, 46.
Locryne, eldeſt ſon of King Brute, has aſſigned him by his father the part of England between Trent and the South Sea, called Loygre, 1.
Longſpe, Ele, daughter of Sir William, Earl of Saliſbury, and wife to Thomas, Earl of Warwick, 36.
Longſpe, Sir William, Earl of Saliſbury, and ſon to H. II. father of Ele, Counteſs of Warwick, 36.
Loygre, i. e. that part of England which lies between Trent and the South Sea, given by King Brute to his eldeſt ſon, Locryne, 1.
Lyle, Lady, v. Liſle.
Lytyl Brytayn, v. Little Britain.

Malmeſbury, William of, cited, 28.
Mantua, Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, diſtinguiſhed in juſting at, 50.
Marches, the North, Warden of, Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 57.
Mareſcallus, Johannes, in right of his wife, Earl of Warwick, being 1ſt huſband to Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, he was brother to Sir William, Marſhal of England, Earl of Pembroke, 38.
Mareſchal, v. Marſhal or Mareſcallus.
Margaret, daughter and heir to Thurkildus of Warwick, and ſiſter to Sir Rotrode, Earl of Perch, founds a place of Templars at Lanmadok in Gowerland, in Wales, the country conquered by her lord, Harry Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, 30.
Margaret Beauchamp, daughter of Richard, Earl of Warwick, v. Beauchamp, 51.
Margaret, daughter of George, Duke of Clarence, by Iſabel (Nevill), born at Farley Caſtle, near Bath, 1473, 58, 61.
Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, ſiſter and heir to Thomas, Earl of Warwick. In her widowhood, ſhe gave to the poor community of Warwick the common ground called "the Claypitts;" a great benefactreſs to the Hoſpital of St. Michel's, Warwick, and giving them freedom to hold their Courts according to the form of Common Law, had 2 lords for her huſbands, viz. Johannes Mareſcallus, brother to Sir William, Marſhal of England, Earl of Pembroke, and Johannes de Pleſſatis; ſhe died ſ. p. 37.
Marian's Chronicle, cited, 11.
Markyate, the Priory of the Nuns of, 46.
Marſhal, Sir William, Earl of Pembroke and of Strogoyle, guardian to King H. III. by ordinance of the Lords confirmed by Sir Gwale, the Pope's Legate, 38.
Marſhal of England, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, made Marſhal of England by the King's gift for life, 47.
Marſhall, v. Mareſcallus.
Marthrudus, Earl of Warwyck, in the Britons or Welſhman's days, 9.
Mattabryn, Dame, ſtepdame of the mother of Eneas, legend of them, 18.

Maud, Counteſs of Warwick, 1ſt wife of William, Earl of, 33.
Maud, Dame, 2d wife of Walleran, Earl of Warwick, 34.
Maudut, the manor of Walton Maudut, by Warwick, given with the marriage of Sir William Maudut, Baron of Hanſlape, to Alice, daughter of Walleran, Earl of Warwick, 34.
Maudut, Iſabel, daughter of William Maudut, Baron of Hanſlape, ſiſter to Sir William, Earl of Warwick, and wife to Sir William Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, buried in the Priory of White Nuns of Coleſhill, between Warwick and Worceſter, 41. 43.
Maudut, William, Baron of Hamſlape, joins the Empreſs Maud againſt Stephen, and has grants from her, 14.
Maudut, Sir William, Baron of Hanſlape, had Walton Maudut with his wife Alicia, daughter to Wallerand, and ſiſter to Henry, Earls of Warwick; by her he had 2 children, viz. Sir William Maudut, Earl of Warwick, and Iſabel, wife to Sir Wm. Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley; he died 1218, 34. 40. 41.
Maudut, William, ſon of William Maudut, by right of his mother Earl of Warwick, and by his father, Baron of Hamſlape and Chamberlain of the Exchequer; with his Counteſs Alice taken priſoner to Kenilworth Caſtle by Sir Andrew Giffart, and ranſomed at 1900 marks, 42.
Maundville, v. Moundvile.
Mawde, Empreſs of Rome, and Counteſs of Aungey, (Anjou) daughter and heir to H. I. enters England with her followers, and grants privileges, 14.
Menew, now called St. David's, St. Davyd, Archbiſhop of, transfers the ſee to it, from Caerleon, 6.
Mercia, Kings of, held Warwick in their own hands, 19.
Midlam, Richard Nevil, Lord of, alſo Earl of Saliſbury, and Earl of Warwick, 57.
Midlam Caſtle, Edward, Prince of Wales, ſon and heir of R. III. born in, 64.
Miſſenden, Bucks, the houſe of Chanons there, Johannes de Pleſſetis, Earl of Warwick, buried in, 1265, 39.
Mold, v. Maud.
Morvidius, Earl of Caerware, alias Warwick, 8.
Mottoes, called "Reſons," i. e. "Reaſons," ſee the inſtances below. Margaret, eldeſt daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and wife of John Talbot, Earl of Shrewſbury, "til deth departe," 51; Alianore, Ducheſs of Somerſet, wife of Edmund, Duke of Somerſet, 2d daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, "never new," 52; Eliſabeth, wife of Lord Latimer, and 3d daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, "tyl my lyues ende," 53; Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, "Deſeruyng cauſyt," 54; Anne Beauchamp, daughter of Earl Richard, ſiſter of Henry, Duke of Warwick, in her own right Counteſs of Warwick, wife of Richard, Earl of Saliſbury, "And euer ſhall," 56.
Moundvile, Sir Richard, Kt. ſtory of a game of Cheſs played by him at Kenilworth Caſtle, with Alice, Counteſs of Warwick, t. H. III. 42.
Murder Stones, abundance of, about Warwick, where the great ſlaughter was made by the Danes 1016, 26.

"Narthe" or "Arth" in Welſh means "a bear," 7.
Neeuel, v. Nevil.
Neuburgh, William Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, Baron of, and Earl of Warwick in right of his mother, 45.
Neuburgh, i. e. Newburgh, q. v.
Nevil, Anne, wife to Richard, Earl of Saliſbury; Counteſs of Warwick in her own right, 56.
Nevill, Anne, younger daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, wife to R. III. 57.
Nevill, Iſabell, eldeſt daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick, by his wife Anne, and wife to George, Duke of Clarence, born in Warwick Caſtle 5 Sept. 1451, and died there, 22 December, is buried at Tewkſbury, 58.
Nevil, Sir Richard, ſon and heir to Richard, Earl of Saliſbury, marries Anne Beauchamp, ſiſter and heir of Henry, Duke of Warwick, 56; Earl of Saliſbury, by his father and mother, and Lord of Midlam; Earl of Warwick by his wife Anne Beauchamp; Great Chamberlain of England, High Steward of the Duchy of Lancaſter, Warden of the North Marches, and of the 5 ports, Admiral of England, Captain and King's Lieutenant of Calais; recovers the forfeited eſtates of the Earls of Saliſbury, with which St. Croſs, Wincheſter, had been endowed; had 2 daughters, Iſabel, the eldeſt Ducheſs of Clarence, Anne, the younger, wife to Richard III. born St. Cecilia's day, 1428, died 14 April, 1471, bequeaths his body to be buried at Warwick, but it was buried at Byrſham on Thames, i. e. Biſham, near Marlow, 57.

Newburgh, Sir Harry, 2d ſon of Sir Roger Beaumont, made Earl of Newburgh in Normandy, and Earl of Warwick in England, with a grant of the borough of Warwick with privileges, by William the Conqueror, but no record remaining of the grant, 13. 19.

Newburgh, Rogerus, Earl of Warwick, v. "Rogerus."

New Foreſt, made by William the Conqueror, by deſtroying towns and churches, and Rows's reflections on ſuch acts; the different inſtances of God's vengeance on the Conqueror for making it, in Richard his ſon, Richard ſon of Robert, Duke of Normandy, and William Rufus, 30.

Nicholas, Pope, invites Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, to be Captain of his Wars, 54.

Normans, the, dwell in royal buildings with great ſcarcity, while the Engliſh live in ſmall places with great plenty, 28.

North Marches, Warden of, Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 57.

Octobonus, Sir, the Legate, afterwards Pope Adrian V. proclaims in St. Mary's Church, Warwick, the terms agreed upon by the Commiſſioners of H. III. and Council for ſettling a peace, 42.

Oſney Abbey, and St. George's Church in Oxford Caſtle, founded by an anceſtor of Sir Henry Oyly and annexed together by him. There is now a chapel of St. George in it, 35. "ther ar found by the place of Oſney a certen of Scholars that of tym grow to gret worſhup," 35; Ele, Counteſs of Warwick, a great benefactreſs to; Ele, Counteſs of Warwick, and daughter of Longſpee, Earl of Saliſbury, buried before the high altar of, 36.

Otho IV. Emperor of Rome, Gervus, a clerk, makes for him a book of the Marvels of the World, 8.

Oxford Caſtle, built by an anceſtor of Sir Henry Oyly, v. St. George's Church and Oſney Abbey, 35.

Oxford, the poor ſcholars of, the Counteſs of Warwick gave 140 marks for their uſe, to borrow, on need, called "Warwick Voucher." The Univerſity ſolemnizes every year 2 maſſes for her; the Colleges of, Ele, Counteſs of a great benefactreſs to, 36.

Oxford Univerſity, founded by Alfred, 11; library of, Peter's "Reductorium Morale" in, 8.

Oyley, Sir Henry, his anceſtor built Oxford Caſtle, and founded St. George's Church in it, and Oſney Abbey, and annexed them together, 35.

Oyly, Margery, ſiſter and heir of Sir Henry, and wife to Henry, Earl of Warwick, 35.

Panterer, at the King's Coronation, William Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley and Earl of Warwick, 45.

Pembroke and Strogoyle, Sir William Marſhal, Earl of, guardian to King H. III. by ordinance of the Lords, confirmed by Sir Gwale, the Pope's Legate, 38.

Pembroke, Earl of, preſent at the beheading of Piers Gaveſton, 46.

Perch, Sir Rotrode, Earl of, "a valiant knight at the winning of Jeruſalem," 30.

Perche the Counteſs, wife of Thurkildus of Warwick, by the Conqueror's commands, 29.

Percy, Annes, daughter of Lord Percy, heir to her elder ſiſter Maud, Counteſs of Warwick; ſhe was wife to Sir Goſcelyn, (who was brother to Alice, the 2d wife of H. I. and daughter to Godfrey of Boulogne). 33.

Percy, Lord, father of Maud, wife of William, Earl of Warwick, and Annes wife of Sir Goſcelyn, the brother of King H. I.'s Queen, 33.

Percy, Maud, eldeſt daughter and heir of the Lord Percy, and 1ſt wife of William, Earl of Warwick, which Earl died 1184, 33.

Percy, Philippa, wife of Sir William, of Yorkſhire, and widow of Henry, Earl of Warwick, and daughter to Sir Thomas Baſſet, Baron of Hedingdon, 35.

Percy, Sir William, of Yorkſhire, marries Philippa, daughter of Sir Thomas Baſſet, Baron of Hedingdon, and widow of Henry, Earl of Warwick, 35.

Pers, v. Piers Gaveſton.

Peyto, i. e. Poitou, q. v.

Peytres, v. Poitiers.

Piers Gaveſton, v. Gaveſton.

Pleſſetis, de, Johannes, 2d huſband to Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, in her right Earl of Warwick, born in Poitou, treacherouſly impriſoned at Poictiers, ob. Feb. 29, 1265, ſ. p. buried at Miſſenden, Bucks, "in the houſe of Chanons." 39.

Pleſſy, Sir John, Earl of Warwick, Henry III. granted privileges to, 15.

Poitiers, Johannes de Pleſſetis and Sir Gilbert Segrave treacherouſly impriſoned at, 39.

Index.

Poitiers, battle of, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, diſtinguiſhed at; John, King of France, taken priſoner at, 47.

Pole, Sir William, Duke, Marquis, and Earl of Suffolk, guardian to Anne, daughter and heir of Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, 55.

Pont Odimere, in Normandy, v. "Preaus."

Powis, Land, 3; mentioned, 6.

Powys, Lord, 2d ſon of William de Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, by Iſabel Maudut, ſiſter of Wm. Maudut, Earl of Warwick, "to his field of gules and a bar, or, were put by his wife 6 mullets, or," 44.

Preaus, by Pont Odimere in Normandy, Henry, Earl of Warwick, buried at, 1123; a cell of French Monks to the Houſe of, founded at Warmington in Warwickſhire, by Henry Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, 31.

Radclyf, Catherine, wife of Sir James, and daughter of Lord Latimer, 53.

Radclyf, Sir James of, 2d huſband of Catherine, daughter of Lord Latimer, 53.

Ragged Staff, borne by the Earls of Warwick, origin of, 5.

Raiburnus, Sir Raynbrowne, Earl of Warwick, ſon and heir of Sir Guy, by Dame "Felyz la belle," ſtolen from his Tutor in youth by Ruſſian ſailors, and ſold to a heathen King, on his return to England is welcomed by King Athelſtan, receives his lands, and marries the King's daughter; dies on the way to the Holy Land, and buried at Venice; legends concerning, 23.

Rawghtone, Em, Dame, an anchoreſs dwelling at Allhallows, North Street, York, inſtigates Rd. Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, to found a chantry of 2 Prieſts at Guycliffe, that God might ſend him an heir male, 50.

Raynbrown, Sir, fights with Sir Herod of Ardern's ſon, 23.

Raynbrown's Life, the Romance of, cited, 23.

Raynbrowne, Sir, Earl of Warwick, i. e. Raiburnus, q. v.

Reading, Ele, Counteſs of Warwick, a great benefactreſs to, 36; Anne, daughter and heir of Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, buried by her great grandmother, Conſtance, the daughter of Edmund Langley, Duke of York, before the high altar at, 55.

Reaſon, v. "Motto."

Reſon, v. "Motto."

Richard, the ſon of the Conqueror, "miſchevid" in the New Foreſt, a proof of God's vengeance for the making it, 30.

Richard, ſon of George, Duke of Clarence, by his wife Iſabel (Nevill), born at Tewkſbury, dies in quarter of a year, and buried at Warwick, 58.

Richard I. Cœur de Lion, born at Oxford, 34.

Richard II. half brother to Thomas, Earl of Holland, on whom he beſtows many grants, v. Holland, 49.

Richard III. born at Fotheringay, benefactor to Warwick, and repaired the Caſtle where his wife was born, 17; marries Anne, youngeſt daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick and Saliſbury, and widow of Prince Edward, the ſon and heir of H. VI. 57. 62; knights at York, in the 1ſt year of his reign, Edward, Earl of Warwick, ſon to George, Duke of Clarence, with his own ſon and heir, Prince Edward, 60; King of England, his praiſes, 63.

Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, v. Beauchamp.

Richard, Earl of Warwick, ſon of Thomas, endowed Guycliffe, and made it a chantry of 2 Prieſts, 32.

Richmond, Edmund, Earl of, next brother to E. IV. ob. ſ. p. 59.

Roan, i. e. Rouen, Edward IV. born at, 16.

Roaon, v. Rouen.

Robin Hood and Little John and their fellows, "if any ſuch were" lived in time of Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, who died 1315, "but no chronicler writes of them," 46.

Roger, Earl of Warwick, died 12 June, 1153, 24.

Rogerus, Earl of Warwick and of Newburgh, ſon of Henry, often goes to Holy Land, fulfils his father's intention of uniting the Colleges of Allhallow and St. Mary in Warwick, 32.

Roger, Earl of Warwick and Newburgh, builds St. Michel's ſpital houſe for lepers, in the North ſuburbs, and 1 place of Templars beyond the bridge, having the privileges of St. John's Clerkenwell; founds a Priory in Wales, at Langenithe, and made it a cell to St. Tauryns in Normandy; a benefactor to the Houſe of Kenilworth, 32.

Rohaudus, Earl of Warwick, of the Dutch Saxon blood, aſſumes the croſſcroſſlets in his arms, in token of the legend of his anceſtor Eneas, q. v. 19.

Romance of Sir Raynbrowne's life, cited, 23.

Rotrode, Sir, Earl of Perch, 30.

Rouen, Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, dies at, while Regent and Lieutenant of France, 50.

Round Table, Arthur's, the Knights of, their names recited by Jno. Hardyng in his Chronicle, cited, 7.
Round Table, v. Arthur.
Ruſſia, v. Ruſſy.
Ruſſy, mariners of, ſteal Sir Raynbrowne, Earl of Warwick, from his Tutor, and ſell him to a heathen King, 23.

Sabyn, Dame, a Florentine, wife of Sir Seyward, Baron of Walingford, and mother of Sir Guy, Earl of Warwick, 21.
St. Alban's, the book of the acts of the Abbots of, cited, 10; Edmund, Duke of Somerſet, ſlain at, 52.
St. Aſaph, Geffry Monmouth, Biſhop of, cited, 7.
St. Bartholomew, fair purchaſed for Warwick by Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 50.
St. Croſs, near Wincheſter, founded by Cardinal Beaufort, Biſhop of Wincheſter, brother to H. IV. and endowed with the forfeited eſtates of the Earl of Saliſbury, ſlain at Cirenceſter with the Duke of Surry, which eſtates Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick and Saliſbury, recovers, 57; an eſtabliſhment for poor gentlemen like it, purpoſed to be founded at Guycliffe, by Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick and Saliſbury, who had recovered the forfeited eſtates of the Earl of Saliſbury, with which St. Croſs was endowed, 57.
St. David's, formerly called Menew. The ſee of Caerleon transferred to it by St. Davyd, from Caerleon, 6.
St. David's, R. Biſhop of, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace, at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.
St. Davyd, Archbiſhop of Caerleon, transfers the ſee of Caerleon to Menew, now called St. David's; made Archbiſhop of Caerleon on reſignation of St. Deuroik, alias Dubricius, 6.
St. George's Chapel, v. Oſney Abbey.
St. George's Church, in Oxford Caſtle, and Oſney Abbey, founded by an anceſtor of Sir Henry Oyly, and annexed together by him, there is now the Chapel of St. George in Oſney Abbey, 35.
St. Giles, the Priory of, 46.
St. Guy, v. Guy.
St. Johani's, v. St. John's.
St. John Baptiſt, Church of, in the market at Warwick, built by St. Craddok, formerly called the Monaſtery of St. John Baptiſt, 3.
St. John's, Clerkenwell, the privileges of, granted to the Hoſpital of Templars at Warwick, 32.
St. John's in the Eaſt ſuburbs, Warwick, founded by Earl Wm. temp. H. II. and dedicated to St. John and St. Thomas, different from St. John's Church in the market, 3. 33.
St. Martin, his ſiſter, Dame Genches, a Greek, was married in England, and mother of St. Patrick, 21.
St. Mary, the College of in Warwick, Henry Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, a great benefactor to. Had he lived, he intended to have united it with that of Allhallows in the Caſtle, 31; united with that of Allhallows in the Caſtle, by Roger, Earl of Warwick and Newburgh, according to the intention of his father Henry, 32.
St. Michel's, the ſpital houſe for lepers in the North ſuburbs of Warwick, founded by Roger Earl of Warwick, 32; the hoſpital of, Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, a great benefactreſs to, ſhe gave them freedom to hold their courts according to form of Common Law, 37.
St. Nicholas, in Warwick, an Abbey of Black Nuns at, burned by the Danes in days of Ethelred, A. D. 1016, between 1ſt and 6th of January. Its quire is ſtill the quire of the pariſh Church, of St. Nicholas, 26.
St. Nicholas, Warwick, on the North ſide of the quire of, dwelt a holy Anchoreſs, in days of Henry, Earl of Warwick, 35.
St. Oſwald's, at Glouceſter, Elfleda, daughter of Alfred, buried at, 11.
St. Patrick, who converted Ireland, was ſon of Dame Genches, a Greek, 21.
St. Paul's, Margaret, wife of John Talbot, Earl of Shrewſbury, buried under the quire of, 51.
St. Sampſon, flies into Little Britain, and there made Biſhop of Dole, afterwards Archbiſhop of York, conſecrated to all his orders by St. Deuroik, alias Dubricius, Biſhop of Cayrgwayre, 6.
St. Sepulchres, Priory of, at Warwick, and head houſe of the order in England, founded by Henry (Newburgh), Earl of Warwick, 31; the hermitage of Guycliffe given to, as a cell, by Roger, Earl of Warwick, and confirmed by his ſon Walleran, 32; Walleran, Earl of Warwick, confirms his father's gift of Guycliffe to, 34; William, Earl of Warwick, a "heavy lord" to, but, on interference of the patriarch of Jeruſalem, became a "good lord" to them, 33; Ele, Counteſs of Warwick, a great benefactreſs to, 36.

St. Tauryn's, in Normandy, a cell to, founded at Langenithe in Wales, by Roger, Earl of Warwick, 32.
St. Thomas, of Lancaſter, godfather to Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 47.
St. Thomas, of Lancaſter, v. Lancaſter.
Saliſbury, Earl of, v. Longſpee.
Saliſbury, the Earl of, ſlain at Cirenceſter with the Duke of Savoy, his forfeited eſtates given to endow St. Croſs, Wincheſter, but recovered afterwards by Richard Nevill, Earl of Saliſbury and Warwick, 47.
Saliſbury, Earl of, Cecil the daughter of, married to Henry Beauchamp, 54.
Saliſbury, Sir Richard Nevil, Earl of, and in right of his wife Earl of Warwick, 56.
Saliſbury, Sir Richard Nevil, ſon and heir to Richard, Earl of Saliſbury, marries Anne Beauchamp, daughter of Richard Earl of Warwick, ſiſter and heir to Henry Duke of Warwick, in her own right Counteſs of Warwick, 56.
Saliſbury, Old, built by St. Craddok, but begun by Julius Cæſar, 3.
Saliſbury, its 1ſt name, Ceſarſbury, its 2nd name, Cayrcraddok, its 3d name, Saliſbury, 3.
Salt Wells, wonderful ones formerly in Warwick, mentioned by G. Gervas, v. "Saltysford," "Wells," "Warwick." 8.
Salt Well, a, there is one little more than a mile from Warwick, where probably were the Salt Wells mentioned by Gervas, 8.
Saltysford, a ſtreet ſo called in Warwick, 8.
Schoolhouſe, the, in the market at Warwick, formerly the Church of St. John Baptiſt, q. v.
Scotland, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, made Lieutenant of, under Edward Baliol, 47.
Segrave, Sir Gilbert, treacherouſly impriſoned at Poictiers, 39.
Sens, the Archbiſhop of, made priſoner by Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 47.
Severn, the part of England between it and the Weſt Sea, given by King Brute to his 2d ſon, Camber, and called Cambria, now Walys, 1; Iſle of Stepholm in, 6.
Sewerne, i. e. Severn, q. v.
Seyward, Sir, Baron of Wallingford, and his wife Sabyn, a Florentine, father and mother of Sir Guy, Earl of Warwick, 21.
Shrewſbury, John Talbot, Earl of, marries in Warwick Caſtle, Margaret, eldeſt daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 51.
Shrewſbury, Margaret, Counteſs of, wife of Sir John Talbot, Earl of, 51; any ſwearing or blaſphemy in her houſe puniſhed; her motto was, "Till death depart," 51.
Shuldham, v. Suldham.
Siſſetter, i. e. Cirenceſter, q. v.
Somerſet, Alianore, Ducheſs of, wife to Edmund, Duke of, and 2d daughter by his 1ſt wife to Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, born at Walthamſtow, dies in her palace at Baynard Caſtle, London, 7 March, 1467; her "reſon" was "Never new," 52.
Somerſet, Sir Edmund, Duke of, ſlain at St. Albans, huſband of Alianore, daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 52.
Somery, Robert, one of the Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.
Souch, i. e. Zouch, q. v.
South Wales, Gowerland in, q. v.
Sowre, the water of, near Leiceſter, King Lear buried in, 9.
Stephen, King, uſurps the crown, 14.
Stepholm, Iſle of, in the Severn, Dubricius, alias St. Deuroik, retires to as a hermit, 6.
Stewyn, i. e. Stephen.
Strogoyle and Pembroke, Sir William Marſhall, Earl of, guardian to King H. III. by ordinance of the Lords, confirmed by the Pope's Legate, St. Gwale, 38.
Suffolk, Sir Wm. Pole, Duke, Marquis, and Earl v. "Pole," 55.
Suldham, in Norfolk, founded by William Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 45.
Sumeri, i. q. Somery, q. v.
Surrey, the Duke of, ſlain at Cirenceſter, 57.
Surrey, Thomas Holland, Duke of, q. v.
Swans, the ſiſters of Eneas changed into, 18.
Swanſey, in South Wales, conquered by Henry, Earl of Warwick, and kept by him and heirs till King John ſeized it, 31.
Swearing puniſhed in the houſehold of Margaret, Counteſs of Shrewſbury, by confining the offender to bread and water for the day, 51.
Syward, v. Seyward.

Talbot, John, Earl of Shrewſbury, v. "Shrewſbury."
Talbot, Margaret, wife of Sir John, and daughter of the Earl of Warwick, v. "Shrewſbury," 51.
Tamworth, Elfleda, daughter of Alfred, dies at, 11.
Templars, a place of, beyond the bridge of Warwick, founded by Roger, Earl of Warwick, with the privileges of St. John's, Clerkenwell, 32.

Index.

Tewkſbury, George, Duke of Clarence, brother of E. IV. buried at, 59; Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, buried at, 1446, 54; Iſabell, Ducheſs of Clarence, eldeſt daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick, buried at, 58; Richard, ſon of George, Duke of Clarence, born at, 58; plans of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, for opening water communication between it and Warwick, 50.

Theleaws, St. 2d Biſhop of Landaff, ſucceſſor to St. Deuroik, alias Dubricius, 6.

Thomas, Earl of Warwick, made yearly grants of proviſion to the prieſts of Guycliffe, 32.

Thomas of Warwick, Earl of Warwick, ſon and heir of Sir Henry, Earl of Warwick, married Ele, daughter to Sir William Longſpe, Earl of Saliſbury, ſon to H. II. he died ſ. p. and is buried at Warwick, 36.

Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, v. Beauchamp, 47.

Thurkildus, of Warwick, ſon to Alwinus, (Lord Ailwyn), by command of William the Conqueror, in his time Warwick Caſtle was enlarged, &c. his wife was the Counteſs of Perche, by commands of William the Conqueror, 29.

Thurkildus, ſucceeded by his daughter and heir, Margareta, 30.

Tony, Lord, King John grants privileges to him and his heirs, the Earls of Warwick, 15.

Tony, Lord, Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, was Lord Tony through his wife Alice, 46.

Trent, to the Scotch Sea, the part of England given by King Brute to his 3d ſon Albanact, and called Albany, 1; the part of England between it and the South Sea, called Loygre, and given by King Brute, to his eldeſt ſon, Locryne, 1.

Trinity, a College of, of royal foundation, Guycliffe foretold to be, v. "Rawghtone," 50.

Turkyl, of Warwick, or Thurkildus, ſon to Lord Ailwin, uſed by Wygodus as a witneſs to his releaſe of the lordſhip of Willysford and Grafton to the Monks of Warwick, 27.

Tutbury, George, Duke of Clarence, brother of E. IV. built much at, 59.

Tyrry, Sir, "ſworn brother" of Sir Guy, Earl of Warwick, whoſe body he tranſlates from Guycliff, 22.

Ufa the huued, or Huue the huued, heir to Sir Wayth, Earl and Viſcount of Warwick, temp. Edward the Martyr, confirms his father's gifts to Eveſham, and bequeathed his body to be buried there, 25.

Venice, Sir Raynbrowne, Earl of Warwick, buried in an iſland near, 23.

Vervik, i. e. Warwick, q. v.

Waithe, Sir, v. Waythe, Wegeatus.

Wales, Edward, Prince of, ſon of R. III. v. "Edward." 64; Gowerland in, conquered by Henry Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, 30; Langenithe Priory in, q. v.

Walkunſtow, i. e. Walthamſtow, q. v. 52.

Wallaranus, Earl of Warwick, ſon of Roger, Earl of Warwick, confirms his father's gift of the hermitage of Guycliffe to the Priory of St. Sepulchre's, as a cell, at Warwick, 32.

Wallaranus, brother and ſucceſſor to William, Earl of Warwick, reported to have long diſputed the inheritance with his brother, who returned unexpectedly from the Holy Land, and ſo waſted the eſtates, 33; had much trouble for his livelihood in the days of King R. I. 34; marries 1ſt. Margaret, daughter of the Earl of Hereford, by whom no iſſue; 2d. Dame Maud; 3d. Dame Alice Harcourt, by whom he had "great iſſue," 34; gives to Hubert, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Chancellor of England, during his own life, the collation of all the Prebends in the College of Warwick, 34; as homage for his Earldom bore a ſword on the right of King John, at his Coronation, 34; confirms his father's gift of Guycliff to the Priory of St. Sepulchre's, Warwick, 34; gives Walter Maudut to his daughter Alice in marriage with Sir William Maudut, Baron of Hanſlape, 40; dies 24th December, 1203, 34.

Wallaranus, v. Walleran.

Wallaranus, v. Wallerand.

Walleran, Earl of Warwick, father of Henry, 31.

Walleran, Earl, ſon of Roger, Earl of Warwick, confirms his father's gift of the hermitage of Guycliffe to the Priory of St. Sepulchre's, as a cell, Warwick, 32.

Walleran, Robert, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.

Walleran, v. Wallaranus, v. Walleranus.

Wallerand, v. Wallaranus.

Wallingford, v. Walyngford.

Walthamſtow, Eleanor, daughter of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, by his 1ſt wife, born at, 52.

Walton Maudut, near Warwick, the manor of, given on the marriage of Sir William Maudut, Baron of Hanſlape, to Alice, daughter of Walleran, Earl of Warwick, 34, 40.

Walwort, abundance grows about the fields and courts of Warwick, where the great ſlaughter was made by the Danes, A. D. 1016, 26.
Walyngford, Sir Seyward, Baron of, and his wife Dame Sabyn, a Florentine, father and mother of Sir Guy, Earl of Warwick, 21.
Ward of children, and marriage of widow, agreement for, between King John and Alice, widow of Walleran, Earl of Warwick, 34.
Warmington, in Warwickſhire, a cell of French Monks to the houſe of Preaus in Normandy, founded at, by Henry Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, 31.
Warmynton, Sir Thomas, Prior of Kenilworth, Godfather to Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 47.
Warremond, King, buried at Glouceſter, 10.
Warremond, i. e. Warremundus, q. v.
Warremundus, or Warremond, of the royal blood of the Saxons, changes the name of Warwick from Caier Gwayr to Warwick, 10.
Warren, Thomas Holland, Earl of, q. v.

EARLDOM OF WARWICK, AND EARLS IN GENERAL.

Warwick, &c. the Earls of, not lords of the town in time of Domeſday, 12; deſcended from Eneas, with a legend concerning his birth and arms given him in fight by an angel, argent a croſſcroſſlet of Gold, 18; take the croſſcroſſlets in their arms from the legend of their anceſtor Eneas, q. v. 19; did not have Warwick till after the Heptarchy, 19; impoveriſhed by the diſputes of the 2 brothers, William and Walleran, ſucceſſively Earls of Warwick, q. v. 33.
Warwick, Earldom of, homage done for, at the Coronation of King John, by Walleran, Earl of Warwick, bearing a ſword at the King's right hand, 34; King John aliens the Caſtle of Briſtol from the heirs of the Earls of Glouceſter, which Lordſhip, they ſay, ought to have belonged to the Earldom of Warwick, 35.
Warwick, Earls of, Welſh, Marthrudus one of them: there were many more, one of them was marvellouſly entombed at the bottom of the Avon, 9.
Warwick, Earl and Counteſs of, taken priſoners to Kenilworth Caſtle, by Sir Andrew Giffart, and ranſomed for 1900 marks to "his people of valour," 42.

EARLS AND COUNTESSES OF WARWICK, BY NAME.

Warwick, Counteſs of, Alice, wife of William Maudut the Earl, 42.
Warwick, Alice, Counteſs of, wife of Guido Beauchamp, Earl of, who, through her, was alſo Lord Tony, 46.
Warwick, Anne, Counteſs of, in her own right, wife of Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury, by her Earl of Warwick, 56.
Warwick, Cecil, Ducheſs of, daughter of the Earl of Saliſbury, and wife to Henry, Duke of Warwick, 54.
Warwick, Edward, Earl of, ſon to George, Duke of Clarence, by Iſabel (Nevill), v. "Edward," 60.
Warwick, Ele, Counteſs of, daughter to Sir William Longſpe, Earl of Saliſbury, ſhe is buried before the high altar of Oſney, v. "Ele," 36.
Warwick, Eliſabeth, Counteſs of, wife of Richard Beauchamp, Earl of, and daughter to Lord Berkeley, and in right of her mother, Lady Liſle, 51.
Warwick, Counteſs of, by inheritance, Dame Felys ("Felys la belle,") wife of Sir Guy, 20.
Warwick, George, Duke of Clarence, Earl of, in right of his wife Iſabel, eldeſt daughter of Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick, 59.
Warwick, "the good Earl," Guido Beauchamp, Earl of, always ſo called, 46; takes Piers Gaveſton, and beheads him, 46.
Warwick, Earl of, Sir Guy, q. v.
Warwick, Henry, Earl of, in right of his wife Margaret, temp. W. Conqueror, 31.
Warwick, Henry, ſon of Walleran, Earl of, during his minority King John ſeizes Gowerland from the Earls of Warwick, by one of whom, viz. Henry Newburgh, it had been conquered, 31.
Warwick, Henry, Earl of, v. Henry.
Warwick, Duke of, Henry Beauchamp, K. G. ſon and heir to Earl Richard, v. "Beauchamp," 54.
Warwick, Johannes Mareſcallus, Earl of, q. v.
Warwick, Margery, Counteſs of, ſiſter to Sir Henry Oyly, 35.
Warwick, Margery, Counteſs of, ſiſter and heir to Thomas, Earl of, v. "Margery," 37.
Warwick, Margaret, Counteſs of, v. "Margaret."
Warwick, Maud or Mold, Counteſs of, wife of, William Beauchamp, v. "Beauchamp." 46.
Warwick, Maud, Counteſs of, v. "Maud."
Warwick (then called Caerware), Morvidius, Earl of, 8.
Warwick, Philippa, Counteſs of, daughter of Sir Thomas Baſſet, Baron of Hedingdon: by her, the Earl, her huſband, founds Biceſter, ſhe married 2dly, Sir William Percy, of Yorkſhire, 35.
Warwick, Pleſſetis de Johannes, Earl of, q. v.

Warwick, Sir John Pleſſy Earl of,—Henry III. granted privileges to, 15.
Warwick, Earl of, Beauchamp Sir Richard,—Henry V. granted privileges to, 15.
Warwick, Richard Nevil, ſon and heir of the Earl of Saliſbury, Earl of, in right of his wife Anne, ſiſter and heir of Henry, Duke of Warwick, and daughter of Earl Richard, 56.
Warwick, Sir Richard Nevil, Earl of, in right of his wife; alſo Earl of Saliſbury, Lord of Midlam, &c. v. "Nevil," 57.
Warwick, Richard Beauchamp, Earl of, v. "Beauchamp."
Warwick, Richard Nevill, Earl of, v. "Nevill."
Warwick, Rogerus, Earl of, and of Newburgh, v. "Rogerus."
Warwick, Earl of, Rohaudus, 1ſt aſſumes the croſſcroſſlet in his arms, in token of the legend of his anceſtor Eneas, q. v. 19.
Warwick, Thomas of Warwick, Earl of, v. "Thomas."
Warwick, Earl of, Thomas Beauchamp, v. "Beauchamp," 47, 48.
Warwick, Thomas Holland, Earl of, for 2 years, q.v.
Warwick, Thurkildus of, v. "Thurkildus."
Warwick, Uſa, or Hue the huued, Earl and Viſcount of, 25.
Warwick, Walleran, Earl of, v. Wallaranus, v. Walleran.
Warwick, Earl of, William, founded St. John's in the Eaſt ſuburbs of Warwick, and dedicated it to St. John and St. Thomas, temp. H. II. 3.
Warwick, Earl of, Sir Wm. Beauchamp,—Edward I. granted privileges to, 15.
Warwick, William, Earl of, who died 1184, according to others, he lived longer, returning from the Holy Land, and diſputing his inheritance with his brother Wallaranus, in which diſpute the eſtates were ſadly waſted, 33.
Warwick, William Maudut, Earl of, in his mother's right, ſhe being daughter of Walleran, and ſiſter of Henry, Earls of Warwick, temp. H. III. always held to the King's ſide, 42.
Warwick, William, Earl of, v. William.
Warwick, William de Beauchamp, Earl of, in right of his mother Iſabel, ſiſter of Sir William Maudut, Earl of Warwick, 45.

WARWICK FAMILY ARMS, ETC.

Warwick Arms, compounded with a bend and croſſcroſſlets, by William de Beauchamp, the firſt Earl of that name, for himſelf and wife, q. v. 44.
"Warwick Voucher," 140 marks left for lending at need to the poor ſcholars of Oxford, by Ele, Counteſs of Warwick, and called "Warwick Voucher," 36.

WARWICK CASTLE.

Warwick Caſtle, repaired by Elfleda, daughter of King Alfred, 11.
Warwick, the Caſtle enlarged, and the Town diked and gated by William the Conqueror, by pulling down 26 houſes that were tenants to the monks of Coventry, 13.
Warwick Caſtle, Richard III. repairs: his wife born there, 17.
Warwick, in the time of Lord Thurkildus, William the Conqueror commands the Caſtle to be enlarged, and the Town gated, 29.
Warwick Caſtle, the lordſhips of Willysford and Little Grafton held of, q. v.; taken by treaſon by Sir Andrew Giffart, leſt it ſhould ſtrengthen the party of the King, the Earl being on his ſide. It was afterwards only hedged till the days of Earl Thomas, 42; All-hallows Church in, q. v.; walled and gated by Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, who died 1369, 47; George, Duke of Clarence, intended to have made an outer ward encloſing the ſtable, to have made a park for a pleaſans for deer, &c. 59.

WARWICK TOWN.

Warwick, borough of, "made" temp. Alexander the Great, by King Gutheline, and called by him "Caerleon," 1; its 1ſt name Caerleon, its 2d name, Cairumbre, its 3d name, Cayr Gwayr, its 4th name, Warwick, 1; repaired by King Gwiderius, 1; the Schoolhouſe in the market, formerly the Church of St. John Baptiſt, q. v. 3; repaired by St. Craddok, who found it deſtroyed by war, 3; Church of St. John Baptiſt, in the market of, built by St. Craddok, 3; St. John's in the eaſt ſuburbs, founded by Earl William, temp. H. II. and dedicated to St. John and St. Thomas, different from St. John's Church in the market, 3; the name changed from Caerleon to Cairumbre by the Britiſh King Conſtantinus, 4; Dubricius, alias St. Deveroik, Biſhop of, but it was then called "Cayrgwayre," 6; the Cathedral of Biſhop Dubricius, alias St. Deueroik, was in All-hallows Church in the Caſtle, 6; Gervas, in his book of the Marvels of the World, ſays that there are wells there which from Chriſtmas to Midſummer run over, and are ſalt, for the reſt of the year there is little water in them, but that freſh: Rows's mode of explaining it, 8; borough of, Peter ſpeaks of it in "Reductorio morali" in the Univerſity Library at Oxford, 8; a ſalt well little more than a mile from, and many ſprings about it, where perpetual ſalt wells might be made, 8; the name changed to, from Caier Gwayr by King Warremond, 10; Edward the Confeſſor grants privileges to, 12; Sir Harry Newburgh, 2d ſon of Sir Roger Beaumont, made Earl of, with a grant of the borough, by William the Conqueror, 13; fair granted to, 15; 2 fairs and other privileges granted to, by Edward IV. at inſtigation of the Duke of Clarence, but withſtood by the Chancellor, 16; Richard III. benefactor to, 17; during the Heptarchy held by the Kings of Mercia: after the Heptarchy, Earls had it, till the Conqueror gave it, with great privileges, to his couſin, a Norman, Sir Harry Newburgh, 19; before its burning by the Danes was a royal town, and has never ſince recovered the damage, about the fields plenty of Wolwort grows where people were ſlain, and murder ſtones congealed of ſand and man's blood, 26; with 2 abbeys, one at Wodlow Hill, the other at St. Nicholas in the town, burnt by the Danes, temp. Ethelred, A. D. 1016, between 1ſt and 6th of January, 26; the quire of the pariſh church of St. Nicholas was formerly the quire of an abbey of black Nuns, burnt by the Danes, temp. Ethelred, 1016, 26; the whole county retained by Alwinus, ſucceſſor to Wygodus, 28; the borough, formerly of ancient demeſne, but given by the Conqueror to Henry, Earl of Warwick, in free gift, 31; the Priory of Sepulchres at, and head houſe of the order in England, founded by Henry (Newburgh) Earl of Warwick, 31; the College of All-hallows in the Caſtle, and that of St. Mary in the Town, united by Roger, Earl of Warwick and Newburgh, according to the intention of his father Henry, 32; the Spital houſe of St. Michel's for lepers, in North ſuburb, and the Hoſpital of Templars beyond the bridge, founded by Roger, Earl of Warwick, 32; the collation of all the Prebends in the College of, granted, for his own life, by Walleran, Earl of Warwick, to Hubert, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, 34; the common ground called "the Claypitts" given to the poor community of, by Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, 37; H. III. with his great Council at, has delivered up to him Kenilworth Caſtle, 42; peace ſettled at by H. III. and Council, and the manner of proceeding, 42; the terms of peace (as ſettled by the 12 Commiſſioners appointed by H. III. and Council, who retired to Coventry for the purpoſe,) proclaimed in St. Mary's Church by Octobonus the Legate, 42; Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of, makes the great booth in the market, and makes the town toll free, 47; Thos. Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, who died at Calais, 14 Nov. 1369, is buried at, in the fair quire which he begun, and which his ſon finiſhed, 47; Warwick College, Thomas Holland, Earl of Kent, while Earl of Warwick (for 2 years) a benefactor to, and Thos. Beauchamp, the Earl of Warwick, on his reſtoration confirms his acts, 49; Warwick, improvements contemplated by Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, ſpecially for rendering the Avon navigable, v. "Beauchamp," 50; St. Bartholomew's fair purchaſed for by Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 50; Richard Beauchamp, Earl of, founds there a beautiful chapel for 4 prieſts and 2 clerks, is buried there, 1439, 50; Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, charges his ſon never to change the name for any other, 50; the plans of Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick for, were—to increaſe the common, to ordain new maces for the bailiffs, but he died ere he was a quarter of a year out of his wardſhip, 1446, 54; Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick, his contemplated benefactions and improvements at Guycliffe, 57; George, Duke of Clarence, plans to wall the town, to make an outer ward to the Caſtle, cloſing in the barn and ſtables, to reſtore the uſe of the low way, called the hollow way, into the town, &c. to have performed the will of his father in law with reſpect to Guycliffe, and to have got privileges for the burgeſſes, 59.

Warwick, Carvayre, q. v.

Warwick, St. John's, q. v.

Warwick, St. Michel's, q. v.

Warwick, St. Nicholas, q. v.

Warwick, St. Sepulchre's, the Priory of, v. St. Sepulchre's.

Warwickſhire, Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, made Sheriff of, for life, by the King, 47.

Warwyk, v. Warwick.

Waryn, of Waſſingburn, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.

Index.

Waſſingburn. v. Waryn.
Wayth the huued, i. e. Wegeatus the huued, q. v.
Wegeatus the huued, or Wayth the huued, endows the Abbey of Eveſham with 2 lordſhips, viz. Willysford and Little Grafton, 24.
Wells in Warwick, running over ſalt from Chriſtmas to Midſummer, reſt of the year but little water in them, and that freſh, as ſtated by Gervas; probably they were in the ſtreet called the Saltysford, and Rows's mode of explaining it, 8.
Wells, ſalt, in and near Warwick, v. Salt, 8.
Welſh Earls of Warwick, ſeveral, 9.
Welſh Genealogiſts, trace pedigree to Adam, 5.
Weſtacre, in Norfolk, Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, founder of, by his wife Alice, Baroneſs Tony in her own right, 46.
Whitby, founded by William, Earl of Warwick, who died 1184, the huſband viz. of Maud, eldeſt daughter and heir of Lord Percy, 33.
Whytby, v. Whitby.
Wicklisforth, i. e. Willysford, q. v.
Willerad, Sir, i. e. Walleran, q. v. 34.
William the Conqueror, Duke of Normandy and King of England, rewarded his great lords;—among others, Sir Roger Beaumont and his 2 ſons, 13; commands the enlargement of Warwick Caſtle, and the gating of the Town, 29; by his commands Thurkildus of Warwick marries the Counteſs of Perch, 29; makes the New Foreſt by deſtroying many towns and churches, 30.
William of Malmeſbury, Chronicler, cited, 13, 28, 30.
William Rufus, "miſchevid" in the New Foreſt, 30.
Wilelmus, Earl of Warwick, married firſt Mawd, eldeſt daughter and heir of Lord Percy; ſecondly, Margaret D'Evyle, he died ſ. p. 15 Nov. 1184, 33.
William, Earl of Warwick, founded St. John's Warwick, Whytby, and other places, 33; died 1184: according to ſome, lived long after; married, firſt, Mawd, eldeſt daughter and heir of Lord Percy; ſecondly, Margaret Devyle, 33.
William (Maudut), Earl of Warwick, v. "Maudut."
Willysford and Little Grafton, held of the Caſtle of Warwick, and now belonging to the Hoſpitallers of the temple of Balſale; Wegeatus or Wayth the huued, endows the Abbey of Eveſham with them, 24; the manors of, got back from the monks of Eveſham, by Wolgeatus, for the term of his life, in days of St. Edward and Ethelred, 26; the lordſhips of, long unjuſtly retained by Wygodus, ſucceſſor to Wolgeatus, but reſtored to Eveſham by him at the inſtance of Abbot Ailwin, temp. Ed. Confeſſor. 27.
Wincheſter, the victory of Colbrond at, by Sir Guy, Earl of Warwick, 22.
Wincheſter, Biſhop of, Henry Beaufort, Cardinal, v. "Beaufort," 57.
Wlwythe, a holy anchoreſs, dwelt on the North ſide of the quire of St. Nicholas, Warwick, in days of Henry, Earl of Warwick, 35.
Wodlow Hill, an Abbey of monks at, burned by the Danes, temp. Ethelred, A.D. 1016, between 1ſt and 6th of January, 26.
Wolgeatus or Wollet, ſon and heir to Earl Huue the huued, in St. Edward's and Ethelred's days gets back the lordſhips of Willisford and Grafton from the Abbey of Eveſham, for his life, 26.
Wollet, i. e. Wolgeatus, q. v.
Worceſter, built by Conſtantinus, the Britiſh king, its old name was Cayrvrongon, 4; King John buried at, 15.
Worceſter, N. Biſhop of, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.
Worceſter, the Grey Friars of, William Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and his wife, and his father, William de Beauchamp, buried at, 1298, being of their foundation, 45.
Worceſterſhire, William Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, and Earl of Warwick, hereditary Sheriff of, 45.
Worcettur, v. Worceſter.
Wygodus, ſucceſſor to Wolgeatus, long retained unlawfully the lordſhips of Wykilsford and Grafton, but at inſtance of Abbot Ailwin reſtored them, temp. Ed. Confeſſor: his wife was the ſiſter of the Duke and Earl of Leuerych, 31.
Wynchombys, Thomas, in his works ſpeaks of King Gutheline, 1.

York, St. Sampſon, Archbiſhop of, 6; All-hallows, North Street, Dame Rawghtone, an anchoreſs dwelling at, 50; Edmund of Langley, Duke of, v. "Langley," 55.

Zouch, Alan, one of the 12 Commiſſioners to ſettle a peace at Warwick, appointed by H. III. and Council, 42.

Alphabetical Liſt of the Effigies.

ELIANORE, 2d daughter by his 1ſt wife, to Sir Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick,—Ducheſs of Somerſet, ob. 1467, 52.

Alicia, daughter to Earl Walleran, wife to Sir William Maudut, Baron of Hampſlape, i. e. Hanſlape, 40.

Alwinus, ſucceſſor to Wygodus, 28.

Anne, daughter and heir to Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, ob. infans, 55.

Anne, wife of Richard III. Queen of England, 62.

Arthal, 7.

Arthgallus, 7.

Beauchamp, Anne, daughter and heir to Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick. ob. infans, 55.

Beauchamp, Anne, daughter to Earl Richard, and ſiſter and heir to Henry Beauchamp, Duke of Warwick, in her own right, Counteſs of Warwick, 56.

Beauchamp, Sir Harry, Earl and Duke of Warwick, K. G. 54.

Beauchamp, Margaret, eldeſt daughter of Sir Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, by his 1ſt wife, Elizabeth, daughter of Lord Berkeley, 51.

Beauchamp, Richard, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1439, 50.

Beauchamp, Thomas, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1369, 47.

Beauchamp, Thomas, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1401, 48.

Beauchamp, Guido, ſon and heir to Sir William, Earl of Warwick, and by his mother, Lord of Kyrtlyng, and, by his wife, Lord Tony, 46.

Beauchamp, de Willelmus, Baron of Elmley, 44.

Beauchamp, William, Earl of Warwick, Baron of Elmley and Newburgh, &c. ob. 1298, 45.

Clarence, George, Duke of, next brother to E. IV. 59.

Clarence, Iſabell, Ducheſs of, youngeſt daughter to the Earl of Warwick, 58.

Conſtantinus, 4.

Craddok, St., 3.

Edward the Confeſſor, 12.

Edward IV. 16.

Edward, Sir, ſon to George, Duke of Clarence, by his wife Iſabel, and through her Earl of Warwick, born 21 Feb. 1474, 60.

Edward, Prince of Wales, ſon and heir of Richard III, 64.

Elfleda, 11.

Elizabeth, 3d daughter, by his firſt wife, to Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, wife to Lord Latimer, 53.

Eneas, 18.

Felys, Dame, Counteſs of Warwick, daughter and heir of Earl Rohaudus, and wife of Sir Guy, 20.

George, Duke of Clarence, next brother to E. IV. 59.

Guido Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 46.

Guthelinus, or King Guthelyne, 1.

Guy, Sir, Earl of Warwick, 21.

Guy, Sir, Earl of Warwick, turned pilgrim, 22.

Gwayr, 5.

Gwiderius, King Gwidard, 2.

Henricus, a Norman, couſin to St. Edward and the Conqueror, 31.

Henry, Earl of Warwick, ſon and heir to Earl Walleran, 35.

Harry Beauchamp, Earl and Duke of Warwick, K. G. 54.

Holand, Thomas, Earl of Kent and Surrey, K. G. Earl of Warwick for 2 years, 49.

Iſabella, ſiſter to Sir William Maudut, Earl of Warwick, 43.

Iſabell, Ducheſs of Clarence, wife to George, Duke of Clarence, and eldeſt daughter to Richard Nevill, Earl of Warwick, 58.

Liſt of the Effigies.

John, King, 15.
Johannes Mareſcallus, in right of his wife Earl of Warwick, ob. 1245, 38.
Johannes de Pleſſetis, 2d huſband to Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, and in her right Earl of Warwick, ob. 1265, 39.

Latimer Lady, Elizabeth, 3d daughter, by his 1ſt wife, to Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and wife of Lord Latimer, 53.

Mareſcallus, Johannes, huſband to Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, and in her right Earl of Warwick, ob. 1245, 38.
Margaret, daughter and heir to Thurkildus, and wife of Henry Newburgh, Earl of Warwick, 30.
Margaret, eldeſt daughter of Sir Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, by his firſt wife, Dame Eliſabeth, daughter of Lord Berkeley, 51.
Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, ſiſter and heir to Thomas, Earl of Warwick, 37.
Margaret, daughter to George, Duke of Clarence, by Iſabel (Nevill), 61.
Marthrudus, Earl of Warwick, 9.
Maudut, William, Baron of Hanſlape, married Alice, daughter to Wallerand, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1218, 41.
Maudut, William, in his mother's right Earl of Warwick, and in his father's Baron of Hanſlape, and Chamberlain of the Exchecquer, 42.
Mawde, the Empreſs and Counteſs of Anjou, 14.
Morvidius, 8.

Nevil, Sir Richard, Earl of Saliſbury, Lord of Midlam, Earl of Warwick in right of his wife, 57.

Pleſſetis de, Johannes, 2d huſband to Margery, Counteſs of Warwick, and in her right Earl of Warwick, ob. 1265, 39.

Raiburnus, Sir Raynbrowne, Earl of Warwick, ſon and heir of Sir Guy, 23.
Richard III. 17.
Richard III. King of England, 63.
Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1439, 50.
Rogerus, Earl of Warwick and Newburgh, ſon of Henry, 32.
Rohaudus, Earl of Warwick, 19.

Sanctus Caradocus, St. Craddok, 3.
Sanctus Deveroik, 6.
Sanctus Dubricius, St. Deveroik, 6.
Sanctus Edwardus, 12.
Somerſet, Alianore, Ducheſs of, 2d daughter by his 1ſt wife, to Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1467, 52.

Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1369, 47.
Thomas Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, 48.
Thomas Holland, Earl of Kent and Surrey, and Earl of Warwick for 2 years, 49.
Thomas of Warwick, Earl of Warwick, ſon and heir to Sir Henry, Earl of Warwick, 36.
Thurkildus, of Warwick, ſon to Alwinus, 29.

Ufa the huued, or Huue the huued, heir to Sir Waithe, Earl and Viſcount of Warwick, 25.

Wallaranus, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1203, 34.
Walleran, Earl of Warwick, ob. 1203, 34.
Warremond, 10.
Warremundus, 10.
Warwick, Anne, Counteſs of in her own right, wife to Richard Nevil, Earl of Saliſbury, by her Earl of Warwick, 56.
Warwick, Duke and Earl of, Sir Henry Beauchamp, K. G. 54.
Warwick, Sir Richard Nevil, Earl of, in right of his wife: Earl of Saliſbury, Lord of Midlam, &c. 57.
Wegeatus the huued, or Wayth the huued, 24.
William the Conqueror, 13.
William, Earl of Warwick, ob. ſ. p. 1184, 33.
Willelmus de Beauchamp, Baron of Elmley, 44.
William Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, Baron of Elmley and Newburgh, &c. ob. 1298, 45.
Wolgeatus or Wollet, ſon and heir to Earl Huue the huued, 26.
Wygodus, ſucceſſor to Wolgeatus, 27.

FAULTS ESCAPED.

No. 14, l. 9, for Hamſlape read Haniſlape.
No. 18, l. 5, for with them, the halfen read with the half on.
No. 34, l. 7, (from end) for Gybelyf read Gybclyf.
No. 42, l. 4, (from end) for the ſtreyt met and ſo they read the greyntment made they.
No. 46, l. 5, (from end) for ſyr read ſyd.
No. 48, l. 16, for gold read yeld.
No. 50, l. 4, (from end) for xxxij read xxxix.

PRINTED BY C. WHITTINGHAM, CHISWICK.

RETURN TO the circulation desk of any University of California Library or to the

NORTHERN REGIONAL LIBRARY FACILITY
Bldg. 400, Richmond Field Station
University of California
Richmond, CA 94804-4698

ALL BOOKS MAY BE RECALLED AFTER 7 DAYS

- 2-month loans may be renewed by calling (510) 642-6753
- 1-year loans may be recharged by bringing books to NRLF
- Renewals and recharges may be made 4 days prior to due date

DUE AS STAMPED BELOW

MAR 3 0 2005

DD20 6M 9-03

LD 21A–45m-9,'67
(H5067s10)476B

General Library
University of California
Berkeley